Conference is Called St. Louis, Nov. 2.- A warning that agents of disorganization are infesting the country to cripple production at a time when America needs most of all maximum production is contained in a call sent out by the American mining congress for a national industrial conference to be held here to "work out a business program for the nation." It is proposed that the conference will be held in connection with American mining congress, the national gold conference and the national conference of war minerals producers here November 17 to 21, inclusive. Invitations to the industrial conference were sent to governors of all states, to national officials, and to state and national commercial bodies.
