

SALESMEN ARE INSTRUCTED ON COMING DRIVE

Banquet Teams Who Will Sell $1,000,000 Worth of Ak-Sar-Ben Stock.

Twenty-eight teams of wide-awake business men will go forth Monday morning on a campaign to sell $1,000,000 worth of stock in the Ak-Sar-Ben Exposition company, and they expect to put this big undertaking over in a manner that will be a revelation to the community.

Fourteen teams which will cover the territory west of Sixteenth street met at dinner last night at the Hotel Fontenelle and received instructions from the leaders of this stock sales organization. The other teams will meet in similar manner Friday evening at the Fontenelle.

Salesmen Are Enthused.
The salesmen who were present last night were addressed by J. E. Davidson, treasurer of the exposition company, and Guy Cramer and H. B. Whitehouse, of the executive committee of the sales organization. Randall K. Brown, of the board of governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, also offered a promise of co-operation.

Omahaans who will be called upon next week will be told that when they subscribe for stock in this project they will be subscribing to an enterprise that is going to help every citizen of Omaha. These salesmen will have a complete line of "selling points," and will have the advantage of being impressed themselves with the importance of the exposition.

Long-time Payments.
The majors, captains and lieutenants who attended the meeting last night were given this thought by Mr. Cramer: "The exposition will be directed by the men who have so successfully directed Ak-Sar-Ben, with the same character of vigorous initiative as they have displayed in the past. Their services will be cheerfully given for Omaha, without salaries or profits of any nature other than the same benefits as will

ON! EACH DAY A LITTLE MORE
Hurry! Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Help your hair grow long, thick and strong and become soft, glossy and abundant.

OPERATORS AND MINERS AS FAR APART AS EVER

Secretary Wilson Again Fails in Wage Increase Proposal Offered to Representatives.

Washington, Oct. 22.—While committees representing miners and operators, meeting in a final effort to avert the strike of 500,000 soft coal miners set for November 1, were on the verge tonight of parting company for good, Secretary of Labor Wilson held them together, over night at least, with a wage increase proposal that ignored union demands for a 30-hour week.

There was every assurance that the operators would accept it and every indication that the miners would reject it.

When the joint conference adjourned until 2 p. m. tomorrow it was with the understanding that the two groups would meet then and make formal answer to the proposal. Refusal of the miners to accept will bring the conference to a close and force government officials to resort to other means to prevent the closing of the mines.

naturally accrue to Omaha's entire population.

Subscribers will have a year and a half in which to pay their subscriptions, the first 50 per cent being divided into four payments between now and next April 1, and the remainder spread over the ensuing year into 1921.

Not Run for Profit.
"The purpose of the Ak-Sar-Ben exposition is to give to Omaha the same standing as an educational and amusement center that it now enjoys as a business center," continued Mr. Cramer in his talk to the stock salesmen. "The exposition will not be operated for profit to any individuals."

The Ak-Sar-Ben Exposition company offers a location for and assures such big annual events as: Livestock shows, industrial exposition, swine shows, agricultural exposition, automobile races, motorcycle races, Olympic games, winter sports carnival, foot ball games, aeroplane contests, balloon races, base ball games, frontier day, open-air pageants, fireworks display and horse races.

The plans which have been prepared by Omaha architects contemplate the erection of exposition buildings, stock pavilions, manufacturers' building, auditorium, race track, women's building, dining hall and other physical features. The site covers 130 acres south of Elmwood park.

Shows Every Month.
One of the many selling points offered last night in favor of this project was the following: "This exposition will make it possible to hold big entertainment and play features during nearly every month of the year and it will bring hundreds of thousands of visitors to Omaha annually."

The stock sales organization which will go out next week will be one on the best drilled groups of men that has ever undertaken a proposition of this kind in Omaha. They are starting out with the determination to allow no obstacle to deter them from accomplishing their objective.

They say they are going to give Omaha a demonstration of what real "pep" looks like.

Samler was arrested and charged with fast and reckless driving. No one was injured.

OMAHA WILL AID YANKTON BUILD RIVER BRIDGE

$1,500,000 Project Endorsed at Meeting of Business Men—Committee Will Solicit Subscriptions.

More than 75 representative business men of Omaha and neighboring cities were present at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night to discuss the part to be taken by Omaha in the construction of a railroad and wagon bridge across the Missouri river at Yankton, S. D.

Fred H. Davis, W. E. Rhoades, John Brady and Carl Smith, members of the Chamber of Commerce committee that investigated the project recently, gave enthusiastic reports on the feasibility of construction and the importance of such a bridge to Omaha.

Pledge Omaha Support.
They pointed out the roundabout transportation facilities from North and South Dakota to Omaha due to the lack of a railroad bridge at this point, called attention to the enormous amounts of produce shipped to Chicago and Minneapolis instead of to Omaha, due to the roundabout route, and strongly urged that Omaha business interests aid Yankton interests in the construction of the bridge.

