

CHICAGO WINS SEVENTH GAME FROM CINCINNATI

Victory for White Sox Today Will Create Tie in Contest for World's Championship.

ulated patches even in the grand stands. Usually the official attendance figures are ready during the game, but a half hour after the last out today none was at hand and it was announced they would not be ready for an hour. Just what went wrong was not stated, but it was not because the crowd came too fast to be counted.

A stiff wind was blowing from center across the plate during the struggle. When the Sox came on to the field the band, which on the Red grounds always has some little musical sarcasm at hand, played "She May Have Seen Better Days" and "Please Go Way and Let Me Sleep."

Retaliate Without Delay.

This did not impair the buoyancy of the slandering athletes, who retaliated without delay by putting a run over in the first inning. It was John Collins, first batter up, who made the count. He singled to center and went to second on a sacrifice by Ed Collins. Weaver slammed the ball against the wind for an out to center, but Joe Jackson, who was desperate at having found no new lucky omens in the way of hairpins, singly to left, scoring J. Collins. "Happy" Felsch also delivered a single, on which Jackson took second, but Felsch was forced at second by Gandil's bouncer, ending the assault for the moment.

In their half the home team took heart when Ed Collins juggled Rath's sizzling grounder. The crowd, which was less vociferous than usual, yelled for the aviator to come and meet the Sox going up, but it was a vain prayer, for Collins redeemed himself by going way back and taking Daubert's fly. The mighty Groh struck out, and Roush hit to Collins, who threw to Weaver, forcing Rath.

Soon Bowled Over.

In the second the Sox were bowled over in short order, without getting a man to first. The Reds did a little better, for after Duncan had fled out to center, Kopf singled, but was caught stealing on Schalk's perfect throw. Neale fouled out to Weaver. It was not until the fifth inning that Cincinnati, by virtue of a single and a base on balls, got a man safely to second. The Sox, however, got another run in the third, Johnny Collins again making the count.

Collins, who played center for Felsch while Felsch went to right where the sun is not so troublesome, was the first man up. He delivered his second single as if he were playing billiards. The ball slapped off Sallee's mitt, caromed off Kopf and finally got to Rath too belated for a play at first. Ed Collins, who was unable to deliver a hit in similar circumstances in the first, now hit sharply to center, sending his namesake to second. Weaver sent a grounder to Kopf who threw it to Rath for a force out of Ed Collins. Rath claimed that the runner interfered with his throw to first for a double and Weaver was called out for the interference. J. Collins meanwhile reached third and scored on Jackson's hit.

Sandwiches a Single.

In the fourth Schalk sandwiched a single in between the outs, but never got farther than first. In the fifth the Sox registered their final brace of tallies. Sallee in this round was driven from the box and the remaining two-thirds of the inning was pitched by Fisher.

J. Collins started unapologetically by flying out to right. Captain Collins again singled. Weaver rolled one to Groh, who let it get through his legs and Weaver reached first and Collins second, Groh's error and

BLUE AND WHITE TO CLASH WITH COYOTE ELEVEN

University of South Dakota to Present Strongest Team Creighton Has Ever Opened With.

When the University of South Dakota football eleven faces Tommy Mills' Creighton squad on Creighton field at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon the Blue and White team will meet the strongest aggregation it has ever encountered.

The Coyote squad has always been a Tartar for Creighton, but in recent years the locals have conquered persistently by narrow margins.

The 1919 representatives of the South Dakota school are heralded as the fastest team gathered under the red and white colors in the last six years.

Stories of their prowess have long since reached Creighton ears. Every man on the team blames those stories for the strenuous drilling Mills has subjected his team to this week.

The personnel of the Blue and White squad that will open the game Saturday is still in doubt.

Only a few on the team are certain of their positions. Creighton followers point to Eddie Mulholland, the brilliant halfback of former seasons as the left halfback without doubt.

Set Leaky will take his place at fullback when the whistle blows to set off the season. The other halfback position is mooted. "Tank" Manley, Roy Moonan, Frank Lucas, Cliff Long or any one of half a dozen other backfield men may be seen at right half for the initial contest.

Either "Mickey" Harmon, Cliff Long or Mike Driscoll will take the pilot position.

