

COLUMBUS DAY OBSERVED WITH STREET PARADE

Italians of City Commemorate Anniversary of Discovery of America With Pageant.

Mounted knights of the fifteenth century, dressed in doublets and hose and coats of chain mail, rode before, beside and behind the carriage in which were characters dressed to represent King Ferdinand, Queen Isabella and Christopher Columbus in the parade yesterday afternoon, marking the celebration of the 427th anniversary of the discovery of America.

There was also a group representing American Indians in the parade. A. R. Rizzuto, who bears a striking natural resemblance to pictures of Columbus, impersonated that great navigator in the parade.

Rain Threatens Parade. For a time it looked as though rain would interfere, but the clouds broke away and the sun came out in time to hold the event.

The parade started at Sixteenth and Cumine streets at 2:30, passed over a route of downtown streets and ended at Thirteenth and William streets.

Besides the features mentioned, the following were in the parade: Discharged soldiers in uniform, Italian Cosette band, Christopher Columbus society, A. O. U. W. band, Benevolence Italian society, Union Pacific band, Giovanni Ameglio society, Italian Theatrical club, Carlo Goldoni, in automobiles.

Legal Holiday. It was a legal holiday in Nebraska and 32 other states and Porto Rico. Banks, most of the offices in the court house and city hall and many in other buildings were closed.

The day was observed in the public schools by the presentation of stories and pictures, of the discovery of America, and a review of the hardships through which Columbus passed, in accomplishing his great task.

The executive committee which had charge of the celebration in Omaha was as follows: J. R. Thomas, Sam Pisci, Pietro Cosentino, G. Caniglia, Nick Canuso, Joe Buscemi, marshal.

The general committee consisted of Antonio Barone, Salvatore Cammarata, Biagio Cardella, Michele Dibiasi, Mike Dibiasi, Frank Greco, Leonardo Paletta, Angelo Pestillo, Achille Pane, Giovanni Vario, John Variano and Alfio Risotti.

Masked Highwaymen Escort Victim to His Home After Robbery

Two masked highwaymen escorted Barney Barnes, 2603 Jones street, to his home at 4 yesterday morning, after robbing him of $118 at the corner of Twenty-fifth and Leavenworth streets.

Barnes was on his way home when the bandits confronted him with revolvers. They waited outside his home until the victim had closed the door, then fled hastily east on Jones street.

Police have a meager description of the men.

Lewis Okimoto, a Japanese, living at a railroad camp at Thirty-sixth and M streets on the South Side, escaped robbery by a lone bandit Sunday night, by taking to his heels in haste. The bandit attempted his holdup near the camp, according to reports given the police.

Hot Campaign for Offices on High School Register

The campaign for the election of the Register staff at Central High school is now in full swing. Blackboards, printed literature and posters are being used by the candidates.

Robert Jenkins, who has had experience in newspaper work, is running a close race with Oliver Maxwell for the editorship. Maxwell is basing his campaign on the fact that he is a foot ball man, a cadet captain and a five A man.

Misses Emily Ross and Mary Findley are striving for the assistant editorship. Edward Hall, Alexander Rohrbough and Kenneth Baker are candidates for the position of business manager. Walter Metcalfe and Herbert Fischer are candidates for assistant manager.

The election will be held Friday. One student subscribing for the Register will be eligible to vote.

South Side CATTLE RECORD BROKEN MONDAY BY BIG MARGIN

Good Weather in West Brings Large Shipments — Receipts Yesterday, 33-700 Head.

The cattle run at the Union stock yards Monday morning broke all previous records by a margin of 4,000. The day's run of 33,700 is 12,000 ahead of a week ago and 14,000 more than were received a year ago. A high range of quality was shown and prices varied as widely. Prices generally were about 25 cents lower than Saturday. With last week's total receipts 400 above any previous week, the chances for a new high mark for this week are excellent.

Prevailing good weather in the northwestern states is greatly augmenting the shipments of cattle from the range districts.

Hogs were also heavy, the 4,000 mark being passed. Trading was not brisk, but prices were from 15 cents to 25 cents higher than a week ago.

Lambs and sheep were extremely light. Practically no trading was shown aside from a few small lots purchased by packers.

Gas From Defective Heater Nearly Asphyxiates Woman

Mrs. Minnie Goldenberg, 2727 Q street, was found unconscious in her room Saturday night by R. C. Hanchett, an employment man at the Armour plant.

Hanchett detected the odor of gas and upon investigation, found that a heater which the aged lady had been using to warm her room, had been leaking gas, nearly asphyxiating Mrs. Goldenberg. Police surgeons attended her, and she was revived.

Her two sons were called and took care of her after the doctor had succeeded in restoring her to consciousness.

Girl Hurt When Autos Hit; Hold Driver for Recklessness

Louise Dromel, Twenty-first and Q streets, suffered painful lacerations of the face and serious body bruises when the automobile in which she was riding with her father, was struck by a car driven by J. E. Flynn, 422 North Nineteenth street at Twenty-seventh and L streets Sunday night.

Miss Dromel was picked up by W. M. Iske, 2609 L street, and taken to St. Joseph hospital. Iske claims that Flynn was driving carelessly and at an excessive rate of speed. Flynn is in jail charged with reckless driving.

Answers Door Bell; Bandits Loot Home for $800 Haul

E. A. Murray, 4121 South Twenty-second street, reported to police that at 3 a. m. Sunday morning, three men appeared at his door and rang the bell until he appeared. One of them put an automatic revolver to his stomach, and the other two entered the house, taking away with them $800 cash.

Murray says he can positively identify one of the men, and furnished a description of him.

Arrest Mexican as Suspect In Annoying Young Girl

Late Saturday evening Miss Ruth Henningson, 1614 Madison street, reported to police that someone had followed her home and had attempted to talk to her. Sunday officers arrested Frank Martin, a Mexican, who gave Twenty-fourth and P streets as his address. Miss Henningson appeared and identified him as the man who bothered her. He is booked for investigation.

Funeral services will be held from the home and St. Bridget's church Wednesday morning. Burial will be in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Find Car Numbers Changed; Hold Driver for Inquiry

Several days ago a Ford touring car was found on its side at Twenty-fourth and R streets, and near it was Charley Whaley, very drunk. He denied knowledge of the car or memory of where he got his liquor. Sunday South Side police arrested C. F. Warstate, 1406 Polk street, who confessed to having been the driver of the car and claimed he bought it from a man called Smith, address and initials unknown. The engine and license number of the car had been changed. Warstate is held for investigation.
