BOOMERANG FOR PROFITEERS IN TAX VALUATIONS

Amount of Rents Taken in Will Help Assessors Fix the Value of Property.

Lincoln, Oct. 14.—(Special).—Rental profiteers may find themselves in trouble when the assessor comes around next April, for they will be compelled to show the amount of rents taken in and this will govern the valuation of the property for assessment purposes, according to rules promulgated through the finance department under the new code bill. In giving out the rule to be followed Secretary Phil Bross of the department of finance says:

"The division of taxation of the department of finance is now mailing out to the county clerks of the state blanks which will be filled out by the clerks showing the transfers of real estate for the last year, which will be used as a basis for fixing the assessed valuation of farm lands in the coming quinquennial real estate assessment of 1920."

Rents Fix Values.
"In connection with the valuation of city real estate, the bureau of taxation will instruct assessors, in the fixing of the valuation of such real estate, to take into consideration the rental income from the property. This matter will be gone into quite extensively at the school of instruction for assessors in January. Before that time the department of finance will compile figures showing the rental income of different classes of property in the different cities and towns of the state, and these will be turned over to the assessors at the general meeting. The assessors will also be furnished with a blank, which they will use in the

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

SA FRANCISCO PAYS HIGH HONOR TO KING ALBERT

Queen and Other Members of Belgian Party Heartily Welcomed in True Western Fashion.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Belgian royalty entered San Francisco Tuesday and the city took them to its heart with true western hospitality. They were greeted with the ceremony due reigning monarchs, but beneath the formalities they must have felt the ungrudging admiration heaped upon a heroic soldier and his devoted queen.

The guns of the New Mexico, flagship of the Pacific fleet, boomed a deep-throated salute as they crossed the bay from Oakland and King Albert dined tonight upon the super-dreadnaught which flies Admiral Hugh Rodman's four-starred pennant.

The king entered here upon the second phase of his tour of the United States. He made the most earnest plea he has voiced thus far for his stricken country.

"Its determination to live causes it to strain every effort," he said. "It asks the sympathy and the help of the world, and I feel that we already have aided in its misfortunes."

Simple, Dignified Response.
With simple dignity his majesty responded to the welcome given him by Governor Stephens, Mayor Rolph and Herbert Hoover, devoted friend of the hosts of hungry refugees whose gratitude sounds for him a daily benediction.

Cheered, it seemed, by half the city's population, Albert, Elizabeth and the Duke of Brabant rode through two and a half miles of Market street from the ferry to the city hall through a lane of men and women. In the splendid rotunda of the municipal building they were made honorary citizens of San Francisco.

His majesty expressed his appreciation and his sweet-faced consort was showered with flowers grown under the far western sun. Her triumph was no less than that of her husband.

It was at a luncheon in honor of the king and his aides at the Palace hotel that his majesty made his most important speech of the day.

Cheered Frantically.
More than 1,000 men and women stood and cheered him frantically as he rose to respond to the addresses of the welcome. In the uniform of a lieutenant general, his breast bare of decorations, his face was grave as he looked out over the faces before him and paid heartfelt tribute to the Californians who had done so much to aid his people. But first of all in his simple English, he voiced his thanks to Hoover, only to be halted by applause.

"I come from my country that has been sorely tried by the war," said the king, "a country where they feel already the approach of winter. Here I find this magnificent city, bathed by a radiant sun and the distinguished gentlemen who receive me are the faithful friends of Belgium."

Salutes Hoover's Name.
"I salute with profound gratitude the name of Mr. Herbert Hoover."

"In her history San Francisco has a page from which Belgium may learn a great lesson. After the frightful fire of 1906 the city so deeply smitten did not lose courage and in a few years it raised itself from its ruins richer and more beautiful than ever."

"Belgium also reconstructs little by little its factories that were destroyed by the enemy. But the work of its economic reconstruction will be long and arduous. Its determination to live causes it to strain every effort."

Honorary Membership.
When he had finished he was presented, in behalf of five commercial organizations, with a silver fruit and flower dish, together with honorary membership in each of the organizations.

The queen was absent from the luncheon, attending one given in her honor at the St. Francis by the women of San Francisco, but Prince Leopold sat near his father and blushed with a boy's embarrassment when he rose to acknowledge an introduction by Mayor Rolph.

The queen, dressed in white, with a long loose coat of brown velvet with furs and hat to match, captivated the women who lunched with her. Many pairs of white gloves were rent by hand clapping when her majesty was presented by Brand Whitlock, United States ambassador to Belgium, who shares with Hoover the gratitude of the nation. Her majesty was attended by her lady-in-waiting, Countess De Caraman-Chimay and Mrs. Whitlock. Later she received the Belgian relief workers of the city at the Palace.

Go for Long Motor Ride.
After the luncheon the queen rejoined her husband and the whole Belgian party went for a long motor ride about the city. Mr. Hoover rode with his majesty and as they climbed into their car Albert accepted a cigar which he smoked with evident enjoyment.

Before the dinner on the New Mexico, Albert inspected the great ship with interest and showed his familiarity with all kinds of machinery. In response to the welcome of Admiral Rodman at the dinner, he paid a warm tribute to the services of the American navy. He said:

"I am happy to find myself on board the flagship of this brilliant Pacific fleet and to be able to salute in it the magnificent navy of the United States," said King Albert.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the services that your fleet rendered, not only to the armies, but to the civil population in keeping open the paths of the sea."