A motion by Mr. Davis to appoint a committee to take subscriptions and hold them until it was satisfied that Omaha's interests would be safeguarded before turning them over for use in the project was passed with enthusiasm. F. A. Brogan, chairman of the meeting, will appoint the committee today, he said, and work of getting subscriptions will start immediately.

In making the motion Mr. Davis emphasized the advisability of holding the funds raised until it was assured that Omaha be represented on the board of directors and that the bridge should always be open to any and every railroad at a nominal rental.

Explain Project Plans.
Samuel T. Lee, secretary of the Yankton Chamber of Commerce, gave a brief explanation of the project as it now stands. Business men of Yankton raised $400,000, he said, and $400,000 more was raised in the neighboring territory. The bridge company is capitalized at $1,500,000. The amount to be raised in Omaha was fixed at $300,000.

Frank H. Beels, secretary of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, and Fred Wolte of Fremont, president of the Nebraska Good Roads association, were among the out-of-town men represented at the meeting last night. They favored the project.

Practically every industry in Omaha, including the grain exchange and the live stock exchange, were represented at the meeting. Support of the International Sales Managers association was pledged.

Steps to induce at least one railroad to build to Omaha as soon as the bridge is completed will be taken immediately, it was decided.

FLASHES from FILMLAND

"THE SPITE BRIDE," a photopicture starring Olive Thomas, which will be seen at the Strand theater today and the balance of the week, is a drama of youthful impulse, full of tears, thrills, smiles, love and adventure. Olive Thomas as "Tessa Doyle" was never cast in a better role. A brilliant supporting cast is headed by Robert Ellis and Jack Mulhall.

"Moon—The Twin Pawns," a photopicture opening for a three-day run at the Moon today, is one of those stories that strikes out from the shoulder. In "The Twin Pawns" Mae Murray is Violet, and Daisy White is the twin who has been separated since childhood—in fact, each is unaware of the existence of the other. It is a melodrama pure and simple and of great heart interest.

Rialto—Enigma, a melodrama, strengthened by highly interesting undersea views photographed by the Williamson submarine tube, Maurice Tourneur's picture, "White Heather," which opens a three-day run at the Rialto today, portrays some tremendous efforts to get the "papers" in the case of Marion Hume, who married Lord Angus Cameron and was later found to be the Scotch ceremony of declaration before two witnesses.

Sun—One of the comedy treats of the season is "A Damsel in Distress," in love with a man her father Creighton Hale, at the Sun theater. June Caprice as the damsel in distress is in love with a man her father has never seen. Her aunt, who desires she marry her stepson, imprisons her. Her "aunt-pecked" father decides to aid her—to grant

AT THE THEATERS
A LARGE and appreciative audience enjoyed Lyman H. Howe's "Travel Festival" at the Brandeis last night. The Howe entertainment this season is bracing and the last word in motion pictures of beauty and excitement, showing real life, rather than reel life, the world over.

Everything from tarpon fishing in Florida, in which the huge game fish are seen battling for life right in front of the eyes of the audience, to close-up views of the wonders of the great Byrd expedition, is included in the program.

Motion pictures and film novelties which the daring camera men risked their lives to get make several hours of thrills which will cause the most skeptic theatergoer to "sit up and take notice."

One of the most exciting bits of motion photography ever taken is that of a fair angler weighing 105 pounds landing a "Silver King" tarpon tipping the scales at 180.

A trip down the Andes, a novel excursion through the heart of Peru, the land of the ancient Incas, from the Andes peaks, via the Llama herds to the sea, is a wonderful piece of photography.

Water nymphing, exciting aquatic sports and contests at a famous girls' camp in the wilds of Maine; tramping through the clouds, thrilling adventures among dangerous crags and perilous precipices across the tips of the snow-capped Canadian Rockies; beautiful magnolia gardens, a quaint and charming expedition through a floral paradise near historic Charleston, S. C.; visits with famous film stars, showing Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and other screen celebrities in their homes and haunts; musical moments, lifelike studies in play of great musicians, past and present; vaudeville by denizens of the jungle, entirely new animated cartoons and film novelties—all these and many more make up the wonderful Howe pictures.

There will be matinee and evening performances today.

"The Gypsy Revue," a mixed sextet of singers, musicians and dancers, who, under the title of "Frolicking in a Roman Camp," run the whole gamut of music and terpsichore, top the bill at the Empress, starting today. A cartoonist Corp. Joe Nathan, a novelty variety entertainer, also a real humorist. A surprise act is "The Big Laugh," the offering of George Ward and Sophia Wilson. Hugh Skelley and Emma Heit will offer a repertoire of song studies and character delineations.

