Heart Beats

A wreck. They called her— They who did not know— Some pitied her— Some scoffed at her— And shrugged as they passed— They saw a body— Tripped and maimed— Poverty in every fold— Of her tattered— And worn dress— Sorrow and tragedy— Had hollowed her chest— Lines of suffering— Drew maps on her face— Of hunger— Of sickness— And death.

Music the fiercest grief can charm, And late's severest rage disarm, Music can soften pain to ease, And make despair and madness please; Our joys below it can improve, And antedate the bliss above. —Pope.

Only the best fixtures are Economical. It is poor economy to buy inferior plumbing fixtures which last but a week, a month, or a year. Fixtures that require frequent repairs are not only expensive, but also, a source of continual annoyance. Figure the cost-per-year of such fixtures compared with Thomas Maddock's Sanitary first-cost-plumbing Equipment and you begin to see how surprisingly economical these beautiful fixtures really are.

Dolci's Career Is Spectacular and Interesting

Five years ago Alessandro Dolci, leading dramatic tenor with the Chicago Opera association, was wielding the baton in a small Italian theater. Dolci showed much promise as an opera conductor and had also attracted the attention of several well-known impresarios who were just on the verge of engaging him when he suddenly took the advice of a friend and went to Milan to study voice. Such a decision on the part of the young conductor came as a sudden surprise to every one who knew him, so his career was watched with much interest by the Italian opera public.

Injustice Causes Pouts and Bad Dispositions. By ELSIE UNDERHILL EATON. The Unbiased Observer was visiting the Heath family, in which there are three children—Max, who is 13; Gwen, 11, and Dolly, 4. The boy and the baby are generally easy to discipline, but there seems to be constant friction between Gwen and her mother, so much so that constant pouting bids fair to spoil what nature intended to be a really beautiful little face.

Bad Manners Disturb Singers. Bad manners at a musical performance has been the topic for many critics during the past years. Not only have music reviewers been forced to relate to impolite incidents but others not in the writing profession have made complaints to managers of opera and other musical organizations. Said one well known critic at a debut of a singer, "this must be some sort of social event, or a gathering of old friends wanting to renew acquaintanceship."
