COUNTRY STORE ATTORNEY SUED WILL FEATURE PURE FOOD SHOW

Accurate Portrayal of Former General Store to Be Portrayed by Members of Grocers' Association.

A real old-fashioned country store will be one of the features of the big pure food show, which is to be beld at the Omaha Auditorium Oc.

tober 25 to November 1.

The pure food show is to be staged by the Omaha Retail Grocers' association and the country store is an attraction arranged by J. J. Cameron, secretary of the organization, to add a novel touch to the exposition.

tion, to add a novel touch to the exposition.

Lay Elaborate Plans.

Mr. Cameron and his assistants lave made elaborate plans for the country store and it will be accurately typical of the real old-fashioned store. It will not be a duplicate of the country establishment of this modern day, which is usually as up-to-date as that of his brother, the city merchant. Neither will it be a caricature such as the vaude-ville stage probably would present. It will be a true story of the cross-roads store of several years ago, when the country merchant was the county handy man and swapped a bolt of gingham for a basket of eggs.

The country store at the food show, however, will possess one distinction. It will be confined exclusively to food products, as it is to be a feature of a food show, and the retail grocers are not interested in other lines of merehandise carried