Interest in the forthcoming visit of the great Winter Garden revue, "The Passing Show of 1918," which opens at the Boyd on Sunday evening, is increasing. This is the one big show of its kind now on tour and comes here with all the principals, chorus, scenery and paraphernalia that is used in its New York production. Fifteen big scenes are employed in the course of the evening, with many specialties by noted performers, the cast being headed by Willie and Eugene Howard. Seat sale is progressing under the rigid rule that no telephone orders are taken and no seats returned.

The musical comedy, "A Dangerous Girl," still sheds its light of joy over the scene at the Boyd. It is in two acts, with many song hits, quips and changes of costume. The engagement ends Saturday night.

Often musical comedies have a very listless chorus, but "Putting It Over," as presented by 17 soldier boys at the Orpheum this week, is characterized by unusual spirit. Another featured act is the one presented by Long Tack Sam and his Chinese troupe of wonder workers. Nothing on the bill rouses so much laughter as the comedy of Oscar Loraine, "the violin nuttist." Vaudeville audiences respond cordially to the amusing songs of Dolly Kay, "syncopation's clever exponent."

Combining gaiety, "pep," catchy music, pretty girls and wholesale fun, "Going Up" is announced at the Brandeis theater for three nights

Episcopalians Create Board to Have General Charge of Church Work

Detroit, Oct. 22.—Three radical departures from the old church order that obtained for more than a century were accomplished by the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church Wednesday. The house of bishops concurred in action of the house of deputies creating an executive board to have general charge of the work of the church, virtual approval was given the plan for greater unity between church bodies, approached through the concordat being worked out with the Congregational church, and greater powers were granted the eight provincial synods.

A budget of $10,685,804 for the regular work of the church the next three years was presented and adopted in the house of deputies and now is in the hands of the house of bishops.

Portland, Ore., is the choice of the convention for the 1922 general meeting, the house of bishops concurring in the resolution of the house of deputies to that effect.

The proposal to admit women to church legislative bodies was defeated in the house of deputies.

The house of bishops concurred in actions of the deputies condemning mob violence and asking capital and labor to submit their differences to arbitration.

More than 100 were present at the opening session of the 25th annual meeting of the Nebraska Library association, which began in the Omaha public library at 2 yesterday afternoon.

Miss Kate McHugh of Omaha, well known educator, opened the meeting with an address of welcome. Mrs. W. S. Caldwell spoke on the "Foreigner and the Library" and told of the benefit of books to America's new citizens. She suggested methods of aiding foreigners in getting the most out of a library.

"Liberty War Service—Its Past and Future," was the subject of an interesting address by Malcolm G. Wyer of the University of Nebraska. A. S. Borglum of Omaha explained methods of advertising the library.

The speeches were followed by a short business session. The meeting will last until Friday noon.

PRESIDENT AGAIN TRANSACTS SOME PUBLIC BUSINESS

Signs Amendments to Profiteer Bill and Other Measures of Minor Import.

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Wilson was permitted again today to transact public business. After what his physicians described as one of the best nights he has had since his illness began, he signed the amendments to the food control act providing penalties for hoarding and profiteering in food and clothing and three other measures of minor importance.

Tomorrow the prohibition enforcement bill will be returned to the White House by the Department of Justice with an opinion as to its constitutionality and it is expected that if the president shows no ill effects from his work yesterday and today he will be allowed to study the opinion and pass on the bill. He has until midnight of October 28 to act before the measure becomes a law without his signature.

The bulletin issued by Dr. Grayson from the White House tonight said:

"The president has had a comfortable day."

VICTOR PUREST OF SILK HOSIERY

Is on sale TODAY at your dealers. You can see for yourself, on examination, that in appearance it is exquisitely good. A trial cannot fail to show the remarkable wearing qualities.

In the first place, none but the purest, finest silk is used in its knitting. Then it is knitted over natural form-models. Tops and heels and toes are strongly reinforced with the finest of Sea Island cotton.

The pure silk WEARS best because it is not harmed by dye loaded with metal to give unnatural lustre. Knitted to the natural form, instead of being stretched to fit, there is snug, neat fit—without strain on the fabric. These things mean excellent wear and unusually fine appearance.

In two styles, both of remarkable quality; fine gauge knitting and everything desirable in hosiery.

Although Red Crown Gasoline possesses exactly the same working power the year round it is particularly appreciated during the cold winter months when the starter needs the assistance of quick-vaporizing fuel.

In the coldest weather Red Crown vaporizes instantly because of its low initial boiling point. The first healthy spark catches—and away you go.

Red Crown Gasoline is all fuel, a fact you will appreciate when the roads are heavy. And because it is the same steady, powerful fuel every day in the year, you need never look at your carburetor once it is properly adjusted.
