

PAT CROWE WILL GET POSITION IN WASHINGTON

Famous Kidnap of Omaha Youth Promised Help in Attempt to Reform.

Washington, Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Pat Crowe, ex-bank robber, holdup expert and kidnaper of Edward Cudaly's son in Omaha nearly 20 years ago, has practically secured a position of trust with a big Washington firm, according to Vice President Warden of the Continental Trust company of this city.

Twenty or thirty years ago throughout the west bankers shivered when they heard that Pat Crowe was in the vicinity. The news also meant extra jobs for special bank watchmen. Mr. Cudaly will always have $25,000 worth of remembrance of Pat Crowe. It cost him that much to get his son ransomed.

Four years after the kidnaping of young Cudaly Crowe gave himself up. He was tried and acquitted. Then he offered to make up the $25,000 ransom which was taken for the boy. The offer was not accepted.

For the last 10 years Crowe has been traveling the straight and narrow path, but was finding it hard balancing, he said today. A few days ago, with frayed coat and seedy trousers, he walked into the office of the Prisoners' Relief society. He was out of a job. He was "down on his luck," he went to Dr. E. E. Dudding for help. A distinguishing mark about his attire was a Red Cross button in his coat lapel. Yesterday he was outfitted in a clothing store here.

Gray hair grows sparsely over a high forehead. He is more than six feet tall. All together he presents an imposing figure. He was introduced to Mr. Warden yesterday. Today Mr. Warden declared that a position had been secured for Crowe.

The conclusion of a short interview Thursday, when Crowe was asked about the Cudaly case, the only thing he would say was that Cudaly probably owed him several thousand dollars commission for the publicity he gave him in the kidnaping case.

"He got so much publicity he had to call his selling agents off the road throughout the west, as my lawyers brought out at my trial," he declared.

IN ADDITION to the regular bill on at the Muse they have engaged for Friday and Saturday Uncle Sam's Blue Jackets-Navy Jazz Revue. The revue is composed of 11 of the Blue Jackets, who do a very clever singing, dancing and musical specialty act. The boys of the Revue are in the service at the present time. They do everything in a way all their own and a little different and jazzier than the usual.

Rialto—"True Heart Susie," which is on the screen board at the Rialto, shows three strong characters—characters one often hears about and sometimes knows during their journey through life. One is that of a lovable, loyal girl, who never has a chance to marry, but one man and when that man passes her by, ages her soul with tears and wears her days with waiting. Another is a young man who goes to college, returns with comical conceit the premier of swains, as serious to himself as the measles. The third is a girl who considers marriage never a union of hearts, but a necessary patronage, a wife of subsidy rather than of love. It is a photoplay drawing immense crowds.

Sun—Interest in the screen version of "Lombardi, Ltd.," starring Bert Lytell at the Sun, is increasing each day. The picture is regarded as one of the best of the year and is drawing away the crowds from the Texas Ranger—one of those dauntless men who helped clean up Texas. It is an absorbing story well told on the screen.

Soldiers' Mess Fund Of $3,500 and Clerk Of Unit Disappear

Police and military are searching for a enlisted man, Private Benoit, company clerk of the Fort Omaha detachment on duty at Central police station, who is said to have disappeared with $3,500, the mess fund of the organization.

According to the report of members of the company, Private Benoit left sometime Wednesday with the funds. Since his departure the men have been eating dry hunks of bread, and scraping the kettles for leftover beans. Occasionally they manage to borrow some money to buy pie and milk.

The mess fund, which was one of the largest raised by any company at Fort Omaha, was used to buy additional and more choice food than was served.

Army officers say they have been unable to get any trace of the soldier.

Ex-Water Dept. Employee Given Life Allowance

Ernest A. Worm, who was in the employment of the Omaha Water company and later the Metropolitan Water district, for 25 years, has been awarded permanent disability allowance by F. A. Kennedy, state labor compensation commissioner.

While working in a ditch, October 14, 1918, Mr. Worm was struck on the head by a meter. Blindness resulted which physicians say will be permanent. He has been allowed $12 a week for 300 weeks, and $9 per week thereafter during the remainder of his life.

William L. Hitchman, 68 years old, died at St. Joseph hospital Tuesday morning. Mr. Hitchman had been a spectator at the stock yards for 28 years. The funeral will be held from Brewster's chapel, Thursday, at 4 p. m. Rev. H. L. Wheeler will officiate and burial will be in Graceland Park cemetery.

