

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR AK-SAR-BEN OVER $400,000

Stock In Exposition Company Sells Above Par—Expect to Raise Whole Million Soon.

Stock in the Ak-Sar-Ben Exposition company yesterday sold at $5 above par, it was announced at the noonday meeting at the Hotel Fontelle of the committees which are working in the drive for funds. Several shares of stock were sold to the Noyes pharmacy, Fortieth and Farnam streets, at $105 a share, by C. C. Buchanan of the Warfield Advertising agency. The extra $5 will be used for publicity work.

The total amount subscribed had reached $408,000 at noon yesterday and workers expect to raise the entire amount, $1,000,000, in a short time.

Seventeen Awarded Knives Up to date 17 men have been awarded gold knives, furnished by Randall K. Brown, to the first 50 men who bring in five or more unexpired subscriptions totaling more than $700. As practically every prospect has been carded, the winning of the "king's gift" is considered difficult.

Besides the four men who were awarded knives Tuesday the following are now entitled to the prize: William E. Stockham, Clarence B. Adair, Harold Marsh, Frank Drexel, James A. Flynn, Thomas A. Boyle, Larry G. Hunt, Thomas F. Englis, James Corry, T. F. Easterly, Frank Myers, C. J. Shaw and William C. Bruyn.

Restaurants Swell Fund. Large contributions from unexpected sources were announced at the meeting yesterday. The Monarch cafe, a colored restaurant at 107 South Fourteenth street, contributed $400; Louie Akko, Chinese restaurant man, contributed $1,000; Emil Leaf, proprietor of a small lunch stand at 501 South Thirteenth street, contributed $500, and more than a dozen other small restaurants have subscribed to the fund.

Barge Wrecked; Nine Lost. Sudus, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Four bodies from the wreck of the steam coal barge Homer Warren of Toronto, which foundered off Pullenville in the heavy gale Tuesday, have been washed ashore. The barge was commanded by Capt. William Stalker, with a crew of eight, all of whom were lost.

ROTARIANS HOLD ANNUAL FROLIC AT HAPPY HOLLOW

Hallow'en Dance and Entertainment Enjoyed by Club in Festive Attire.

With the Happy Hollow club decorated with cornstalks, lanterns, pumpkins and other Hallow'en decorations, over 100 members of the Rotary club and their wives enjoyed an evening of fun and frolic last night at the annual Hallow'en party of the club.

Everybody was supplied with paper caps, horns and hand squawkers and the evening was spent in dancing, guessing contests, fortune telling, the favorite Hallow'en game of attempting to hit apples hanging in the air on pieces of string, and other games suitable for the occasion.

O. S. Goodrich, president of the club, won the men's prize for obtaining the largest number of signatures of acquaintances attending the party. He was given a fountain pen.

Miss Margaret Blackwell, niece of Warren S. Blackwell, won the ladies' prize, a large cut glass dish full of candy.

The fortune telling of "Professor Hindi" from India was the main attraction, and a large part of the crowd surrounded his booth.

Women members of the party were particularly interested when they were told that the professor was one of the world's greatest fortune tellers and could tell anything about the past, present and future.

Dancing was the main attraction, and the orchestra was made up in regular Hallow'en costumes and played old-time music the greater part of the evening. A light lunch was served at the close of the festivities.

Dr. H. Akin, chairman of the October group of the Rotary club, was in charge of the party. Other members of the committee were: Dr. W. K. Foote, Stephen Tronk, Allen Drescher and P. M. Broomer.

Wartime Romance Ends As Husband Brings Suit for Divorce

Herbert Mesropian, an Omaha medical student, heard the call of war and joined the army in 1917. While stationed in Illinois, he married on April 19, 1918, at La Harpe, Ill.

In June, 1918, he went overseas as a first lieutenant of field artillery. He and his bride looked forward to the time when he would come back. He returned in August, 1919. But the wife whom he had left behind had ceased to care for him, he alleges in a petition for divorce filed yesterday in district court.

She had been associating with others during his absence, he alleges, although she had received and used $1,200 of his pay, which he sent her in that time, according to his petition.

There is a child, now 11 months old, and Mr. Mesropian says he wants his wife to have custody of it because of its infancy.

