TERAUCHI, DEAD EATS ICE CREAM.

Tokyo. Oct. 26.—Field Marshal Count Seiki Terauchi, former premier of Japan, whose death was reported here, is still alive, his physicians announced. When the aged diplomat can be to the company of the second stricts. diplomat sank into a coma his phy sicians believed death had overtaken him and news of his demise was given to the world.

Camphor injections given the count as a precautionary measure restored consciousness and he was able to partake of milk and ice cream.

Count Terauchi's death had been officially pronounced and posthumous honors had been bestowed upon him by the imperial court.

BAG EIGHT BUCKS IN TWO DAYS' HUNT.

Santa Ana, Cal., Oct. 26.—Hunt- WAIT FOR 16 DAYS ing deer in Tchama county is "the hie," according to William F. Diers and Frank Walker of Santa Ana. Diers and Walker were members of a party of four which bagged eight bucks in two days' hunt, beginning at Mulligan Springs, about 60 miles east of Red Bluft.
"The first day out I saw seven bucks and 17 does in one herd," said

As a result of the reports brought back by Diers and Walker several Santa Ana huntsmen are either on their way or will soon be bound for the Tehama deer country.

CONDUCT BUSINESS OF STATE IN BATH ROOM.

London, Oct. 25 .- Sir George Rid dell, in a speech at a press confer-ence at Holyoke, revealed an inter-esting little "inside" story of the Paris peace conference days.
"Sir Maurice Hankey," he said

"took the last German note to President Wilson at 5 o'clock in the morning on the Monday preceding the signing of the peace treaty. President Wilson left his bed and invited Hankey into his room, then

"This is too cold. Let's go to the bath room, it's warmer. "So they went to the bath room, and they discussed Anglo-American relations sitting in the bath room."

PIE, MAGAZINE, BATHING CAPS ON MENU OF COW.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 26 .- A picnic party at Island Pond, returning from a walk through the woods, found a cow standing in the stream eating out of th eaten one large loaf of bread, one pie in a pasteboard box, a pound of fancy crackers, a pound and a quar-ter of bacon, half of a magazine and two red bathing caps, and was in the middle of a ball of twine, chewing it down foot by foot.

TURKISH WOMEN REMOVE VEILS FOR DENTISTS.

Washington, Oct. 26 .- Further evidence that the women of the near east are throwing off the shackles of turies comes in news that these dentists entered Macedonia, says a report from Monastir, they found According to Maj. R. S. Bratton. the wife of a Mussulman would go head of the military part sent from on with the torture of a toothache here to recover the bodies, the slayrather than expose her features to ers were from a Mexican sloop, the sight of any man other than her their identity is known to both the tered when the American relief workers sought to enlist the aid of native girls to assist in the hospital. Gradually, under the example of the American women in the Red Cross units, the eastern ideas that have bound down the women have been worn away in many places.

SAYS DOCTORS CAN STAMP OUT BOLSHEVISM.

New York, Oct. 25 .- "The Ameriislators in the land, because he is families. nearer the people and attends them in moments when their minds are aviators had gone 19 days without more receptive to good advice."

The Rev. Charles B. Moulinier, S.

nual convention of the clinical congress of the American Coilege of

"Preachers and lawmakers can talk until they are blue in the face, but what they say may not 'take, but when the doctor says something Late Admiral Mahan

MAN GETS CASH AND

LINGERIE, SHE HYSTERICS. New York, Oct. 26 .- When E. T. Shelfus of Columbus, O., opened a traveling bag he believed to be his at the Continental hotel he found in it woman's wear, underneath which were Liberty bonds, cash, iewelry and negotiable papers to the value of $10,000, besides bank books showing deposits amounting to $5.831 in four Newark banks. Shelfus had sent a bellboy to the Pennsylvania station with a check for his bag, and the one which the boy brought back was so like his wn that he did not notice the dif-erence for several hours.

