Furs in Favored Forms

Tips on Smart Furs at Small Cost for Thrifty.

By ELEANOR GUNN.

ception of the fringe effects for which monkey and mongolian goat are used.

Brown Furs Lead.

Brown furs, any furrier will tell you, are the autumn demand. Small fisher neckpieces have replaced fox and little scarves of sable and mink make up the cost in smartness what they discard in size.

No Depth of Fur Trimmings. Occasionally one reads that fewer fur trimmings are worn this year than last and yet a careful examination of the merchandise even in the smartest shops seem to contradict this statement.

It is, of course, too early to take into consideration what smart women will actually wear. Unless one counts occasionally-worn motor coats, there has been no reason yet for appearing in fur trimmed garments. Summer furs were of little importance this season, but for all that the small animal scarfs have had continued recognition.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Loves Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

The Halloween Cat. The Druids, priests of the Celts centuries before Christ came, believed that on the last night of the old year (October 31) the lord of death gathered together the souls of all those who had died in the passing year and had been condemned to live in the bodies of animals, to decree what forms they should inhabit for the next 12 months.

English Halloween Customs. In a tub float stemless apples, to be seized by the teeth of him desirous of having his love returned. If he is successful in bringing up the apple without using his hands, his love affair will end happily.

In America. The one who first succeeds in threading a needle as he sits on a round bottle on the floor, will be first married.

Letters of the alphabet are carved on a pumpkin. Fate guides the hand of the blindfolded seeker to the fateful initial which he stabs with a pin. Letters cut out of paper are sprinkled in water in a tub. They form groups from which any one with imagination may spell out names.

Halloween Menu. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are not coming to you for love advice, but maybe you will help us, anyway. We are three sophomores in high school and are going to give a Halloween party. Could you suggest a menu for this party?

Why Worry? Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I read your "Advice to Lovelorn" to every evening and I have come to you for advice. I have been going with a girl of 18 years for two years and she always seemed to love me dearly and always said she did till about a week ago, when she went out with one of my boy friends for a car ride, but I did not know it till one of my other boy friends told me, and I was there the next day and she never said nothing and seemed to love me like always. Should I quit her or go to see her again? Thanking you for advice—would like to see in print soon.

Blonde and Brunette. One of several reasons may be keeping the young man away. First, he may be short of finances. Second, he may care very little for you. Do not be hasty in telling him to stay away. Time solves these problems better than quick tempers. Your sister should be careful if she is not certain the man is divorced. He should show her the decree of divorce and simplify matters. Send your question about divorce laws to our legal aid department of The Bee.
