

Greatness of mind and nobleness their coat
Build in her loveliest, and create an awe
About her, as a guard angelic placed.

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

She was a form of life and light,
That, once, became a part of light;
And rose above her I turned mine eye.

SOCIETY

Hart-Corbin Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Clara Hart, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart, and Mr. Walker Williams Corbin of Hartford, Conn., took place Wednesday evening at Hillcrest, the Hart home in Council Bluffs. Rev. Timothy Jones of Kalamazoo, Mich., read the marriage lines. Roses and ferns were used through the rooms.

Mrs. Eldred Schuyler Hart was matron of honor; Miss Emma Warren of Brooklyn, N. Y., maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Geraldine Hess, Mildred Todd and Elinor Corbin of Hartford, Conn. Barbara Van Brunt and Bernard Richman were trainbearers.

The bride was gowned in white satin and wore the wedding veil of her mother.

Mr. Allen Heeley of Plainville, N. J., acted as best man. The ushers included Messrs. Henry Hart, Newell Knight of Evanston, Ill., and Tony Pease and Harry Wiley of Hartford, Conn.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held for the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin will be at home after December 1, at 13 Moore avenue, Hartford, Conn.

For Bride-elect.

Mrs. Nile Booth entertained informally at a miscellaneous shower at her home, Thursday afternoon. Miss Edith Hamilton, who will be a November bride, was the honoree. Pink tea roses attractively arranged were used through the rooms. The guests, who included members of the younger set, numbered twenty.

For Miss Sterba.

Miss Vlasta Sterba, who will be an October bride, was honoree at a miscellaneous party given Wednesday evening by a group of friends. A mock-wedding supper was served and decorations were in hearts and bouquets of salvia. A wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the table. A cut glass water and sherbert set was presented to the bride-elect.

Gift to Flower Mission.

Pandora's flower basket was filled to overflowing Thursday afternoon, when the charitably disposed members of the younger set sallied forth to distribute their weekly cheer to Omaha hospitals. The reason for the unusual magnificence this week was because Mrs. Carita O'Brien gave a tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of the fall brides. One might think from the quantities of flowers sent to this popular hostess that she was one of the brides-to-be. Her home was banked with gifts from her many friends and Thursday morning bright and early found her with her car filled with gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums, pink roses, mums, and every blossom that ever bloomed to give them to the flower mission.

At Dinner Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rhoades will entertain a party at the opening dinner dance at the Blackstone Thursday evening. Their guests included Messrs. and Mesdames. Joe Wright and O. T. Eastman, Mrs. Victor Caldwell and Messrs. Randall K. Brown and E. Brown of Sacramento, Cal.

Mrs. F. N. Croxson had six guests and Mrs. H. F. Griffin entertained a foursome.

For Mrs. Burch.

Mrs. John L. McCague, jr., entertained informally at a bridge party at her home, Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Merrill Gurch of Dubuque, Iowa, the guest of Miss Margaret Baum. Two tables were set for the game.

Katcha-Koo Cast Ready for the Curtain

HELENE BIXBY

Katcha-Koo is considered by many to be the best musical ever produced by Omaha society folks. Rehearsals have been more than satisfactory to the young women from the Rogers Producing Co., who have been here stag-directing during the past month.

Friday night at the Brandeis theater the first performance will be given and the report that tickets are being sold rapidly is encouraging to members of the First Central Congregational church, for whose benefit the performances are given.

Miss Bixby is starring in the role of "America." The cast includes more than 350 people.

Mrs. Parsons Entertains.

Mrs. Grant Parsons will entertain informally at a tea at her home, Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. E. L. Carmichael, and daughter, Grace, of Little Rock, Ark., who are the guests of Mrs. John Dietz. Mrs. R. B. Tedrow and Miss Marjorie Parsons will assist. Autumn flowers attractively arranged will be used through the rooms.

Phi Sigma Phi.

The Phi Sigma Phi fraternity of the University of Omaha will entertain at a dance at the Rome Friday evening. Decorations will be in the fraternity colors, purple and gold.

Rotary Club.

A Halloween party will be given Wednesday evening, October 29, at the Happy Hollow club by the Rotary club.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Be patient
With the erring one—
Be kind
To her who brags—
Lendancy to her who wears
Diamond tiaras
In her hair
Throughout the early morning—
When life was young
She hitched ambition
To a false and fickle star—
She flirted here
And flirted there
To reach this constellation
Which held a wealthy husband.
Her Youth was filled
With want and woe—
The ladder held no tid-bits—
Her gowns
Were unlovely offerings
From Mother Necessity.
But one day
Luck came tapping—
Tapping at her door—
She flung it wide—
Luck entered
And brought her fondest wish.
Straight away
She lost her charm
And found
A grand old mansion—
One by one
She lost her friends
But gained the lap
Of Luxury.
Her neck grew stiff—
Her eyesight poor
For honest humble people—
A lorgnette
Hung from a golden chain.
Jewels flashed—
Gems glittered—
Her graceful figure
Lost its lines
From too much ease
And laziness.
She Ah!—
She Oh!
And choked—
And choked—
She gulped out words
Of affection
In tones most aggravating—
Yet—
Who should blame
This foolish dame
Whose head was turned
By money?
Is it not enough
That she lost her sense?
Karma was watchful
And for revenge
Played havoc
And ruined her vocal cords.
Be kind—
Thank Fate
Who wisely spared you
This maze
Of mental mire.

Discuss Omaha Riot.