Meanwhile Mrs. Margaret W.
Brown of South Orange, who had ehecked the bag while on her way

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

NEW FEATURE-"THE VELVET HAMMER"-LOCAL CELEBRITIES DONE IN VERSE-STARTS TODAY

VOL. 49-NO. 112. Entered as second-class matter May 28, 1906, at Omaha P. O. under act of March 3, 1879. OMAHA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1919.

TWO CENTS.

Probably snow in west and rain or snow in east portion Monday, colder Monday night. Tuesday fair with raising temperature in west. Hourly temperatures:

THE WEATHER:

MINERS MAY YET NEGOTIATE

SUFFERED

Full Story of Murder and Aviators in Mexico Given is suing for divorce. Out by Rescue Party.

WITHOUT ANY FOOD

Rescued by Mexican Fishermen and Kept Five Days Without Sustenance, and Then Killed.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 26.-Joe Allen Richards, member of the searching party, gave out tonight what he said were copies of let-ters scratched by Lieutenants Connolly and Waterhouse on their airplanes. That written by Connolly read in part:

"Dearest Mother: My time to die is here. God knows it will be welcome enough after our suffer-ing so far of hunger and thirst. Try to forget my fate. What I have is yours. You use it for your comfort and happiness. I tried to live a good life and I do not fear death. Please do not wear mourning for me.

"Love to you, Dad, Nora, Hazel "God bless you all.

"CECIL." The following is Richards' copy of Lieut. Waterhouse's note to his Dearest Mother: We have been here now ten days. No signs of any help and our water nearly gone, so I thought I would write you a short letter while I had the strength. I don't want you to grieve for me. I want you to have everything, which is not much. All my love to you and sis and dad. Levingly, "SON."

Bodies Are Located.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 26.-It is officially announced here that Lieuts, Cecil H. Connolly of San Diego and Frederick B. Waterhouse of Weiser, Idaho, army aviators missing since August 21, were slain in Lower California by two Mexican fishermen.

The announcement was made upon the arrival here of the dethe Mohammedan customs of cen- stroyer Aaron Ward, bringing the bodies of the two aviators from women now consent to removing Bahia Los Angeles on the Gulf of their yeils while having their teeth Lower California, to which point they had flown after losing their When five American Red Cross way in a border patrol flight from

United States and Mexican govern-A similar prejurice was encoun- ments, and steps are being taken to capture them.

Sufferings Endured

The destroyer also brought a part of a story of the sufferings endured by the young aviators in the form of notes scrawled in part on the wings and fuselage of the De Havi- said: land airplane in which Connolly and Waterhouse made their last flight. Some of these messages, evidently written when the aviators had almost lost hope of being found, were can surgeon of today has more of such a tragic nature that Major power to stamp out bolshevism and Bratton asked the newspaper reradicalism in the minds of the peo-porters to refrain from using them, ple than all the preachers and leg-out of consideration of the officers' out of consideration of the officers'

Major Bratton said that the two food, or at least without much to sustain them. The facts that drew president of the Catholic Hospi- them far from their air path retal association, made this statement mained with them until the very during an address at the ninth an- last. Maj. Theodore Macauley, in one of his flights to find them, flew within 60 miles of the spot where they stood guarding their plane. Later, on the afternoon of Septem-(Continued on Page Two, Column Six.)

Paid Highest Tribute By Admiral Jellicoe

Honolulu, Oct. 26.—Dec'aration that Great Britain owed a debt of gratitude to the United States for American naval aid in the war and to the late Rear Admiral Mahan was made by Admiral Sir John R. Jel licoe, former commander of the British grand fleet, in an address before the Allied Civic clubs of Honolulu.