The home of Mrs. Anna Miller, near Fort Crook, was the scene of a jolly party of relatives and friends Wednesday evening, when they assembled in honor of Mrs. Miller's birthday. Among the guests were Mrs. Miller's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Deason and Mrs. Frank Van Sant. One of the attractive features of the birthday dinner was a handsome cake surrounded by candles.

BODY OF WOMAN MUTILATED AFTER DEATH, IS CHARGE

Sheriff of Allegheny County, Steel Strike District, Makes Grave Allegations

Pittsburgh, Oct. 16.—Sheriff William S. Haddock of Allegheny county sent to Chairman Kenyon of the senate committee investigating the steel strike a letter in which he practically charges that the body of Fannie Sellins, an organizer for the United Mine Workers, who was shot and killed August 26 at West Natrona, where there was a strike of miners, had been deliberately mutilated after the official autopsy to make it appear she was shot in the back.

The death of the woman has attracted much attention because of charges made by labor union men that she was murdered by deputy sheriffs. The coroner's verdict declared she was killed during a riot. The miners charge she was shot to death while protecting children from the sheriff's deputies. The body was exhumed last Monday at the instance of a relative and Wednesday labor men sent to Chairman Kenyon an affidavit signed by two physicians averring that there was a gunshot wound in the back. The coroner's finding made no mention of such a wound. Some labor leaders have referred to the Sellins case as an example of the alleged methods used by certain corporations to defeat workers who strike for higher wages and better working conditions.

AT THE THEATERS

THERE were several meritorious features of "A Night in Honolulu," which was presented at the Brandeis theater last night by small company of players, headed by Constance Neilson as Kalamia, the dancing girl. The play, which breathes the atmosphere of the Hawaiian capital, was written by Howard McKent Barnes and it is made up of love situations between a native girl and several Americans. True Powers presents an emotional delineation of Keola, a native woman.

IRRITABLE NERVOUS

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Card-u-i, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeler, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way... I think I have taken a dozen bottles... before my little girl came.

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy... I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all... It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial. OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED BY HUMANE BODY

Dr. A. J. Todd of Minnesota Speaks on True Value of Community Social Service.

At the annual meeting of the Nebraska Humane society, held last night at the First Presbyterian church, the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: J. E. Davidson, president; H. S. Mann, vice president; Howard Kennedy, counsel; M. A. Hall, vice president; Welcome W. Bradley, secretary; Ezra Millard, treasurer. J. H. Beveridge and F. S. Martin were added to the list of trustees.

Reports read by Mr. Bradley, Miss Lida Wilson, chairman of the women's auxiliary, and Miss Guenn Godard of the children's aid division indicated that the last year has been the most successful in the history of this society.

Dr. Todd Talks.

More than 150 members of the society attended a dinner in the church. President Davidson of the society presided. Following the dinner and business meeting, Dr. A. J. Todd of the sociological department of the University of Minnesota delivered an interesting and instructive talk on the true values of community social service.

"Social work is doing for other people what they cannot do for themselves," said Dr. Todd. "It does not consist merely of handing out charity, but rather an organized and persistent effort to alleviate misery in a community and also an effort to eliminate the root and branch of misery. Real social service means the enhancement of the life and happiness of every individual of a community."

Addresses Business Men.

"Although it might hurt the vanity of men and the sale of clothing, I would be glad to see the men of America adopt a uniform mode of dress," declared Dr. A. J. Todd, speaking at the public affairs luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Dr. Todd, formerly head of the department of sociology at the University of Minnesota, and now head of the bureau of industrial relations of the Kuppenheimer company of Chicago, explained what he termed the "peace treaty in garment industry," and the terms of settlement with unions reached by the industrial relations bureau.

Through the work of the bureau an "oasis of comparative peace had been reached in a desert of war," he said.

Youthful in Body and Mind

Never mind your age—as measured by years. How do you feel? That's the thing that counts! See this brightly old gentlemen coming toward you down the street. His birth record would show you that he is past seventy. But judging from the easy grace with which he swings along, his erect carriage, his ruddy complexion, the keen glance of his eye, his whole appearance the very picture of health, you would say that he is not a day past fifty. He is young in spite of his three score years and ten.

More frequently you see the opposite of his type. Men scarcely in their thirties haggard, listless, weak, nervous men who take no interest in life, just dragging out a weary existence, all in, tired and worn out. Though young in years, they are, nevertheless, old men. Their vital forces are on the wane. They've lost their "punch" and "pep." They feel old and they look it!

Stay young by keeping your body fit. Keep stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder healthy and active. Build up your strength and health. Nothing will accomplish these results better than
