LET "DANDERINE" SAVE YOUR HAIR

Get rid of every bit of that ugly dandruff and stop falling hair.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After several applications all dandruff usually goes and hair stops coming out. Every hair in your head soon shows new life, vigor, brightness, thickness and more color.

SOCIETY

CONCEPTION OF righte-

ness is that which we owe to Hebrew civilization," said Ida Kruse McFarland at her third monthly lecture Tuesday afternoon, at the Blackstone hotel, to the members of the Delphian society. In discussing the Hebrews she stated that a sense of righteousness is one of the greatest essentials of civilization and therefore our debt to this early nation is unbounded. "Superiority of many kinds of one class toward another is the cause of social unrest and discontent. We should seek, not unanimity, but harmony among peoples," said this interesting lecturer, while addressing her audience. Mrs. McFarland spoke easily and undisturbed by the arrival of late comers.

Her talk was brief coherent dealing with the subject of Hebrew civilization and our debt to it in a concise manner.

The membership of the society has been filled and the course of lectures will, it promises to be an unusual series.

Mizera-Sterba Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Vlasta Sterba to Frank H. Mizera of David City, Neb., will take place at 8 o'clock tonight, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sterba, in South Omaha, the Rev. Robert F. Leavens, pastor of the Unitarian church, officiating. Miss Libbie Emma Sterba will be

Clark-Summers Wedding Unusually Pretty Ceremony.

White chrysanthemums amid a bower of ferns formed a most attractive setting for the marriage of Miss Jayne Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Clark, and Mr. John Summers, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers, which took place Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks read the marriage lines.

Miss Elizabeth Clark and Lucile McGrath, as flower girls, wore orchid pink chiffon and carried baskets of pink roses.

De'vah Clark acted as ringbearer and wore flesh color chiffon. She carried a white pillow covered with lilies of the valley. The ring was imbedded in the heart of a chrysanthemum.

Miss Mary Fuller, maid of honor, was gownned in orchid blue satin. The bridesmaids were Misses Elsie Storz and Belle Robertson of Petersburg, Va. Miss Storz wore pink and Miss Robertson was gownned in orchid shade chrysanthemums.

The bride wore white satin combined with point lace. Her veil of point lace was that worn by the mother of Mr. Summers at her wedding. She also wore the gift of the groom, a string of pearls.

Mr. John Caldwell acted as best man. The ushers included Newman Benson, Drexel Sibirsen, Albert Sibirsen and Redd Reed Peters.

Mrs. S. S. Zahriske played the chimes of the organ just before the entrance of the bridal party into the church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the parish house.

The bride's going-away suit was of brown duvetyne trimmed with Kolinsky fur. She wore a small blue hat.

After an eastern honeymoon trip they will return to Omaha just before Thanksgiving day. They will be at home after January 1 at 426 South Forty-first street.

Heart Beats

A demon stalks the land— From Orient To Occident And spreads his vicious Handiwork Blackmailing— Sending souls to hell— For his own gain— The Profiteer. And where he goes Vile members of his gang Are stationed To perpetuate Or stealing work Grinding to the ditch His weaker victims. Bad debts with him Are never paid— Scores are never settled Where his reign Is recognized. Receipts For bills collected Become void At his dictation— You pay and pay And pay When in his debt. A merciless Collector is this World-notorious Ruler Who leaves Death and destruction In his wake. No living profiteer Can quite excel him— His cruelty Makes petty thieves Look feeble minded. This Highwayman— Robber in disguise— Burglar— Thief— Destroyer of the best In human kind— A king of beasts— This mighty Profiteer. He asks the most And gives the least In all his bargainings— Nor does he need excuse For God's laws broken Nay— Not the gouging landlord Or the grocery man— The millman Or the druggist Up the street— These are but his agents— His whining underlings— The hangers-on. The king in enemy To health and Heaven— The vilest profiteer In our land— His name is SIN.

Passing Show Actors to Dance With Pretty Omaha Girls.

Although Omaha men are quite elated at dancing with the Winter Garden Beauties, Thursday evening, at the ball, let Omaha girls take notice! Thirty, good looking, entertaining, and interesting men of the cast will be on hand during the evening to be admired and to dance with Omaha girls. For a time things looked as though only the men were to have a good time at the ball for the fatherless children of France. However if husband or escort becomes inattentive, remember that there are others, and men of the Passing Show/are every bit as good dancers as the girls.

Mrs. Barton Millard has appointed a committee of women who will make the introductions on that evening. They will be Mesdames Fritz Bucholz, Paul Gallagher, O. T. Eastman, W. D. Hosford, Louis Clark, John Redick and Joseph Barker.

Miss May Robson, who will be appearing in "Tish" at the Brandeis that evening, will also attend the affair. She will be the guest of Mr. E. L. Bloom, director of the Passing Show.