"We of the United States and Great Britain were brother and sister in time of need," he said, "and obody can think of the naval part of the great war without thinking of

"SILENT" SMITH'S SISTER REFUSED DIVORCE DECREE

Judge Does Not Think Hus-band of "Jiggs" Stamp Given a Square Deal.

not unlike old man Jiggs, who preferred the company of Dinty Moore and his gang to the presence of Count Gazzunk, is Victor A. Ross-Death of Two American bach, whose wealthy wife, Mrs. Ruby A. Rossbach of Hollywood, > Mrs. Rossbach is the sister of "Si-lent" Smith, the famous millionaire who died in Japan some years ago while on his honeymoon. Before the rich brother died, Rossbach worked on the railroad, had a modest income and according to his story enjoyed life "without putting > Then came the "horn of plenty." Rossbach left the railroad, they moved from Libertyville, Ill., to California and, as Rossbach said, began to cut shines."

Parties in Garage.

Court testimony was that Mrs. Rossbach said her husband lacked "polish;" that he would "cock his hat over one ear," put his feet on the table and whistle in the house. He always smoked in the house, she said, "a source of great annoy-

Then, too, she objected to his friends. For example, he was on friendly terms with the street sweeper on their street; he knew most of the bartenders in the city; all the cops called him by his first She claimed Rossbach and "his friends" would congregate in the garage. He had a bottle there, too, reduction in wages when the gov she claimed and often slept there. The former allegation Rossbach admitted, but he denied the latter.

"I never stayed in the garage more'n a couple of hours," he said, lators asked the attorney for the wife.

Rossbach admitted "drinking a little, but not much.

"Well, how many drinks could you take without getting drunk? he was asked and the reply was: "Never tested my capacity. Never had that many drinks."

Sheriff Also Drinks. Sheriff Cline testified that a man with a nerve like Rossbach could not possibly be addicted to drink. ve seen him take a drink, yes, said the sheriff. "In fact I've taken a drink with him myself."

"Where?" asked Attorney Edward Winterer, for the wife. "At Le Gun club," replied

"Do you mean to tell me," said Winterer, shaking his figer at Cline, "that you, the sheriff of Los Angeles county, took a drink of liq-uor at the Gun club?" And leaning forward in his chair, the sheriff replied:

"I mean to tell you, that I, the sheriff of Los Angeles county, state of California, will take a drink any-

The bailiff had to restore order. Decree Is Denied. denying a decree the court

"The conduct of this defendant was not vicious. The quarrels were the fault of both, due mainly to the fact that she was wealthy and he wasn't. That condition always brings trouble. It heaped a burden of pride upon the defendant. It humiliated him. He had a lot to contend with."

Many Fights Follow Resumption of Trolley Service in Knoxville

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 26.—After a day marked by frequent clashes growing out of a resumption of growing out of a resumption of declared, was to give the working street car service with non-union men their fundamental economic crews, two battalions of the Fourth rights and proper machinery for ad-Tennessee infantry were ordered to justing current local grievances. mobilize here immediately to preserve order in the event the situation gets beyond the control of the local authorities. Gov. Roberts at Nashville is also prepared to call for the United States cavalry at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., if this becomes necessary. One infantry company and the machine gun company of the state guard, which have headquarters here, are sleeping on their arms in the Knoxville armory tonight. Before day-light they will have been reinforced by several infantry companies from nearby towns.

Great Longshoremen's Strike Forecast by Vote of Sunday

New York, Oct. 26.-Efforts to end New York's unauthorized harthe great American, Admiral Mahan, bor tieup were given another set-who did much to open our eyes to back when it was announced that winning the war, and although this is the first time I have set foot on United States territory. I will not be the last to acknowledge Great Britain's debt to America during the war."

Shelfus promptly told the police of his discovery, and Mrs. Brown can now go on her way to Greensburg rejoicing.

winning the war, and although this is the first time I have set foot on United States territory. I will not be the last to acknowledge Great Britain's debt to America during the war."

Admiral Jellicoe was entertained with a reception given in his bones by Governor in his bones. back when it was announced that

Los Angeles, Oct. 26.—A figure CONGRESS

Timothy Shea Serves Notice That Firemen and Enginemen Will Not Observe Legislation Against Walkouts.

