And this our life, exempt from public haunt, Finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, Sermons in stones, and good in everything. —Shakespeare

SOCIETY

Berges-Moates.
The marriage of Miss Emmie Berges of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Mr. Guy Moates of Lincoln, took place Saturday evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Titus Lowe read the marriage lines. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carter were the only attendants. Immediately after the ceremony, supper for the bridal party was served at the Hinshaw hotel. Mr. Moates is a freshman at the University College of Medicine here. He was two years in the service and met his bride in Virginia where she served as Red Cross nurse. He is a member of the Iron Sphinx, an honorary organization at the University of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Moates will make their home at 311 North Twenty-first street.

Engagement Announced.
Mrs. Mary A. Good announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Marie, to Mr. Bernard L. Nestlebusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nestlebusch. The wedding will take place November 19 at the Sacred Heart church. Rev. P. J. Judge will read the marriage lines. Miss Helen Moore will be bridesmaid and Mr. John Lacey will act as best man. Bernice Nestlebusch and Patricia Scanlon will act as flower girls and will carry the ring.

For Miss Michener.
Miss Alma Michener and her fiancé, Mr. Gale McAlpine of Council Bluffs were honor guests at a party given at the dinner dance at the Athletic club, Saturday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Birss. Russell roses arranged with ferns formed a most attractive centerpiece. Covers were also placed for Messrs. an Mesdames Joseph Michener, parents of Miss Michener, George Chrissman, Mrs. Sadie Mayer, Miss Edna Birss, and Mr. Alfred Mayer. The marriage of Miss Michener and Mr. McAlpine will take place November 11. Mrs. Chrissman will be matron of honor and Miss Birss will be bridesmaid at the wedding.

St. Francis Alumnae.
The St. Francis Alumnae association, of which Mrs. John Mullen is president, will meet Monday evening at social service rooms of the St. Francis academy. Miss Addie K. Gannon of Davenport, Ia., will deliver the first of a series of lectures on parliamentary law, which course will be studied by the association for the year. Miss Gannon is the governor of the National Federation of Catholic Alumnae Associations. Mrs. Mullen and Miss Elizabeth Morris of Council Bluffs are in charge of the lectures.

Anniversary.
Mrs. Frank H. Ogle will entertain at her home, Sunday, in honor of the 56th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are Nebraska pioneers, having come here in 1870.

Hallowe'en Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker entertained at dinner at their home Friday evening when decorations were suggestive of Hallowe'en. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Judson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess, Mrs. F. A. Nash, Judge W. A. Redick and Mr. Charles Hull.

Omaha Peru Club.
The annual Peru reception and dinner for all Peruvians and friends will be held Thursday, November 5, at the Blackstone hotel during the State Teachers' association. At 4:30 o'clock there will be a "get-to-

President Fine Arts

Among the most prominent women in club and social activities in our city is Mrs. Ward Burgess, under whose capable presidency the Omaha Society of Fine Arts will be conducted this year. The first meeting of the season will take place on Saturday afternoon November 8, at 3:45 in the Hotel Fontenelle ball room, when Mr. James M. Beck will lecture on "The Crisis," pertaining to the constitutional crisis caused by the recent war.

Mrs. Burgess is interested in all of the best things that come to Omaha and the Omaha Society of Fine Arts and its work are matters of supreme importance to her. "The Omaha Society of Fine Arts is working along civic lines," said Mrs. Burgess. "We try to bring the best exhibits of art available to Omaha, in order that the people here may see what is being done in the field of art by noted foreign and American painters. Our lectures are along civic lines too. Famous speakers, who have won their fame, are engaged to lecture along civic or artistic lines, and our constant aim is to farther civic advancement by these activities."

The largest exhibit of the year will be held at the Hotel Fontenelle from November 11 to 22, inclusive, and Mrs. Burgess and her committees are busy now arranging for the event.

Bazar of the Churches.
All of the church societies wishing to hold a bazar in the court house during December, should send a member to draw for dates and space Tuesday, November 4, at 2:30 o'clock to room 316 Y. M. C. A.
