

FEAR NEBRASKA GRID MEN WILL GO STALE FOR IOWA

Coaches Schulte and Schissler Curtail Outdoor Work In Favor of Indoor "Skull" Practice.

Lincoln, Nov. 1.—(Special.)—"Do or die" is the maxim applied to the University of Nebraska football team by the sports editor of The Daily Nebraskan, the university "rag," as it faces its fifth game of the season and the opening game in the Missouri Valley conference with the Iowa State School of Agriculture, tomorrow afternoon.

The squad fairly reverberates with "pep." Coaches Schulte and Schissler held practice indoors, Thursday afternoon, fearing that a continuance of the smashing scrimmages that have marked the progress of the varsity teams during the week might cause the first eleven to go "stale."

Using the new formations, with Hubka tackle at fullback and Lyman, tackle, at halfback, the Cornhuskers are expected to pile up considerable score against Ames Saturday. Coach Schulte had built up a practically new offensive, paying particular heed to the "punch" that the team can assert when within striking distance of the enemy goal line.

What changes in line-up are to go into effect in Saturday's game have not been announced. Coach Schulte preferred to reserve the "shock" until the last minute. Local backers are confident that the Husker mentor has in store a batch of scientific "battle" energy that will mean a big score. The Ames game, it is said, is really the weakest on the Husker schedule.

Dope from the Hawkeye village places things in a different light. Assistant Coach Schissler, who scouted the Ames-Kansas game at Ames last Saturday when the Agriculturalists held the Jayhawks to a 0 to 0 tie says they are considerable team. Reports from the Iowa stronghold indicate that the Aggies are going to make a fight.

During scrimmages this week Schulte has been using Jobs, Hubka and Lyman in the backfield frequently. Newman has been piloting the team at quarter. Dana, substitute end has played in Swanson's end while Young and Wilder have alternated with Pucelik and Wade Dunn at guards. Bogue has also played at Day's center.

It is conjectured however, that the Nebraska mentor will start his veteran combination. This is: Swanson and Kellogg, ends; Hubka and Lyman, tackles; W. Munn and Pucelik, guards; Day, center; McGlasson, quarter; Wright or Dale at fullback; and Captain Dobson and Schellenberg at halfbacks. Newman may be used at quarter.

Monte Munn, the giant guard, and Dale, heavy fullback, injured in the Notre Dame game, may be used during the play. The Huskers are gauged to start their avalanche right from the kickoff and if successful this will permit the Nebraska coach to use the limit of his available material.

In Lincoln, it is merely a question of how large the score will be. The Huskers, it is said, are playing a game that should have opened the season and with a mediocre record at their backs, will tear into the helpless Iowans with vicious impatience. On the result of tomorrow's game will be obtained the first real glimmering of Nebraska's worth as a contender for the unofficial Missouri Valley title.

Midland Wins First Game of Season, 20-7, Against Doane Team

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Midland defeated Doane here Friday, 20 to 7. Midland scored a touchdown during the first three minutes of play and kicked goal. The stunt was repeated in the third quarter when Nixon recovered a fumble on Doane's 35-yard line and raced across the goal line. The third touchdown was made in the second quarter on a 30-yard run by Elliott and a line back. Doane's only touchdown was made in the third quarter when a punt was intercepted on Midland's 10-yard line and a Doane player recovered the ball back of the line. Midland kicked goal. This was the first game Midland has won this season. The line-up:

Midland	Position	Doane	Main

Great Athletic Carnival At Council Bluffs Tonight

Al Fiori's Effort to Make Boxing One of the Sports in The Bluffs Programs, Initiated This Evening. When Billy Uvick and Harry Williams Meet in a Four-Round Bout, in Conjunction With Two Star Mat Matches.

Promoter Al Fiori will make his greatest effort in tonight's show at Council Bluffs, when he will attempt to bring the boxing game into popular favor. Together with two star wrestling matches, Fiori will stage a four-round boxing bout, between the very best pair of men in this section of the country. Harry Williams, one of the most prominent scrappers among the new crop of heavyweight boxers, will tangle with Billy Uvick, who was for years, considered one of the leading middleweights, but who is now a heavy of some class.

While this boxing match would probably be attraction enough to draw a fair sized house, Fiori thought it was such a short bout that some other entertainment should be offered, and as he is only permitted to stage one boxing bout until the city council decides that boxing is O. K. for the Bluffs athletic shows, Al decided to put on a pair of star events. Tom Ray, probably the best middleweight title contender in this section will go to a one-fall finish with Charles Mortenson, "The Terrible Dane." Mortenson, top contender for the middleweight championship, and will make every effort to throw Ray, to clinch a bout for the title.