WOULD DEPRIVE THEM OF CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS

Such a Law Almost Certain to Precipitate Revolution, and Is Just What Agitators Hoped for, He Asserts.

Washington, Oct. 26 .- Timothy shea has given notice to congress that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, of which he is acting president, would not ob-serve pending anti-strike legislation if enacted into law.

Such an attempt to single out railroad employes and deprive them of what he termed the economic right of workers to strike to prevent in-justice must be accepted, he said, in connection with other information which the railroad brotherhoods have, as a foregone conclusion, that the railroads contemplate a general ernment surrenders control and desires such a measure to forestall a

"If these interests or the legislators believe railroad employes will "Didn't your wife beg you to come in the house and entertain like the head of the family should?"

asked the attorney for the minds, because I believe I are the minds of the m minds, because I believe I speak for "Me head of that family?" parried the witness. "I should say not. All deprives them of the rights of American citizenship would not be observed, not because this class of American citizens are law breakers. American citizens are law breaker but because such a law would be unwarranted, un-American and contrary to American institutions."

Fears a Revolution. Mr. Shea said such a law was almost certain to precipitate revolu-tion, and was, in fact, just what extreme radicals and revolutionary agitators desire.

"This would give them logical argument for direct action," he asserted, "with the intention of displacing the liberal and more conervative leaders, and thereby overthrowing the existing social, political and industrial institutions of the

"If the anti-strike law is enacted the responsibility for any upheaval which may follow lies with con-

Railroad men are waiting the outcome of the government's campaign against high prices, said Mr. Shea, adding that if the cost of living is not reduced, then they expect suf-ficient advance in wages to enable them to maintain their standard of living. He declared firemen were Commerce, where John L. Webster running in debt from $5 to $50 a will speak on "Roosevelt". The ad-

Time and Half Overtime. Time and a half for overtime work long as ever before.

tinued, "and which they have tem- Governor McKelvie has urged that porarily acquiesced in because of war the spirit of the day be generally and emergency. They have decided observed and that the school chilthat after nearly four years of pa- dren be impressed with object lestient waiting on their part this issue sons on Americanization and Roosecannot longer be postponed."

The way to stop strikes, Mr. Shea

Lady Astor Accepts Unionists Offer to Contest Vacant Seat

London, Oct. 26.-Lady Astor has accepted the invitation of the Plymouth Unionists to become a candi date for the House of Commons for he seat in Plymouth, vacated by the elevation of her husband, Viscount Astor, to the House of Lords. Lady Astor's acceptance makes the prospect excellent that the firs woman to sit in the English parliament will be American born as 'Plymouth is a safe unionist seat.' She is very popular in Plymouth where she has always busied herself in local municipal affairs. Lady Astor will be opposed by both liberal and labor candidates. The election will probably take place November 15.

Sweden Will Recognize government has decided to recognize the independence of the Czecho-Slovak republic.

Greater Than the Government

COMPLETE PLANS FOR OBSERVANCE OF ROOSEVELT DAY

Birthday of Former President Demonstrators Will Show How Will Be Marked by Americanization Talks.

Today, the 61st birthday annikeeping with the life and efforts of ning and has arranged a program the distinguished American. The day will be remembered at a noonday meeting at the Chamber of month because their wage increases dress will follow a luncheon held have not kept pace with mounting under the auspices of the public affairs committee.

An effort was made to make it possible for Maj. Gen. Leonard was declared to be necessary to give Wood to stop here a few hours on the men a real eight-hour day, which his way to Lincoln and speak at the he declared they have never enjoyed despite the passage of the Adamson law. Without punitive overtime, he said, the railroads would not be able to be here. He would continue to work the men as will deliver an address in Lincoln to-g as ever before.

Locomotive firemen cannot The local observance will be physically endure the hours they der the general promotion of the have been required to work," he con-Roosevelt Memorial association.