No one, not even Mills, knows whether Brox or Bentlage will play at center or who of a dozen ends will win the two end positions. Ole Paulsen and Bill Nemezek are both sure of tackle positions. Cavanaugh and Healy will probably play guards. Creighton fans are confident that Mills has the greatest team the Catholics have had in years, but they also feel that to lock horns with a team like the Coyotes without even the semblance of a practice game to expose their weaknesses is taking on a real task.

that which followed by Rath were costly. Jackson drove a boulder to the Red second baseman, who made a straight fumble of it and the bases were filled. In this exciting crisis Felsch, who is frequently called upon to sacrifice, was ordered to hit. He singled to center and Ed Collins and Weaver scored. Gandil relieved the strain on the Reds by going out, Fisher to Daubert.

In their half of this round Cincinnati contrived to get a man on second for the first time. Kopf, the first man at the plate, fled out to Jackson. Neale singled and walked to second when Wingo was given a walk. Wingo became quite a pedestrian during the contest, as he was given free passage three times and he attained a batting average of 1.000 by delivering a hit in the ninth. Confronted for the first time with men on first and second, Cicotte tightened. Ruether made a brief appearance as a pinch hitter for Fisher and fouled out to Weaver. Rath shot a grounder at Weaver and with Brown out at first.

One Tally in Sixth.

The sixth inning produced the one lone tally accumulated by the Reds. Daubert struck out, but Groh, smarting in self accusation because of his recent record of error, whaled the ball over the temporary fence in left, but because of ground rules, what would have been a triple or a homer went for a double. Cicotte threw Roush out at first, Groh got to third, Duncan singled to center and Groh scored. Duncan was forced at second by Groh's grounder.

In their half of this round J. Collins doubled after two were down, but the Cuban Luque, now pitching for Cincinnati, struck out Captain Collins and the chance went gliding. The Cuban hit the seventh fanned Weaver and Felsch, while Jackson died on an infield smash.

In the eighth and ninth the Cuban pitched splendid ball, striking out Cicotte and retiring the batsmen. One-two-three, with little apparent effort.

Cicotte was not menaced again until the ninth. Kopf and Neale had been retired on flies, when Wingo singled to right. Sherman Magee batted for Luque and also singled. If Rath, the next batter, could have poled out a home run, it would have tied the score, but his attempt in this line went no farther than Felsch's mitt.

It was not until the crowd had worked its way from the grounds back to town that it learned how small the attendance really was, namely 13,932, which is less than half the average attendance at previous games here, and 20,000 under the Chicago average.

Eller Likely to Pitch.

"Hod" Eller, who held the White Sox to three hits in the fifth game of the world series at Chicago Monday, establishing a series strike-out record of six in a row, probably will face the Sox in the eighth game of the series scheduled for Chicago tomorrow.

"Lefty" Williams, although twice beaten by the Reds, is expected to be Manager Gleason's choice.

Armours to Play Fort Omaha Soldiers; Game Saturday at the Fort

In preparation for the double bill with the Murphys, scheduled for Rourke park, Sunday afternoon, the Armours will loosen up with a workout, playing the soldiers of Fort Omaha at the post, Saturday afternoon. The doughboys will have their star battery, Rabe pitching and Thomas catching, in action against the packers and it is likely that Graves and Peters will work for the semi-pros.

SIDELIGHTS ON GAME.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 8.—The Sox and Reds returned to Chicago, where the eighth game of the series is scheduled for Thursday. The ninth game, if necessary, will be played in Cincinnati Friday.

Catcher Wingo of the Reds had a batting average of 1.000. He walked three times and in the ninth poled a single to right.

Loyle supporters of the Reds thought Manager Moran made a mistake in not starting Luque, the Cuban pitcher, instead of Sallee. The Cuban pitched the last three innings and held the Sox to one hit. He fanned five.

Groh's double in the sixth ordinarily would have gone for a home run, but ground rules limited him to two bases. The ball sailed over Jackson's head and landed under the left field bleachers. Groh scored a minute later with the Reds' only run when Duncan singled to center.

There was an appalling falling off in attendance as compared with the crowd of 32,000 that witnessed Tuesday's game. The $6 box seats were not a third filled. There were gapping holes in the grandstand section, and the left field bleachers did not contain more than 200 spectators. The right field bleachers, however, were nearly filled.

Scalpers who bought tickets expecting there would be a good demand for them lost heavily.

Manager Moran of the Reds switched to the third base coaching line at the start of the eighth, hoping that his change from first base would bring a change of luck to the Reds.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—The Castleton, for trotters of the 2:07 class, the feature of the races Wednesday, was won by Royal Mac after a grueling contest, in which the favorite and Holy Rood Kate fought out the finish, with Murphy outdriving Dodge, the owner of the mare. St. Paul Loses First Game in Series for Minor League Title

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 8.—Vernon won the first game of the Western minor league championship series here today from St. Paul, 7 to 1. Free hitting and loose playing featured the contest.