Omaha Police On Lookout for Julian (Neb.) Bank Robbers

Omaha police are combing railroad tracks and public highways for the Julian, Neb. bank robbers. A report from the sheriff of Nebraska county stated that the thieves headed for Omaha in an automobile.

Descriptions of the yeggmen were not obtained, other than they wore dark clothes and escaped by automobile.

The robbers obtained at least $25,000 in liberty bonds, according to figures given out, and the loss may run as high as $50,000, exact figures being withheld by owners of securities stolen.

Driverless Automobile Crashes Through Window

An automobile owned by Mrs. T. Feldman, 4815 Davenport street, parked on Farnam street near Fifteenth street, slowly coasted backwards down the street and crashed through the show window at the Nebraska Clothing company last night. The damage is estimated at $2,000. Mrs. Feldman was arrested and charged with violating traffic rules.

"PIGS IS PIGS," believes R. Cecil Smith of the Selznick scenario staff, who was called from the western coast to the eastern studios a few days ago.

A year ago when the government requested everyone to raise a pig to reduce the high cost of living, Mr. Smith fell in line and bought his pig. His order to return east to do with his pig. He wanted his bacon—he wanted it badly, and he had it, but how to keep it was the question. The Pullman company wouldn't let him take it with him, and there wasn't enough of it to fill a stock car. Finally he figured the price of bacon east and west, then expressed it, and now to "break even" he has to raise more bacon.

Moon—Bessie Barriscale gives another proof of her versatility as "Kitty Kelly, M. D.," the photo-picture now being shown at the Moon Theater. Heretofore Miss Barriscale has specialized in society dramas, but in "Kitty Kelly, M. D.," she assumes the role of a woman doctor in a western mining town, and the change is decidedly refreshing. Upon her entrance in the town a young mining foreman becomes afflicted with an acute case of heart trouble while the miners in general fall heir to numerous other complaints, keeping Kitty busy dispensing pills and Bevo. Miss Barriscale scintillates in her inimitable way in the humorous episodes, and rises to great dramatic heights in the dramatic moments. The picture will be shown up to and including Saturday.

Rialto—An unusually striking scene is shown in the photoplay, "Back to God's Country," which is having a big run at the Rialto theater. It is a scene in the deep forest of a big tree with numerous other complaints, keeping Kitty busy dispensing pills and Bevo. Miss Barriscale scintillates in her inimitable way in the humorous episodes, and rises to great dramatic heights in the dramatic moments. The picture will be shown up to and including Saturday.

Muse—If there be any doubt as to the easiness in which one can make money, then you are entitled to occupy a front seat at the Muse theater today, and watch Bert Lytell, who takes the leading part in that decidedly humorous photodrama, "Easy to Make Money." It will be shown for the last time today.

AT THE THEATERS

STORIES upon which "Tish," which will be presented at the Brandeis for three days, beginning tonight, with a matinee on Saturday, is founded appeared under the same name in the Saturday Evening Post and are still fresh in the minds of readers to whom the three old maids, around whose personalities the play has been built, are familiar characters. "Tish," with a lust of adventure which is never entirely satisfied, is always landing plumb into the middle of some excitement or other. She leads Aggie and Lizzie through a maze of strange happenings, which, taken alone and unabetted would pass up in holy awe and horror.

A mixed quartet of stars of the operatic stage are the Giuliani Four, who will provide one of the featured acts of the new bill opening at the Empress today. Their program will include both classical and popular music. Another featured act will be the comedy playlet, "Save," from the pen of Grace Bryan, to be offered by Minnie Stanley and her company of players. Adams & Hickey, two charming young ladies, will appear in a singing and piano act. A distinct feature of the bill is the appearance of Delmar's Lions, who give a splendid exposition of animal training.

A special overflow matinee performance will be given at the Boyd this afternoon by the Winter Garden company, which is offering "The Passing Show of 1918," to the delight of all the people the house will hold at each opening. The big company, headed by Willie and Eugene Howard, with its long list of clever comedians, singers and dancers and its honest-to-goodness Broadway beauty chorus, is making a record for itself and the house this week.