"Without it, the soldiers would not have had munitions, the women and children would have gone with-

KING AND QUEEN OF BELGIANS NOT TO RETURN HERE

Royal Party Decides Not to Pay Omaha Day's Visit.

The king and queen of the Belgians and their royal party will not visit Omaha on their return from the west coast, according to a telegram from the State department at Washington, D. C., received in Acting Mayor Ure's office yesterday.

The telegram, which is signed by Robert Lansing, secretary of state, reads as follows:

"Owing to a change of schedule of the royal Belgian party, King Albert regrets exceedingly that it will be necessary for him to cancel the engagement to visit Omaha."

The Belgian rulers and their party were to have arrived in Omaha on October 21. They were originally scheduled to be in Omaha on October 25. The date was then changed to October 20, then to the 21st.

When the special train carrying the royal party passed through Omaha a week ago it stopped for more than 30 minutes and the king and queen were able to greet many Omahans.

Plans for the reception of the Belgian rulers in Omaha were almost complete. An outline of the plans had been sent to the State department at Washington and were approved by officials there.

The American navy has added a new page to its glorious record.

"I thank you for what it has done for Belgium. I felicitate it on the admirable spectacle that you gave me today on board this splendid man-of-war."

BURNED PIECES OF BODY FOUND AMID WRECKAGE

Train Collision Near Kearney Fatal to One Man, Charred to Unrecognizable Crisp.

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special Telegram).—Parts of the body of a man, burned to a crisp and beyond any possibility of identification, were found under the wreckage resulting from a rear-end collision which occurred just west of Optic siding, seven miles west of Kearney, this morning. Passenger train No. 4, east bound, which leaves here at 2:38 a. m., plowed through the three rear cars of extra freight No. 303, just as the freight was pulling on to the siding.

As the engine cut them, the three freight cars, which were loaded with fruit, caught fire and were completely destroyed. The one victim of the accident was riding in the caboose of the freight train, and was undoubtedly killed at the instant when the engine was turning on its side.

The engineer and fireman, who had remained on duty until they brought the train to a standstill, jumped clear and were uninjured, except for minor scratches and bruises.

Had the engineer not instantly applied air brakes when he saw the danger, the results would have been much more disastrous. No. 4 was running behind time through a fog, so dense that semaphores and ordinary danger signals could not be seen from any great distance.

Traffic was completely tied up until noon today, while the debris was being cleared from the tracks. It was not until the charred body was found, that it was known anyone had been killed in the accident. The train crew remembered that a Union Pacific employe, traveling on a government pass, boarded the train just west of Kearney.

They could not remember his name nor the division out of which he worked. A bunch of keys found among the wreckage may establish his identity.

ROBBERS SHOT BY POSSE WATCHING LOOTING OF STORE

Two Wounded, Third Surrenders, When Surprised While Stealing Shoes.

Louisville, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special).—Caught in the F. H. Nichols general store here at 2 a. m. Tuesday by an angry crowd of business men, armed with shot-guns, three young men attempted to make a getaway, but were apprehended after two of them had been shot by the posse.

Fred Shossenkop, correspondent for The Bee, headed off the robbers in their getaway, wounding two, while the third surrendered.

The captured men gave their names as James King, 23 years old, of Lafayette, Ind.; Walter Miller, 17 years old, of Chicago, and C. G. Thompson, 25 years old. King was wounded in the hip, while Thompson suffered a painful fracture of the left ankle. The wounded men were removed at 10 this morning to the Clarkson hospital in Omaha by Sheriff Quinton. Miller, who gave himself up, is lodged in jail.

King claimed to be a former soldier, and Thompson a former sailor. They refused to talk. Miller, who surrendered, claimed the older men inveigled him into the robbery by promises of "easy money."

Before being removed to Omaha, the three robbers were identified by Mrs. W. L. Nichols and Smith Hines, of Springfield, Neb., as the same men who entered the store of W. F. Diers, a week ago, and walked, with their loot of $250 worth of shoes and underwear, to Springfield, six miles north of here, where they boarded a train for Omaha.

The men were discovered in the Nichols store by William Stohman, returning to his home from the country. He noticed lights in the store and saw the men packing shoes into suitcases. He immediately roused the neighborhood, who surrounded the building, ultimately capturing the culprits.

Miller, the 17-year-old youth who surrendered, seemed inclined to expose his pals. He promised to reveal to the sheriff the pawnshop in Omaha where they had been selling their loot.

Shoes worth $500 had been packed into suitcases by the robbers when they were surprised by the posse.

Seed House for Beatrice.
Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special).—The Pease Grain and Seed company of this city is building a modern seed house on South Sixth street to cost $40,000.

A Woman is as Old as She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor." Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weakness of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young but feel young. It cures the weakness and builds you up.

Your druggist can supply you with liquid or tablets; or send ten one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial pkg. of the tablets will be mailed you. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been in use nearly 50 years.

If you wish to know all about yourself, drop a line to Dr. Pierce for free pamphlet on Diseases of Women. Should you desire to consult his medical staff of physicians or ask for information, the same will be cheerfully furnished you wholly without cost and your letter will be treated as sacredly confidential.

Fatima does not contain too much Turkish like the straight Turkish cigarettes—nor too little like the poorer Turkish blends.

Fatima contains just enough Turkish—just enough to taste right and just enough to leave a man feeling right, even when he smokes more than usual.

Are you, personally, smoking too much—or too little—or just enough Turkish?