Though hit freely, Finerman was strong in the pinches.

Merritt, a left hander, who started for the Saints, but in attempting to field Meusel's line drive in the fifth inning, was injured, was relieved by Williams. The score:

Cicotte Stages Comeback and Wins Seventh Game

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 8.—Eddie Cicotte, "Lefty" for the Chicago Sox, who has twice suffered defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds in the present series, staged a comeback by winning his game, 4 to 1.

His comeback was marked by steady, although not brilliant, pitching. On the other hand, "Slim" Sallee, one of Pat Moran's mainstays, blew up in the fifth inning and had to be taken from the box. Ray Fisher, another mainstay, completed the inning. Luque, who finished the game for the Cincinnati Redlegs, pitched invincible ball, striking out five of the White Sox batters in the four innings he pitched.

The record of the game shows that Cicotte put over 34 strikes and 40 wide ones as compared with 20 strikes and 34 balls pitched by the three Cincinnati hurlers. A total of 226 balls were pitched, 120 by Cicotte and 106 by Sallee, Fisher and Luque.

HUSKERS LACKED FIGHTING SPIRIT AGAINST IOWA

Making Every Effort to Get in Shape for Meets, Whom Nebraska Meets in Minneapolis Saturday.

Lincoln, Oct. 8.—(Special).—The team lacked the fighting spirit when playing Iowa last Saturday is the explanation given by Coach Schulte's Huskers themselves for their 18 to 0 defeat by Coach Jones' men. Every effort is being made this week to put the eleven in fighting trim for the Minnesota Gophers at Minneapolis Saturday.

"Minnesota has its usual strong team," Assistant Coach Schiller, who scouted the northerners Saturday in their game with North Dakota, which they won, 35 to 0, said. "Their stars are old Johnson, 210-pound tackle; Ruben 190-pound end, and Captain Lampi and Armstrong, backs, are back with all their fight."

Fight to "Get Going."

Nevertheless, the Huskers are fighting hard to "get-a-going" for the big mix at Minneapolis. The varsity are lining up daily behind closed gates on the defensive, with the freshmen carrying the ball.

Strange to say, Monday the scrubs hammered to several touchdowns more easily from the 20-yard line and made first downs quite frequently.

That Iowa should never have beaten the Huskers is generally admitted. Here are the alibis:

1. Iowa had a week's more practice.

2. The driving rain storm spoiled the chances of a comeback after the first half when the score stood 13 to 0, favor Iowa.

3. Captain Dobson and Elmer Schellenberg, star halfbacks, were both out of the game early, both having been seriously injured.

4. Breaks of luck were with Iowa.

Preparing to Win.

Despite the discouraging report of Coach Schiller, the Huskers are preparing to win the game at Minneapolis. The coach shows signs of being a super combination, but it will take a week or two to bring out the best of the men. The great defects are a slow backfield, poor wing men and the lack of a good quarterback.

Head Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame university, who scouted the game at Iowa City, stated that had the luck broke even, Ne-

University of Omaha To Play Creighton in Tryout Next Week

The University of Omaha football team, with a new coach, recommended by Coach Tommy Mills of Creighton university, is slowly rounding into good shape and will play a tryout game with Mills' warriors on the Creighton field.

The first real collegiate game for the Omaha Uni will be with Wayne Normal at Wayne October 18. Coach Cavanaugh has developed a team of really creditable players, from a bunch of green men. The other hard games they expect besides that with Wayne are with Trinity college of Sioux City, Kearney Normal, Tarkio college of Missouri and the Osteopaths of Kirksville, Mo.

The first home game will be with Tarkio college at Creighton field. By means of the practice game with Creighton next Wednesday the new coach expects to weed out the weak spots in the Omaha team and to have a high class grid aggregation lined up for the important games coming.

braska would have played Iowa a nothing-to-nothing tie. In the same breath the Catholic mentor predicted that Iowa would be strong contenders for the western conference championship. Nebraska plays Notre Dame at Lincoln, October 17.

Minnesota also is out for the western conference championship. Victory over the Gophers by Nebraska would restore all the old confidence and place the school on its former high pedestal in football circles. Alumni and students are backing the team to the limit in its battle for form for Saturday's clash.