The Omaha riot was discussed at a preliminary meeting preceding the supper part of the Nebraska Federation, the speaker being Mrs. T. J. Gist, past president of the state federation and a sister of Congressman C. F. Reavis.

"Omaha was not to blame for the riot," Mrs. Gist said. "The event was but the reflection of a general condition. When a cauldron is boiling it is as likely to bubble up in one place as in another."

Mrs. F. M. Leet, who has been living at the Bransford hotel for the past year and a half, has given up her apartment, and left Tuesday to visit her daughter in Iowa.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Has Went to College.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have come to you for a little advice. I am a girl 15 years of age. I have blue eyes and light brown hair, and am considered very good looking. Should a girl of my age go with a fellow?

I am going with a very good looking boy 18 years old.

He is well respected. This boy has brown eyes and light brown hair, very well off and has went through college.

I am very much in love with this fellow.

And he seems to love me.

I am engaged to this boy, and he has given me a diamond. Do you think a girl of my age should marry?

How should a girl of my age dress her hair?

We are chums.

As ever,

P. S.—Please publish.

It is rather surprising to note that a man who has "went through college" is in love with a 15-year-old, ungrammatical little girl. Better brush up your English and spelling a little, so he won't be ashamed of you when he takes you to his college reunions and alumni banquets.

He is a smart lad to have gone through college at 18 years of age. Don't you mean he just walked through one day?

Rich in Experience.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are two lonesome ex-soldiers who came home rich in experience but awfully short on six-cylinder cars and war profits, which the fellows who stayed at home seem to have acquired. Why do the girls prefer the latter to the former, which we have found to our sorrow?

We are just the same as when we went away. Have the girls changed and why?

Can anyone advise us on this subject, as we are very much puzzled as to our future course?

Please answer our questions, Miss Fairfax, and we thank you very much.

G. J. AND H. A.

There is some discrepancy in your letter. My experience has shown me that it is the former who can afford to buy the six-cylinder cars.

Cheer up. One good crop and you can buy a car. If not, there is still a happy view to take—you can find out the girls who care for you for your own sake and not because of your fine car.

Idea of Humor.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are two girls, 16 and 17 years old. We are in love with a man, 35 years old, and he loves both of us. He has asked both of us secretly to marry him. What shall we do? He is in very poor health and is not able to work, but is very wealthy. Is there any place in the United States where a man is allowed to have two wives? Yours truly,

"WAITING."

A man may have two wives in most any part of the United States, but, of course, if he does, he is obliged to reside in the penitentiary.

Your letter, though obviously a joke, reflects the wrong ideas. Get your humor out of something that is really clever and try to get over the notion that misconduct is funny.

The Girl He Can't Forget.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have a question to ask you.

Now, I am a young man, 20 years old, and lately I have met a girl in another town. Well, now, I have met a lot of girls, but this one I simply can't forget, and I sure would like to get acquainted with her, but I don't know how to go about it, for there is no chance of an introduction, so I thought there might be another way, and that is by letter, for I know her address. Now, if that is at all possible, please let me know how to go about it, for I simply cannot get this girl off my mind.

P. S.—Also please keep my address with you, for I would like to correspond with some nice girl of 15 to 19 years of age, so if they want to get my address they may get it from you. Thanking you ever so much for your trouble, I remain awaiting.

The postscript of your letter is the real keynote. It reveals the fact that you are interested in girls. We will file your name and will try to take care of the deluge of mail which is sure to be directed to you. Don't resort to unfair means of making the girl's acquaintance. You can arrange for an introduction if you are worthy of one. A legitimate course will give you more respect for yourself and will put you on a better footing with any girl who is the right kind.

Birthday Party.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: This is my first letter to you, but not a case of love. I would like you to suggest a way to decorate a table and a room for a birthday party, as my birthday falls on Halloween. What kind of a centerpiece? Also some good games for indoors? I will be 14.

Thanking you in advance and hoping to see this in print very soon, I am,

ERMA.

Paper streamers from the chandelier to the plates around the table are good. Make your centerpiece of pumpkin, use paper plates and animal cookies.

Beauty Secrets.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Can you tell me how I can get information regarding face massage, care of the hair, filling out neck and all such things? I can't seem to find anything in any of my papers at present.

Do you know in what proportion lanoline and cocoa butter are used in developing treatment?

Answer in Omaha Bee to MARION W.

Send a stamped envelope for a reply to your inquiry.

Sybil—If the bride is going to wear her veil, you probably will not wear a hat during the ceremony. White shoes or pumps would be preferable with a white dress. A fancy opera hat in cloth of silver, with silver pumps, would be very pretty if you do wear a hat. The bride knew her veil on during the reception.

Pretty Mamma—I am less concerned about whether the young man loves you than I am about your own misguided self. A married woman who makes love to a young, unmarried man is lacking in decency of character. Even though you think your love is sincere, that is no excuse. The road you are traveling leads to the City of Destruction. But the fear of consequences ought not to be your reason for changing your ways. Rather, a desire to be able to respect yourself should be sufficient.

Theta Phi Delta.

A dancing party will be given Friday evening at Dundee hall by the Theta Phi Delta fraternity of the University of Omaha. Those in charge of the affair are Ray Phelps, James Smith, William Campen and Chester Johnson.

Delta Gamma Alumnae.

Mrs. Warren Howard entertained the members of the Omaha alumnae chapter of the Delta Gamma sorority at her home Thursday afternoon. Twenty guests attended.