The final event shows that Fiori is sincere in his desire to have an all-star card. Charley Peters, the Saggy county sheriff, will meet Charles Hansen in a finish match, best two falls out of three. This pair of heavyweights have been trying to get together for a long time and each man declares himself in shape to put up the match of his young life. Each believes that if given the chance against the leading lights of the heavyweight mat world that he would make his mark sufficiently brilliant to command the attention of the champion. Fiori has promised to try and arrange a match for the winner with John Pesek, the Shelton, Neb., phenom.

Tickets for the show have been on sale in Council Bluffs and Omaha for the last three days. The Cohen Bros. cigar store, next door east of the Merchants hotel, has the tickets on sale, as has Ernie Holmes in his Securities building billiard parlors. The pasteboards are also on sale at the bar of the South Side Stock exchange.

INDIANS ARRIVE IN OMAHA READY FOR CREIGHTON

Blue and White Eleven Free From Cripples — Haskell Has Strong Team This Year.

Haskell Indians arrived in Omaha last night ready to tangle with Tommy Mills' Creighton team this afternoon on Creighton campus. The Indians are said to have brought the fastest eleven they have had in five years. Several old-time stars, among them Artichoke, halfback, noted for his punting and open field running, are said to be back in the Haskell lineup this year. No news is forthcoming from Lawrence, Kan., the home of the Indians, however, and Creighton has but the Indians' record to gauge their ability by.

Creighton will greet the Indians with every player in condition to play, a rare condition at Creighton this year. Johnnie Driscoll and Cy Lynch, backfieldmen, who were injured in the South Dakota game were, pronounced last night by Dr. Emmett McMahon to be in excellent trim. Driscoll played quarterback last night in the absence of Cliff Long and "Mickey" Harmon. Long has a charley-horse and Harmon ton-sillitis, but both will be able to play against the Indians, according to Dr. McMahon.

Mark Cavanaugh, guard, who had blood poison in his foot recently, is also prepared to enter the conflict with the Indians. Tickets for the game are on sale at Beaton's drug store.

School of Commerce Team Goes to Play Harlan, Ia., Today

The High School of Commerce football squad went through final practice yesterday in preparation for the contest with Harlan, Ia., this afternoon. The men left this morning at 7:30. About 35 students of the school accompanied the players. Coach Drummond only left two of the first squad men at home. They were Emil Rokusek, who has a fractured ankle, and "Red" McNaught, who cracked his collar bone practicing Wednesday.

Three Big Games Are Scheduled on Fields Of Western Colleges

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Two of the three undefeated eleven in the race for the Western conference football championship will be put to severe tests Saturday when Chicago gives battle to Illinois at Urbana and Wisconsin faces Minnesota at Madison. Neither Chicago nor Wisconsin has been beaten. Ohio State, the third undefeated aggregation, will be idle tomorrow. The games will usher in the second and final month of the season. While interest in the contests will center about the games at Urbana and Madison, some keen competition is promised in the conference game between Northwestern and Michigan at Ann Arbor, the Iowa-South Dakota combat at Iowa City and Notre Dame-Indiana clash at Indianapolis and the game between Purdue and the Michigan Aggies at Lafayette. Despite its defeat last Saturday by Wisconsin, Illinois is confident of "coming back" against Chicago, although the Maroons will enter the game a strong favorite. Reports from Madison favor Wisconsin to be returned the winner of Minnesota. Iowa virtually eliminated Minnesota from the "big ten" race a week ago. Northwestern, with the return of its stars, to the game, is expected to hold Michigan to a low score. The powerful Notre Dame eleven is favored to triumph over Indiana, while Purdue is expected to down the Michigan Aggies. Iowa expects to have no trouble in bagging a victory from South Dakota. York Is Downed by Beatrice, Score 9-0; Three Cities Tied Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—In one of the hardest-fought and roughest football games played on the local gridiron this season, Beatrice shut out York Friday, by the score of 9 to 0. In the first quarter Bloodgood made a drop kick and in the fourth quarter Burgess made a touchdown. Reysbeck, York all-star tackle, was outplayed by Ellis of Beatrice. A number were injured in the game and substitutes were called in.

Central High Goes In to Win Against Sioux City Today The Central High school football team finished a week of hard practice Friday in preparation for the battle with Sioux City High school at the Iowa's field this afternoon. The Central squad has been reorganized. Howard Turner, who was hurt in the game with North Des Moines, will be out of today's game on account of his injuries.