Head Coach Schulte ranks high in the estimation of Nebraska men who participated in or saw the Iowa game. The former Yost man showed generalship in the handling of his team and, but for the rain, it is conceded possible that the Huskers would have come back for a couple of touchdowns and a tie score in the last half.

Considerable criticism is being directed at Ex-Coach E. J. Stewart for authorizing such a top-sided schedule. Usually a first game for a big college team is with a light team. This year Nebraska and Iowa are perhaps the only two exceptions in the country playing a major contest in their first public appearance.

A special train will be run to Minneapolis from Lincoln Saturday morning. Coach Schulte intends to take his men up Thursday evening. It is probable that a change of lineup will be announced before the end of the week, carrying out the head coach's idea that no man has a "gilt-edged certificate" to his place.

JIM LONDOS AND JOHN PESEK MAY STRIKE, ON BOUT

Were Satisfied With Selection of Holmes for Referee and Threaten No Match Unless He Officiates.

Jack Lewis, promoter of the Pesek-Londos wrestling match which will be held at the Auditorium tomorrow night, is in a pretty fix. Jack's wrestlers threaten to go on a strike.

Ernie Holmes, well known local sportsman, is the reason for the threatened strike.

For two weeks Londos and Mark Slattery, Pesek's manager, clashed and wrangled over the selection of a referee for the match. Then Lewis stepped in, took the bull by the horns and announced that Ernie Holmes would be the referee by his own appointment. He informed the wrestlers they could take it or leave it and that no matter how much they roared Holmes was going to be the third man in the ring.

But Londos and Slattery took Lewis by surprise; each agreed to Holmes and complimented Lewis for his selection.

Then Ernie threw a monkey wrench into the machinery by refusing to accept the job. Ernie explained that he was taking three Omaha ball teams to Phillipsburg, Kan., for a tournament to last over

Friday and would not be able to be here for the match.

Lewis pleaded, but to no avail. Ernie was bound and determined to go to Kansas with the diamond athletes and away he went.

The promoter broke the news to Slattery and Londos and now these quarrelsome gentlemen are uttering all kinds of dire threats. Each has emphatically informed Lewis that he will not wrestle unless Holmes is the referee. Nobody else Lewis suggested would satisfy.

So now Lewis is burning up the telegraph wires trying to get Slattery and Londos and now these quarrelsome gentlemen are uttering all kinds of dire threats. Each has emphatically informed Lewis that he will not wrestle unless Holmes is the referee. Nobody else Lewis suggested would satisfy.

If he cannot get Holmes to return he declares he will name a referee if it has to be himself, and make Pesek and Londos accept him.

Seats for the match are selling fast and Lewis looks for a packed house when the rival gladiators clash Friday night.

BOARD OF HEALTH WARNS AGAINST FLU

Authorities Nervously Await Recurrence of Dreaded Epidemic.

Medical authorities seem to be of the opinion that this country will again be visited by the dreaded scourge of influenza, and have already taken steps to warn the public as to the precaution that should be observed.

The Board of Health of the state of Connecticut has had large placards printed and widely distributed containing the following advice, which will be found valuable in any locality, its purpose being to avoid, if possible, a recurrence of this dreaded epidemic.

How to Avoid the Flu.

1. Don't inhale any person's breath.
2. Avoid persons who cough and sneeze.
3. Don't visit close, poorly ventilated places.
4. Keep warm and dry.
5. If you get wet, change your clothes at once.
6. Don't use drinking cups or towels that other persons have used.
7. For the protection of others, cover your mouth when you cough or sneeze.
8. Clean your teeth and mouth frequently.
9. Don't spit on the floor.

In addition to the above, the Health Commissioner of New York City, in an interview in the New York Times, predicts a return of influenza, warns everyone to guard their health carefully, and those who are weak, he advises to build up their strength to better be prepared for the attack.

The medical profession practically admit their helplessness, and health authorities are nervously facing the situation. They can only advise that precautionary measures be adopted that will prepare the system for the attack.

They are advising that the system not be permitted to get into a run-down condition, but that it be kept in a healthy, vigorous state so that it will be prepared to better withstand the danger of influenza.

The blood is the most vital force of life; therefore, it follows that upon the condition of the blood depends largely the condition of the entire system.

Every organ, nerve, muscle, tissue and sinew of the body is dependent upon the blood supply for nourishment, and as it circulates through the system pure and rich and free from all impurities, it furnishes these different members the healthful properties needed to preserve them and enable them to perform their various duties.