There is a decided rush for tickets both at the Boyd and the Fontenelle.

Westminster Church.

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Burns Up Completely

You don't enjoy grinding the valves and scraping carbon off pistons and cylinders.

It is a dirty job that nobody likes.

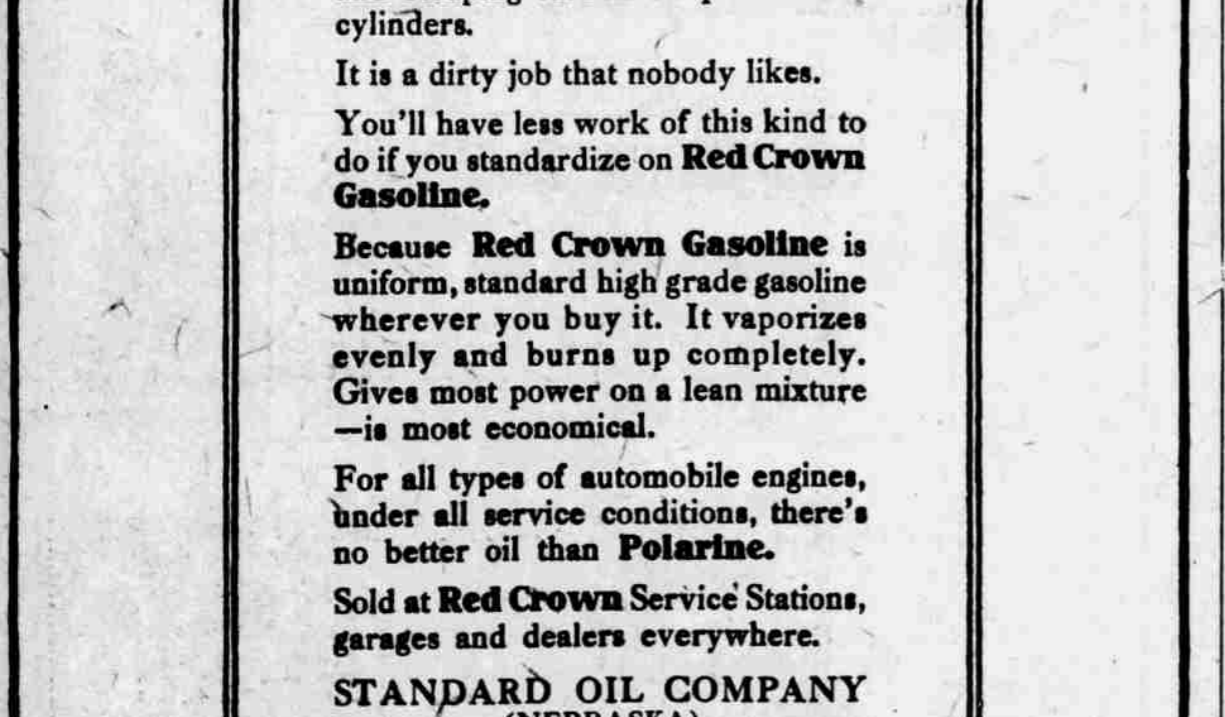

You'll have less work of this kind to do if you standardize on Red Crown Gasoline.

Because Red Crown Gasoline is uniform, standard high grade gasoline wherever you buy it. It vaporizes evenly and burns up completely. Gives most power on a lean mixture —is most economical.

For all types of automobile engines, under all service conditions, there's no better oil than Polarine.

Sold at Red Crown Service Stations, garages and dealers everywhere.

Noted Italian Beauty

Bride of Herbert Goelet.

Mrs. Farnanda Riabouchinsky, noted Italian beauty and former wife of Nicholas Riabouchinsky, Russian diplomat, has become the bride of Capt. Robert Goelet of New York, according to a report from Paris. Captain Goelet, who is 40 years old and the son of the late millionaire Ogden Goelet, fought with the Eighty-second and Seventy-seventh divisions in the Aisne-Oise and Meuse-Argonne offensives. The new Mrs. Goelet is 24 years old and is an accomplished musician and linguist. She met her present husband while she was doing Red Cross work in France.

Mrs. Hugh Carpenter left Tuesday for Los Angeles, where she will spend several weeks.

French Club.

The French club will meet Thursday, October 30, at 10 a. m., at the home of Mrs. A. D. Chapman. The club was known as Carter Lake club, Red Cross unit, during the war. Twenty members of the group have decided to continue the organization as the French club. They have adopted and are caring for a French war orphan to whom a Christmas box of clothing and sweets was recently sent. The French club is now sewing for the Child Saving Institute and other relief work is planned. Mrs. A. D. Chapman is chairman and Mrs. Glenn Pettegrew, secretary-treasurer.