> Acting Mayor Ure tast week issued a proclamation in which he declared a holiday and urged observance of the occasion.

Today marks the closing of a fund drive in behalf of the Roosevelt memorial, a project which is being managed by the Roosevelt Memorial association, a national organization, which is nonpartisan.

American Consular Agent Released by Hauford, Cal., Oct. 26.-William D. Jenkins, American consular agent Puebla, Mex., who was kidnaped by the Mexicans last Sunday and held for $150,000 ransom, was released by the bandits Sunday, according to information received by his father here.

Hungary Will Aid.

Vienna, Oct. 26.—Newspapers state that Hungary is willing to assist Austria in its present food and Czecho-Slovak Republic gary requires in return, however, as its price, it is stated, the extradi-

PURE FOOD SHOW FORMAL OPENING SET FOR TONIGHT

to Reduce Living Cost-Samples Distributed.

Sixty demonstrators tonight will ersary of the late Col. Theodore explain to Omahans how to beat Wilson obtained considerable rest Roosevelt, will be observed in the high cost of living at the formal today after several days during ccutive board meeting on Wednes-Omaha as "Americanization Day," opening of the Retail Grocers' as- which the difficulties of the national as friends of the former president of sociation pure food show. James E. the United States believe that this Kirk, vice president of the organform of observance is particularly in ization, will be chairman of the eve- cian, to rescind in part the order that will entertain all. Acting Mayor Ure will deliver the principal address and the other city commissioners have been invited to Wholesalers with booths demonstrating their products have arranged to give away samples to- cials tonight were hopeful that this night. Several concerns will give away full sized packages of food products in addition to the many samples to be given out. Several prizes will be given away.

The Country Store will be opened with all the fun and amusement that this feature assures. The admittance will be 13 cents with 2 cents war tax.

Poindexter Announces Himself a Republican Presidential Candidate

Washington, Oct. 26.—Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, in a statement today to the people of the United States, announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for president and presented a platform of policies and principles which he will advocate in his campaign.
The Washington senator in his statement of policy denounces threats of labor leaders to tie up the Bandits in Mexico railroads as "government by terror" for a special class, and declares that railroads as "government by terror" the government must be made supreme to both capital and labor, though insisting that the just claims of labor should be recognized. Communism, Senator Poindexter declared, is inconsistent with the vested rights of the laborer to his Treating of international wages. matters, the platform remarks that the "process of making a 'supreme sacrifice' of America and of 'joining our fortunes with the fortunes of men everywhere' should be stopped In making his statement of principles, Senator Poindexter, who is conomic crisis with supplies of the first publicly announced candioodstuffs and raw materials. Hun- date for the republican nomination, asserted that his aunouncement of policy makes it necessary for the re-

WILSON OBTAINS GOOD REST AND ENJOYS SUNDAY

President Continues to Improve Slowly," Dr. Grayson's Bulletin Asserts.

Washington, Oct. 26.-President industrial conference and the Rear Admiral Grayson, his physiagainst his active participation in governmental affairs.

Secretary Tumulty spent Sunday out of the city, and so far as could be learned no public matters were attend and deliver short talks. The laid before Mr. Wilson by Dr. Grayfeature of the evening program will be vocal solos by Miss Clara M. Wilson spent practically the entire day with her nusband, reading to him light verse and fiction. While impending events held out little prospects, White House offi-ness, would bring less interruption coln, I thank God that we have a In his midday bulletin today, Dr. Grayson said:

"The president continues to prove slowly." Dr. Grayson authorized tonight he following statement as to Mr.

Vilson's condition:

"The president had a very good The prohibition enforcement bill and Attorney General Palmer's opin-ber 6. He added that he had yesion to the measure's constitutionality, it was said tonight at the White ing of the national executive board House, had not been placed before of the United Mine Workers to conthe president. The statement immediately led to renewed speculation as to whether Mr. Wilson would act on it or permit it to become a law Tuesday midnight without his signature.

vene at Indianapolis at 10 Wednesday morning. He explained that the meeting was called before President Wilson's statement was made public. The gathering had been called primarily to formulate details of the strike.

