New York Coffee.

New York, Oct. 24.—The market for coffee futures was irregular today. After opening at an advance of one point on May, but generally 2 to 4 points lower, prices rallied several points on covering and trade buying, with December selling at 16.20c and May at 16.15c. The steady ruling of milreis prices in Rio probably encouraged the advance, but the Santos market was unsettled and offerings here increased on the buige, with December later selling off to 18.95c and May to 18.93c under liquidation, chiefly from New Orleans and Wall street sources. The close was net one point lower to 5 points higher. October, 16.99c; December, 16.99c; January, 15.87c; March, 15.95c; May, 16.96c; July and September, 16.00c. Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Forecasts of rough weather, together with reports of subsero temperatures over the Canadian northwest did a good deal today to put bears at a disadvantage in the corn market. Closing prices, although unsettled, were % 91% on the higher with December $1.25% $1.25% and May, $1.23% $01.23%. Oas finished $6 % c up and provisions varying from 32c decline to 40c advance.

There was persistent buying of corn throughout the session, whereas offerings were at no-time large. Besides unfavorable weather prospects, the motives for buying included current estimates that pointed to a shortage of potatoes, meats and dairy products. Much notice was taken also of fresh strength in the hog market and of the fact that the visible supply of corn has seldem been so small as at present. The high price of cotton and other commodities tended likewise to exert a stimulating influence. Advances, however, were checked somewhat by selling ascribed to traders who yesterday had been conspicuous bulls.

Oats were dull but firm in sympathy with corn.

Provisions averaged lower despite higher quotations on hogs. Packers were said to be selling and there was talk of larger arrivals of hogs next week.

New York, Oct. 24.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say:

Two apparently diverse views of the trade and industrial situation present situation or the more distant future is regarded. Current buying is active, never more so indeed in many lines and the only complaint is inadequacy of materials or of finished products to supply demands. Buying of wearing apparent, much of it of a high grade, is exceilent, and luxuries, jewelry, automobiles and kindred articles apparently never sold better. Collegians of this city will given an opportunity to revive their college spirit here today when the big double bill of gridiron sport will be staged at Rourke park.

For lo, these many moons college men have been working hard to have the Nebraska university return to its old custom of staging at least one of its big games in Omaha. In days of yore the Lincoln manage-ment was glad of the chance and, in fact, was almost compelled to play here, because it meant enough receipts from the game to assist materially in paying the expenses of the foot ball season. The game was needed then.

But the Cornhuskers grew and prohibited games in any but the col lege towns, and Omaha was deprived of the sport of seeing the Cornhask ers in action. Times Have Changed.

But again the times have changed and the Cornhuskers have returned, Wabash fell before the Ryanites, Lexington, Neb., Oct. 24 .- (Special Telegram.) - The Lexington High school foot ball team defeated the Kearney Military academy team here by a score of 33 to 0. The feature of the game was the good all-around playing of the Lexington boys after the first quarter when the game was safely sewed up. Coach McNicholas put in the Lexington subs. Colgate will face Princeton at Princeton, with shutout victories to its credit over both Brown and Cornell. Its record to date is far more impressive than that of Princeton, which barely escaped defeat at the hands of Lafayette.

vard appears to have little to fear

Cornell and Dartmouth will meet in New York City and, while Cor-nell can be counted on to battle val-iantly against the New Hampshire machine, Dartmouth appears in the Amherst at Columbia.

Washington and Jefferson at Syracuse.
Norwich at Brown.
Johns Hopkins at Swarthmore.

Undefeated lowa Teams

to Meet in Bluffs Today The Des Moines East High and Council Bluffs foot ball contest for state honors will be called at 2 sharp this afternoon at the Sixteenth avenue field. Both teams are undefeated in Iowa and a close game is expected. Although Des Moines has a fast, heavy team it lacks the ability to punt, according to reports. The Bluffs team is in the best of condition for the game and will give the scarlet and black eleven a hard battle. Elias Larson, star end for the Bluffs, will be in the lineup today after being out for the early part of the season with an injured leg. He will prove a big factor in Council Bluffs' attack. The Bluffs' line is expected to be stronger than in any other game played so far and the Des Moines' backs will find it a stone wall. A large mass meeting was held at the Bluffs high school yesterday afternoon to stimulate interest in the game. Almost the entire stu-dent body pledged support on the side lines.
