GRAND JURY TO PROBE POLICE COURT ACTION

Attorney Announces Mistreatment of Stranger in City Will Be Pushed to Limit.

The grand jury will be asked to take up the cases against Police Judge Charles E. Foster, City Prosecutor T. B. Murray and Patrolman O. P. Peterson for sentencing Fred Miller, the young Detroit machinist, to the county jail for 15 days on a trumped-up charge of vagrancy, after the policeman had beaten up the boy, who had committed no crime and who was guilty of no offense.

Miller was thrown in jail overnight following an unprovoked and vicious attack on him by Officer Peterson, not allowed to use the telephone at the police station, arraigned in police court Friday morning, not given an opportunity to defend himself and sentenced to jail on the unsupported word of Officer Peterson.

Had $130 in Cash.
The jail sentence was imposed upon the word of the officer, that the prisoner was a vagrant, despite the fact the boy had not been in Omaha more than an hour when he was arrested and that he had $130 in his pocket, together with letters from his mother showing he had been out of employment only for a few days and was enroute to California to accept a position in that state.

Miller had his tools with him. He also presented a union card showing his dues were paid up. The boy paid Attorney R. H. Bremers $100 of his $130 before he was given his liberty.

Charges will be filed with the city commission against Patrolman Peterson for the part he took in the mistreatment of young Miller and civil actions will be filed against the bondsmen of Judge Foster, Prosecutor Murray and the policeman, according to Anson H. Bigelow, attorney for the machinist union, who has been retained by the labor organization to prosecute the cases.

Miller at Work Here.
Young Miller has obtained work at his trade in this city through the efforts of his union. He will remain here until the affair has been settled.

"This is but a single case among scores and scores of a similar character which daily are disposed of in the same manner in police court by Judge Foster and members of the police department," declared Attorney Bigelow. "Miller is more fortunate than many others in that he is a member of a union which will not stand for these highhanded methods."

The Bremers Case.
In regard to the charge of extortion against Attorney Bremers, Mr. Bigelow declared he did not know yet just what would be done in this matter. Mr. Bremers insists that he has done nothing wrong. "I did nothing in the handling of this case which is either illegal, unjust or unethical," said Mr. Bremers. "The case was handled exactly as are all cases appealed from the police court, where it is necessary to procure an appeal bond for a non-resident."

Mr. Bremers asserted a property holder will not sign a bond of this character without security when he is asked to do so by a stranger. The attorney declared he was holding the $100 to protect the bondsmen.

Commissioner Zimman at Work After Severe Illness
City Commissioner Zimman was at his office for a few hours yesterday, the first time since he was stricken with an attack of ptomaine poisoning 10 days ago. His physician has ordered him to conserve his strength by limiting his work to a few hours per day for an indefinite time.

Will Talk on Concessions of Great Britain to Jews

Dr. Obadiah Grossman, coming directly from the national headquarters of the Zionist Organization of America, in New York, is to deliver an address at the Synagogue Beth Hamadrash Hagadol, Nineteenth and Burt streets, Wednesday evening at 8.

Dr. Grossman brings a special message concerning recent concessions by Great Britain to the Zionist administration commission in Palestine. He will explain the political situation in Turkey, Syria, Mesopotamia and Palestine, and will dwell on the difficulties involved in the recent Turkish treaty.

Another guest will be Dr. I. Warsaw of Waco, Tex., who will be one of the principal speakers. The evening will also be marked by the installation of the recently-elected officers of the Omaha district of the Zionist Organization of America. Rabbi Taxon will deliver an address.

Fire Burns Awning. New Motor Police In Action Sunday Shown by Court Cases

Fire, caused by a lighted cigarette thrown from an upstairs window at 616 South Sixteenth street, totally destroyed an awning in front of the Proctor studio at 2 yesterday afternoon. Firemen were called and saved another awning next door south that had also caught fire.

Twenty persons were given light fines in central police court yesterday on charges of speeding and violating rules of the road. All the arrests of the speeders were made Sunday afternoon. Newly appointed motor police made the majority of the arrests.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Election Today, Tuesday, November 4, 1919

To the Voters of Douglas County:

Since 1875 there has been no more important election in Nebraska than the one called for today, Tuesday, November 4. The voters should take an active interest in this election, and it is the imperative duty of every voter to go to the polls and vote.

The undersigned citizens of Douglas County, impressed with the importance of the selection of delegates to the Constitutional Convention, have made a careful investigation of the merits of the candidates whose names have been filed. Without disparaging any of the other candidates, we unhesitatingly recommend the following:

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. JAMES H. BULLA | 7. WM. C. RAMSEY |
| 2. VACLAV BURESH | 8. CHARLES L. SAUNDERS |
| 3. GEORGE B. DYBALL | 9. CHARLES W. SEARS |
| 4. CHARLES F. McLAUGHLIN | 10. L. J. TE POEL |
| 5. ALFRED C. MUNGER | 11. GEORGE M. TUNISON |
| 6. CARROLL S. RAINBOLT | 12. ISIDOR ZIEGLER |

We believe that if the voters of Douglas County will select the foregoing men out of the thirty candidates, they will have secured a representative and well balanced delegation who will be fair, honest and impartial, and who are well qualified in every way to assist in framing a liberal and progressive constitution without resorting to dangerous experiments, and without abandoning the historic safeguards and limitations which make the bulwark of the American political system.

This endorsement is not made at the request of the candidates.