Austrian Archduke Joseph May Become Hungarian King

Stockholm, Oct. 26 .- The Svenska Dagsblat learns from what it considers an unusually well-informed source that the Archduke Joseph of Austria will soon be elected king tion designed to avert this catasof Hungary.

of Hungary will be offered, it is (Continued on Page Two, Column Que.) stated, to a foreign prince, prob ably of the English royal family. A resumption of the throne of for-mer Emperor Charles is out of the

Foch Prepares to Carry Out Military Peace Measures

Stockholm, Oct. 26.—The Swedish tion of Bela Kun and his associates overnment has decided to recognize the independence of the of Hungary, who took refuge in be chosen as the party's standard November 10, according to the Libbert 10 powers have been deposited in the late communist government to stand by his platform, should he carried out between November 5 and be chosen as the party's standard November 10, according to the Libbert 10 protocol

Acting President of United Mine Workers of America Issues Statement Relative to Strike Call.

NO ASSURANCES OF PEACEFUL OUTCOME

Government Determined to See That People Obtain Adequate Coal Supply to Keep Them From Suffering.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.-Reply. ing to the statement of President Wilson that the proposed strike of soft coal miners, scheduled for No-vember 1, is "unjustifiable and un-lawful," John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, on his arrival here tonight from Washington, D. C., declared "the status quo" prevailed.

Asked whether the president's declaration would act to suspend the strike, Mr. Lewis said he had nothing to say on this subject to-

Shuts Himself Up. Mr. Lewis went to his home in this city, shut himself off from com munication from the outside work and left word that he was not to be bothered before 11 a. m. tomorrow Referring to a brief statement given out at Bloomington enroute to this city, Mr. Lewis said that represented the sum total of what he would say tonight.

"I will simply say," he declared "that the status quo prevails." Pressed for an expression as to what steps he believed the government intended to take to carry out its anti-strike program, he said:
"I know only what I have read ir the papers. Mr. Lewis would not comment or whether further negotiations were possible. He was told of Gov. Frank O. Lowden's statement, is-sued tonight, in which the governor promised co-operation with the fedcral government in stemming the mine tie-up and suggested that compulsory arbitration might be necessary. Lewis declined to make any reply.

"I'm tired and I want to get some sleep," Mr. Lewis said. He will go to Indianapolis probably Tuesday to be present at the international ex-Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 26.-Johr

L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mino Workers of America tonight issued a statement saying that all demands of his organization are subject to negotiations. Lewis declined to state specifically the attitude of the United Mine Workers toward the statement of President Wilson yesterday regarding the proposed strike of the bituminous coal miners of the nation.

In regard to this Mr. Lewis would nly say:
"I am an American, free born, with all the pride of my heritage. I week, the fifth of the president's ill-and traditions. With Abraham Lincountry where men may strike. May the power of my government never be used to throttle and crush the efforts of the toilers to improve their material welfare and elevate the standard of their citizenship." Mr. Lewis said that he had not received any message from Washington, that he had been traveling all day. He left Washington at 6 Sat-

No Suggestions Made.

When asked to make a statement the right of the miners to strike November 1, in the face of the critical conditions, he said:

The coal operators have not offered a single constructive suggesf Hungary.

If the entente objects the crown tions at Buffalo, later at Philadel-

President of Austrian

Vienna, Oct. 26.—President Karl Seitz of the Austrian republic has signed the treaty of peace with the allied and associated governments. Paris, Oct. 26.—The military Austria of the treaty of St. Germain. seasures decided upon between the The treaty will become effective supreme council and Marshal Foch to carry out provisions of the peace treaty coincident with the coming principal allied and associated

Republic Signs Peace