Volunteers to Work East of Sixteenth Street Hold Meeting at Hotel Fontenelle.

The volunteer stock salesmen who will work next week east of Sixteenth street in behalf of the stockselling campaign for the Ak-Sar-Ben Exposition company met last night at the Hotel Fontenelle, where they first broke bread and then received inspiring talks from their leaders.

The west-of-Sixteenth street teams met at the Fontenelle Wednesday night and were enthused in similar manner.

Guy Cramer, Robert H. Manley, Harvey Millikin and H. B. Whitehouse comprise the executive committee of the sales organization and J. E. Davidson is treasurer of the exposition company. Excepting only the various war fund campaigns, it may be said that this organization surpasses anything Omaha has ever seen in the way of or-ganized business "pep."

Business Men Active.

And it is pep with a purpose and a punch. Nearly 400 energetic, live-wire Omaha business men are in this campaign because they have faith to believe that the project is for the real interests of Omaha.

They are going to start out Mon-day to cover the entire city of Greater Omaha. They will be primed with as much information and zeal as if they were out to sell goods for their firms or for them-

Their object is to sell $1,000,000 of stock at $100 per share in the Ak-Sar-Ben Exposition company. They are ready to batter down any objection that may be offered by any prospect, but they are not anticipatng objections, because they believe that full-page advertisements in the Omaha newspapers have prepared the people for their coming.

Size Up Prospects. They will know how much each prospect should subscribe for. The leading business men

Omaha already have agreed that this exposition project will mean more to Omaha than can be estimated at this time in dollars and cents. The exposition will provide nearly all-year entertainment and amusements of a wide variety, including stock shows, automobile and aeroplane events, industrial shows, carnivals of winter and summer sports, open-air pageants, front-ier day exhibits, etc.

The salesmen are organized in 41 teams, each team with a major and a captain.

Each team has its own special district and will work only in that dis-

Arrest for Embezzlement Breaks Up a Honeymoon

Charges of lorgery, embezzlement and larceny as bailee broke up the inoneymoon of Ernest Smith and his wife, formerly Miss Anna Toth, 4512 North Seventeenth street. Smith was arrested at the Union stock wards on the forgery charge. stock yards on the forgery charge when he is said to have attempted to pass a check for $56.45 made payable to H. Smith and signed by A.

Late yesterday afternoon Smith was brought to the Central police station by Detectives Troby and Bolar and booked for embezzlement and larceny as bailee. The detectives say he admitted collecting $68 on a coal bill for Sunderland Bros. and using the money to be married.
They eloped to Council Bluffs Tuesday. The wife is broken-hearted, but says she will stand valiantly by his side.

Young Brothers of Girl Rescue Her From Attack by Man

An unidentified white man attempted to attack Lulu Ulrich, 9 years old, 1129 North Seventeenth street, at North Twentieth and Nicholas streets, Thursday afternoon, when the child was on her way home from school.

The man was frightened away by the girl's two younger brothers, who were following their sister home from the Kellom school, North Twenty-third and Paul streets. The police were given a descrip-tion of the man, who is believed to tion of the man, who is believed to be the same person accused of annoying children of the neighborhood for the past week.

The man was said to have been loitering around the neighborhood all afternoon. He followed the child from school, and when she that North Twentieth and Nichreached North Twentieth and Nicholas streets, he accosted her and threw his arms around her. The girl screamed and when her broth-ers hastened to her assistance the man fled.

He is described as being 20 years old, heavy set and wearing dark dentials that enabled them to secure a cashier's check from a Council Bluffs bank for $566.45, total of fine and costs. The men did not give their names, but admitted they were representing the Service Lumber company, of Lincoln, where Harris has been employed during the summer while out on bond. Harris is said to have made a big success with the company. Rumors that records in the county treasurer's office, destroyed during the riot and fire of September 28, will never be restored, and that delinquent and unpaid taxes will not be collected are strongly denied by M. L. Endres, city and the company.

Harris and his second whe went away together, accompanied by the county treasurer.

"The receipts given for taxes paid in years past are numbered and in triplicate, and are credited to tax accounts of property. These were not destroyed, and a recheck is now being made in order to give us a complete list of unpaid and delinquent taxes," says Mr. Endres.