Beverly Bayne and Francis X. Bushman will act right out on the stage at the Boyd next week, starting Sunday night, in "The Master Thief," which is a mystery drama of the kind they have made themselves well known to the public on the screen, and has been specially selected for their uses in becoming better acquainted with their thousands of admirers through presentation of a spoken drama.

T. Roy Barnes, the laughing hit of the show this week at the Orpheum, with Bessie Crawford is presenting "A Package of Smiles," Emma Haig and Jack Waldron present their original conception of song and dance, "Heartland," a symbolic playlet, charmingly done, is offered by J. K. Emmet and Mary E. Ryan. "The Current of Fun," is an electrical act which is both mystifying and amusing. These are but a few of the features in the bill that is proving extremely attractive to patrons of big time vaudeville. It is announced that next week Gus Edward himself will appear at the head of his own company in a song revue at the Orpheum.

Reference is made to the Gayety theater where "Slitkin & Slotkin, Refined Lawyers," in the persuasive personages of Watson & Cohen are appearing with Barney Gerard's "Girls de Loks." The production is staged and costumed in the usual Gerard manner, which means there is nothing overlooked or to be desired. Ladies' dime matinee at 2:15 daily all week.

While were one to characterize the Marcus show "Oh Baby" in one word, that word would no doubt be "girls"—thinking of the peach chorus—there are a hundred and one features that make the show a never-ending kaleidoscope of diversity. None of these afford more real delight than the vocal efforts of Billy Dale. "Oh Baby" will play at the Brandeis from November 2 to 6, inclusive.

Walter Willis and Roy Binder in Charles Dillingham's production of "Chin Chin," which opens at the Brandeis on Friday, November 7, have won recognition as dancers and comedians of exceptional ability.

RED TERROR PLOT IS UNCOVERED BY ARREST OF EIGHT

Assassination of High Officials of Cleveland Planned in Country-Wide Anarchistic Uprising.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 29.—A plot to assassinate Chief of Police Frank W. Smith and another high city official of Cleveland was revealed by police, following the roundup of six men and one woman here, alleged to be directly involved in a conspiracy to spread terror throughout the country by another series of bomb explosions.

Chief Smith declared that evidence already obtained revealed a plot for a country-wide anarchistic uprising during the winter and early spring. Proof has been obtained, he said, that arms and ammunition were ordered from various makers and that home-made weapons were being prepared here in large quantities.

Another arrest was made in New York, bringing the total up to eight. According to police, membership cards in radical organizations were found among his effects.

Five of the six persons taken in four raids were given preliminary hearings. Theodore Lowear, an electrician; Steve Matejka, a machinist, and the latter's wife, were held in bail of $15,000. The others, one of whom is still held for investigation, were placed under $1,500 bail. The trial was set for October 31.

REV. EDWIN JENKS ENTERTAINED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Completes Twenty Years Service as Pastor of Omaha Church.

Two hundred members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church attended a reception last night in honor of their pastor, Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks, celebrating the culmination of his 20 years of service in Omaha. He came here from California.

Mrs. Louise Zabriskie, organist at the church, gave several selections on the pipe organ. M. L. Loomis, in a brief speech, told of the appreciation and gratitude which the members of the church held for Dr. Jenks. He spoke of the pastor's loyalty to those who were sick and in distress, and his ever readiness to be of help to those who needed him in time of difficulty.

Your voice has always rung true. Love, truth and sincerity has been your motto in all your 20 years of service to this church and its congregation," he said.

Mr. Loomis presented Dr. Jenks and his wife with a check for $500 from the congregation, as a gift of appreciation for his services to them.

Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the reception.

Face Peeling Easy—Blonde or Brunette

"The blonde complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Mme. Lina Cavallieri. "The brunette, as a rule, is the reverse. The skin is thicker and has a tendency to an oily appearance."

For either the faded blonde's skin or the brunette's oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is only one—mercerized soap every night, this will give one an entirely new complexion within about a week. This was gradually peeled off the worn-out surface skin, with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate under-skin in the least. The latter will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may readily lose ten or fifteen years from her age, so far as appearance goes, by a course of this simple treatment. The wax, procurable at any drug store, is applied like cold cream.
