CADDOCK COMING Commerce High Squad Will Be Idle This Week; Play Harlan, Ia., Soon

The High School of Commerce foot ball players will not be seen in action this week, as no game is scheduled. The squad is going through signal drill and scrimmaging with the second squad to be in shape for next week's game, which will be played at Harlan, Ia., with the high school in that city.

Although the team lost its fourth game of the season to Creighton High by a small score, it will en-deavor to make up for this by trim-ming the Iowans. The players are dissatisfied with the results of last week's playing and will try to be in excellent shape for the game next week. The business lads emerged from the battle with Creighton with a light hospital list. "Jim" Baum-gardner, Jimmie Johnson and "Duke" Levinson received minor injuries in the game last week. Some of the injured men did not show up

The Commerce squad's line will he considerably strengthened when Frank Ross appears on the lineup. He was a star before he enlisted in the navy. He was discharged last week and is coming back to school for his old position as guard.

The Central High school foot ball squad under the eagle eye of Coach Harold Mulligan was put through a stiff signal drill before they were allowed to scrimmage with the second team of the school. The second team players, enthused by their recent victory over the Deaf and Dumb team, put up a hard fight against the strong and fast first eleven, but with no avail, as the first squad swept through their lines time after time.

The Purple and White warriors will go through a strenuous week of practice in preparation for their game Saturday with North Des Moines High Saturday afternoon at the Iowan's grid field. No stone is being left unturned by the Central High school mentor that will help

OKLAHOMA HOPES TO REPEAT NOTRE DAME'S VICTORY

Will Depend on Speed and Open Style of Play to Humble Nebraska University.

Norman, Okl., Oct. 21 .- (Special.)-The University of Oklahoma will send a foot ball team to Omaha Saturday which hopes to repeat Notre Dame's performance of last week and defeat the University of Nebraska through a combination of speed and open style play. Such a program means Coach Bennie Owen will start a heavy, staunch line, big enough to stop the vicious line plunging which has featured Nebraska's play this season, and a speedy backfield and ends. Forward passing will play a big part in the Sooner offensive.

Oklahoma opened the season by winning from Central Normal, 40 t 0, and then piled up a count of 157 to 0 against Kingfisher college, both small schools. Then came disaster, for Kendall college of Tulsa downed Oklahoma, 27 to 0. Kendall used the forward pass successfully while the Oklahoma team work was poor. The Sooners redeemed themselves ast week when they won from the University of Texas at Dallas and are training this week with more igor and fight than at any previous ime this season. Coach Owen's line Saturday probably will be Hamm, 193 pounds, cen-ter; C. Tyler, 225, and Captain Deacon, 205, at guards; P. Johnston, 184. and Smoot, 205, at tackles, and R. Johnston, 175, and M. Tyler, 168.

at ends. This line will average 202 pounds from tackle to tackie. Speed is a requirement for all backfield men here, and Owen has ine men who have it. They are Davis and Hardy, quarterbacks; Mc-Dermott, Luster, Boyle, Graham and White, halfbacks, and Swatek and Bechtold, fullbacks. Davis, Mc-Dermott, Boyle and Swatek worked most of the game against Texas and completed six passes in 12 attempts. This will be the second time Soon er has met Cornhusker. In 1912 Oklahoma journeyed to Lincoln and had the game tucked away until the last quarter, when a touchdown gave Nebraska the victory, 13 to 9.
