Sophie Braslau

Music is no purer than one's mind, claims Miss Braslau, and unless the singer gives out to her hearers just what she feels, then she fails to reach the highest plane of her art. She believes that all singers should be musicians. Before becoming a singer Miss Braslau was a pianist. For several years she acted as an accompanist to one of her friends. She confesses that she studied voice for the love of it, and was surprised when she asked to go on the concert stage. Her success led to an engagement with the Metropolitan Opera company, and today she is ranked as one of America's leading opera and concert artists. Her rise has not been like the rocket that is suddenly shot into the air to soon go out, but it has been a steady growth that ripens as time passes. The charm and personality of the woman is shown in her art in song. Study, and hard study, is her motto of success, and it is the love of those things refined and pure and holy that is bound to win her a place in the glowing sun of eternal fame and good will. She is never discouraged in doing those things that are right and just. By keeping busy she finds no time for "tedium vitae." Every day she gets pleasure in doing something for someone and full justice to her friends has always been her motto.

A Musical Halloween Tea.
Advance agents of Halloween are among us. A happy corps of them, pupils of Mrs. Ray J. Abbott, were in evidence Wednesday at the tea given by the musical department of the Woman's club. They wore yellow caps adorned with black cats and served individual pumpkin pies, doughnuts and cider to more than 200 women. The cider was made Wednesday morning at the F. J. Farrington farm on west Dodge. The program of music and dances was much appreciated by the audience which filled the Y. W. C. A. auditorium. Mrs. W. E. Shafer, department leader, says the Business Women's class gives great promise for the year. Thirty girls are already enrolled. The next musical tea will be given November 19 under the direction of Miss Edith Miller. The subject of the program will be Spanish music and dances.

Lovelorn BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Undecided Girl.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a girl, 20 years old. For three years I have gone with a young man whom I cared for very much. Two of these years he spent in the army and has just recently returned. While he was in the army I accepted an engagement ring. In the last four or five months a change came over me towards him, and what has caused this change I can not tell, but always thought that when I once saw him again it would all come back to me again. While this young man was in the army I went with different fellows to social gatherings, one being a traveling man, whom I was with a great deal. He learned to care for me and in a way I have learned to care for him also. He would marry me right away if I did not have a ring, but he is waiting for me to decide. My father bitterly objects to this traveling man, but thinks lots of the other young man.

I have been with this young man a great deal since his return and his feelings are still the same for me, but I cannot feel the same towards him. Can you tell me why and what shall I do? My mother objected to me accepting the engagement ring while he was in the army. She says it should have been accepted before he left or after he returned. Is she right?

Hoping to see this in print and thanking you in advance for the same, I remain,
KENNETH BUSH.

"Villa" pronounced as it is spelled is the Anglicized way of saying the word. If the Spanish pronunciation is used it would sound something like "Veel-yah" as nearly as English spelling can give it to you. The "v" has a long "e" sound and the double "l" has the "ll" sound, with the "l" less distinct than in English. The French word "monsieur" is pronounced "m'syur."

During the middle ages and in the Renaissance period brides wore crimson to the exclusion of all other colors.

For neither. Your father and mother are good advisers. Counsel with them.

More Trouble From Villa.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have come to you for a little advice on the pronunciation of some words; they are Villa and monsieur. A friend of mine pronounces Villa as it is spelled and I pronounce it "vee." Which is right? The other one is pronounced "measure," is it not?

Hoping to see this in print and thanking you in advance for the same, I remain,
KENNETH BUSH.

Unhappy girl.
No one else can decide for you which you love. It would be wrong to marry for any other reason, and it is also wrong to keep two men dangling. If you don't know which one you love, it is a pretty good indication that you care ous to secure 25 new clubs into membership this year, for presentation at the silver jubilee convention to be held in Fairbury, October 21-25. That goal has been reached, and passed. ## For After Effects of the "FLU" and Other Weakening Diseases

If you are weak, dizzy, tired and nervous from the "after effects" of enervating diseases, the tonic, strength renewing REOLO Treatment will restore your strength—revitalize the exhausted blood, eliminate the toxic poisons—tone up the heart and nervous system and give renewed vigor, vitality, strength and energy. Pain, headache, backache, nervousness, dizziness, anaemia, dyspepsia, biliousness, congestion, constipation, etc., are but Nature's warning signals that the blood is full of deadly germs or that the cells of some part of your body are starving for their natural food—just as a plant droops and dies for lack of water.

Any tissue of the body deprived of oxygen dies at once. The life of each individual cell is brief and without oxygen no new cells can be built; neither can they without the necessary cell salts.

The cells are not fed. They feed themselves but do not feed blindly upon every substance that comes their way. They know how to choose the particles they wish to absorb. Nothing foreign to their constituent parts can be forced upon them except to produce injury or death.

REOLO

Restores Vigor and Vitality

eliminates the toxic poisons, rapidly increases the red blood cells—revitalizes the blood with life-giving oxygen—and restores strength and energy. It tones up the heart action and nervous system—stimulates the digestion, and assimilation—renews the exhausted cells. REOLO makes the weakness and dizziness that are so frequently the after effects of the "Flu" and other enervating diseases disappear as shadows vanish before the sunshine.

Oxygen is the life-giver—necessary to maintain life. REOLO absorbs the oxygen from the air in the lungs and carries it into the blood—rapidly oxidizing or revitalizing the red blood cells—and increasing the amount of hemoglobin in the blood, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, vitalized, health-giving blood that nourishes every cell, of the nerves, tissues, lungs and bones.

By special arrangement with the Dr. A. L. Rowing Laboratories, Akron, Ohio, we have been appointed Licensees for the distribution of "REOLO" direct from the Laboratories, each package certified by Dr. A. L. Rowing and positively guaranteed to give satisfactory results or we will gladly refund your money. Large box of "REOLO", (100 tablets) price $4.00

Hosiery With Better Wear and Appearance

HAVE you seen the new hosiery, about which all Omaha's well-dressed, discriminating women are talking? If not, we recommend that you SEE it and TRY it, SOON. Next time you are shopping, ask your dealer to show you—

VICTOR PUREST OF SILK HOSIERY

KNITTED in finest gauge mesh, of the purest silk it is possible to buy—only pure color used in dyeing, without one particle of metal used to add imitation lustre or weight. Knitted, too, over natural form models, instead of being stretched to fit. Reinforced at tops, heels and toes with strong, fine Sea Island cotton.

NO wonder it has better appearance and gives far longer wear. No false lustre is needed, nor any "fake" weight. Formed right in the knitting, to fit the natural shape of the limbs the fit is snug and neat—but with plenty of elasticity to take up the muscular action without strain on the fabric. These things mean the desired elegance of appearance, PLUS splendid wearing qualities.
