TO LEARN WHAT CHILDREN WANT

Meets Them at Burgess-Nash Store—Returns to Snowland Loaded Down With "Wants."

Santa Clause visited and shook hands with over a half a thousand interested kiddies at the Burgessinterested kiddies at the Burgess-Nash store yesterday and went away fairly burdened with Christmas requests. Owing to the fact that it is early in the year and the snow scarce, Santa arrived by airplane, reaching Ak-Sar-Ben landing field at an early hour. Then, too, Lightfoot was very lame, as he alipped through the Alaska ice and cut his leg quite severely. Santa felt very bad about Lightfoot being hur, but told the little boys and girls that a doctor who knew all about reindeers was taking good care of all of them, so the team would be ready to come to Omaha on Christmas.

Mas.

All day Jong the uvenile department was crowded with children who came to tell Santa their wants. He remarked frequently that he would stay here longer, but there were so many little boys who wanted bicycles, and little girls who wanted doils that he would have to hurry home so the workmen could run the factories day and night in order that the little ones would not be disappointed.

Trotzky Urges Reds To Beat Anti-Soviet

London, Nov. 1.—A bolshevik wireless from Moscow received here contains the text of the latest message of Leon Trotzky, the bolshevik minister of war, to the fed forces. It concludes as follows:

"Army men, commanders and commisaries: The soviet governments expects from you the greatest concentration of your forces.

"Onward! Do not give the enemy time to rest. Drive him, strangle him, beat him mercilessly. The hour of rest will come when the offal has been destroyed."

Omaha in Lead.

In all war drives Omaha was one of the first among the cities to go over the top and in the drive that starts Monday it is confidently expected that the city will keep the pace it set during the war.

As in former drives the women of Omaha are going to do most of the work, though they will be ably assisted by the men, hundreds of whom have turned business affairs over to clerks and have enlisted for the campaign, which closes Novem-

The Red Cross women of the city are as well, if not better organized than ever before and are prepared to push Omaha over the top long before the expiration of the cam-paign. They expect to obtain $50,000 in memberships and the balance, $40,000, in larger subscriptions.

Total of $15,000,000. The scope of the campaign is national and Monday morning the work will start in every city, town, hamlet and country precinct in the United States. The aim is to raise a total of $15,000,000.

The campaign is authorized by the National Red Cross and has the approval of the president of the United States, who has designated this as Red Cross Sunday. In every church in the country pastors will urge their congregations to give and give liberally.

Miss Primrose Semon Big Hit at Gayety

George P. (Hot D-o-o-g) Murphy and Primrose Semon with the Burlesque Wonder Show presented "My Wife Won't Let Me," a musical comedietta, at the Gayety theater. The production is 100 per cent burlesque, with real comics, beautiful women an exceptionally well balanced chorus and costumes and scenery above the average.

Miss Semon had a slight advantake in the eyes of the audience for popularity over "Hot Dog" Murphy, one of the real funny men in burlesque. The impersonations and soing numbers of the "peppy" littile Miss Semon brought forth rounds of applause. In a specialty with Frank Martin she was undoubtedly the hit of the performance.

The comedietta is a complete book interspersed with highclass specialties. Murphy as a Swiss tinker becomes entangled in the tinker becomes the tinker becom snares of matrimony and the fun begins. With a running start he keeps the merriment of one situaafter another humming until
