

GRIDIRON TITLE WON BY YORK IN EASY FASHION

Wesleyan Loses Nebraska Championship When Light Line Crumbles Under Heavy Attack.

York, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram).—A smashing offensive, backed by a weightier line and the breaks in the luck, gave York the coveted collegiate football title in its annual tilt with Nebraska Wesleyan here Friday by the decisive score of 20 to 0.

It was nip and tuck from the first blast of the referee's whistle. Through the first quarter both teams fought on even terms, playing excellent foot ball, but neither asserting any great superiority on the offensive. Punts were exchanged frequently, the Methodists having the odds in kicking.

At the opening of the second quarter, the home team launched a powerful attack on the lighter line of the visitors and a few minutes later crossed the goal line. Zimmerman, stellar fullback for the home lads, went over for a touchdown on a line buck through right tackle. Score York 6, Wesleyan 0.

Second Half.

In the third quarter, receiving the ball far in their own territory, the York backs, Panek and Zimmerman, essayed at considerable terrific line plunging. The net of the matter was that the ball was very soon on the Wesleyan 1-yard line. A penalty of 15 yards for holding was

No Acute Coal Shortage Is Feared Here, Say Dealers; Railroads Are Confident

Stocks on Hand Sufficient to Last Public a Month, Is Report—Corporations Have Reserves—City and Gas Co. Supplied For Four Months and Car Co. For Six Weeks.

Omaha will experience no acute coal shortage as a result of the strike in the opinion of a majority of the local fuel dealers.

Sufficient coal is on hand to last the public at least a month, and public service corporations are also well supplied, dealers say.

"The public has no cause for alarm," declared Randall K. Brown, of the Coal Hill Coal company. "I believe dealers have enough coal on hand to supply the homes of the city for more than a month, if necessary, and I don't believe the strike will last that long."

"The large corporations of the city have big supplies of coal, and while a few small plants and office buildings, which lack storing capacity may run out, I don't believe the business of the city will be seriously affected."

S. S. Caldwell, who handles the wholesale sales of that company, declared that large plants were well stocked up with steam coal. Plants using slack coal may be affected, because storing of slack coal is unsafe.

"This will be a blow to the railroads, of course, because nearly every line uses slack coal," he said.

Ten other local coal men declared that there was no occasion for alarm. Some took an even more optimistic view that the heads of the Coal Hill Coal company, asserting that there would be no coal famine even if the strike lasted until spring.

In spite of this optimism, however, companies are making efforts to conserve the supply which they have on hand. The Sunderland company and the Union Fuel company have stopped taking orders for the present.

No Raise in Price.

Other concerns are discounting orders for coal from 25 to 80 per cent. Retail dealers say there will be no raise in price, but efforts must be made to prevent hoarding in the private homes.

In anticipation of the strike public service corporations have been augmenting their supply of coal for some time, it is reported.

The packing concerns have a two months' supply, according to officials.

R. C. Howe, general manager of the Armour Packing Co., concurred with this statement. "We can run for a long time," he said. "We have enough coal to run for six weeks," said R. A. Leussler, general manager of the street railway company. "After that we will have to stop running cars if the strike is not settled."

J. E. Davidson of the Nebraska Power Co. declared that that company had coal enough to last for a month, or approximately 1,200 tons.

Gas Company and City.

W. H. Taylor of the gas company says his company has a supply on hand that would enable them to run four months without a shipment of coal or coke. They have been carrying an abnormal supply of coal for a year, he says.

R. B. Howell of the Metropolitan Water district asserted that enough coal was stored to pump water to the entire city for six months.

Railroad officials are taking a more optimistic view of the situation, and call attention to the efforts which the government is making to furnish fuel in spite of the strike. Railroads are included on the probable list which the government will attempt to supply.

"Although our present supply of coal would not last us more than 10 days, I believe the government will see to it that we are not entirely forced to stop running," said H. J. Plumhof, assistant to the federal manager of the Union Pacific railroad.

The Northwestern railroad, which uses oil burning engines on a part of its system, will be the least affected of the lines tributary to Omaha, it was said.

Divorce Courts

After 24 years of married life, Charles Hudson accused his wife, Alice, of unfaithfulness, she alleges in a petition for divorce filed in district court. They live at 2615 South Fifteenth street.

Anna Palmer charges that her husband, John, abused her and compelled her to work for a living. She asked the district court for a divorce and the custody of their three children. They were married in Toledo, Ia., in 1907.

Jesse Quackenbush stayed out with other women sometimes until 2:30 o'clock in the morning, his wife, Hilda, charges in a suit for divorce filed in district court. She says he threatened to strike her. She asks the custody of their two children.

Frank Pape asked the district court to annul his marriage to Gladys Pape, alleging that it was contracted through deception. He asks for the annulment on the ground that he married his present wife just two months after his first wife was granted a divorce from him, May 16, 1919, whereas the state law does not permit marriage in less than six months after a divorce has been granted. He was granted a restraining order to keep his wife from molesting him.

Viola McFadden, on charges of nonsupport, was given a divorce from Pierre McFadden and restored to her maiden name, Erlwine, by Judge Troup in divorce court.

Leo Burke was ordered by Judge Troup in divorce court to pay his wife, Rose, $8 a week for the support of their child. Mrs. Burke was given a divorce on the ground of cruelty and awarded custody of the child.

Judge Troup, in divorce court, granted the following divorces: Anna Skokan from Charles on the ground of extreme cruelty; Ida Bennett from Albert on charges of cruelty; Robert David from Estella on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Where Can I Find Relief from Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

This Question Is Ever on the Lips of the Afflicted.

Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas, and other terrifying conditions of the skin are deep-seated blood troubles, and applications of salves, lotions and washes can only afford temporary relief, without reaching the real seat of the trouble. But just because local treatment has done you no good, there is no reason to despair. You simply have not sought the proper treatment, that is within your reach.

You have the experience of others who have suffered as you have to guide you to relief. No matter how terrifying the irritation, no matter how unbearable the itching and burning of the skin, S. S. S. will promptly reach the seat of the trouble. Give it a fair trial to be convinced of its efficacy.

RED CROSS Membership Campaign Starts Monday

Next Monday morning, November 3, more than a thousand Omaha women will start a house-to-house canvass for RED CROSS memberships.

RED CROSS girls will be stationed in every hotel, club and theater downtown to accept memberships.

The membership fee is $1.00, which entitles you to a card and a button showing that you are a 1920 RED CROSS member. You also get a sticker for your window.

Omaha's quota is 50,000 members.

In addition to the campaign for members, Omaha's quota for funds is $90,000 cash. This is being solicited through letters sent to business and professional men. Only those men will be called on who do not respond to the letter.

HOW THE MONEY IS SPENT.

The RED CROSS needs money for these things:

- A Possible Influenza Epidemic.
- The Tuberculosis Plague.
- An Omaha Base Hospital.
- Disasters from Flood, Fire or Storm.
- To Take Care of Soldiers' Needy Families.
- To Bring Disabled Soldiers Back to Health.

Mr. Business Man, look for the letter asking for a cash subscription. A prompt response will save your time and ours, and we'll appreciate it.

Mrs. Housewife, and Mr. Man whom we miss with the letter, get you dollar ready, and more if you can.

The campaign lasts from November 2 to November 11. But let's get the job done early in the week. With everybody's help we can.

Omaha has never failed. It shall not now. We're going across big, so let's all go together.

Yours for Humanity
