

COMMITTEE WILL HANDLE COAL IN OMAHA DISTRICT

Railroads to Receive First Consideration in Distribution—Federal and Public Utilities Next.

A special committee to superintend the distribution of commercial coal held by the railroads, will be appointed in Omaha, according to W. F. Thieoff, assistant to the general manager of the Burlington railroad.

Mr. Thieoff yesterday returned from Chicago where he held a long consultation with federal and corporation railroad officials regarding the disposition of commercial coal and the curtailment of train service during the coal strike.

A committee was appointed by Hale Holden, regional director of the central western region, Monday, Mr. Thieoff says, and the appointment of sub-committees at the larger terminals of the country was advised.

No immediate action will be taken to curtail train service, although it was earnestly discussed at the meeting Monday, according to Mr. Thieoff. Practically all the railroads of the country have taken up the matter of curtailment of trains and have made recommendations regarding it, Mr. Thieoff says.

All commercial coal held by the railroads will be distributed by district or regional coal committees, working under the central coal committee at Washington, the railroads here have been notified.

A complete outline of the plan for distribution was received yesterday by C. E. Childs of the railroad bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. Coal will be given to those who have no reserve supply, according to the plan.

Railroads will receive first preference in the matter of distribution, then army, navy and other departments of the federal government. State and county departments come next on the list, followed by public utilities, retail dealers, manufacturing plants, jobbers and lake and tidewater coal.

POLICE FIND AND HOLD THIRD MAN IN KELLOGG DEATH

John Szewczyk Alleges McKenna Was Driving—Inquest Wednesday Morning.

Detectives yesterday arrested John Szewczyk, 2502 South Twenty-fifth street, for investigation in connection with the automobile accident Sunday afternoon at Deer Park boulevard and Thirtieth street in which Phil Kellogg, live stock commission man, was killed and eight others injured.

Szewczyk was the third occupant of the car in which Kellogg and John McKenna, 4609 South Twenty-fourth street, who was also arrested, were riding, it is charged.

Szewczyk told Detectives Dolan and Hagerman, arresting officers, that McKenna was driving the car at the time of the accident, and was going 52 miles an hour, the detective said, but, say police, McKenna told them at St. Joseph hospital, where he was taken for his injuries, that Kellogg was driving.

County Attorney Shotwell ordered Szewczyk held under $5,000 as an important witness at the coroner's inquest over Kellogg's body at 9 this morning at Brewer's undertaking parlors, Twenty-fourth and M streets.

Szewczyk was preparing to leave Omaha when he was arrested at his home, the detective said. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson, 3020 Webster street, their son, Albert Johnson, 3483 Larimore street, his wife and two children, who were also injured in the accident, Kellogg's car striking an automobile in which they were riding, are recovering from their injuries, is the report from the Johnson home.

Gus Johnson, however, is still in St. Joseph hospital suffering from internal injuries and bruises that are not considered serious, hospital attendants say.

FAKE LIEUTENANT WANTED IN OMAHA FINALLY CAUGHT

Police Here Learn of His Arrest in Eastern City.

A three months' chase by police of principal cities between Chicago, N. Y., and Omaha, after a pseudo army lieutenant, who is said to have stolen three luxurious automobiles in three different cities, wrecked two of them and stopped in the act of driving off with a fourth stolen car, ended in the arrest Saturday night of Louis Morrison in Buffalo, N. Y., according to information received yesterday by Chief of Detectives Dunn.

Morrison was the disguised army lieutenant whom Omaha police wanted in connection with the wrecking of a Stutz car at Twenty-ninth and Farnam streets on the night of October 4, according to police, when two girls and two men, who were in the car with the unidentified "lieutenant," were arrested for investigation. The pseudo lieutenant abandoned the wreck at the time.

The four persons who were arrested and later released were: Helen Pearson, 4707 North Forty-second street; Anna Johnson, 2438 Laurel avenue; Ben Horak, 6720 North Forty-fourth street, and John Proctor, 4707 North Forty-second street.

From advice learned from the Buffalo police, Morrison was uninjured in the accident and confessed that he walked immediately to the Hotel Blackstone and stole a car left standing there, belonging to W. T. Durkin, resident of the hotel.

Two nights later, the pseudo lieutenant was traced to Des Moines, Ia., where he wrecked Durkin's car, and made his getaway in another Stutz car stolen from in front of the Hotel Chamberlain there. He drove direct to his home in Buffalo, according to the report from that city, where he was arrested in the act of taking another car from a downtown street.

It was learned from Buffalo authorities that Morrison wore the uniform of a second lieutenant during his escapades that began with the theft of a Stutz car in his home city three months ago. He will not be brought to Omaha to face a charge of stealing Durkin's car, Omaha police say, as he already has two charges against him in Buffalo, as well as a federal charge of impersonating an officer.

Major Spence Will Assist in Forming Woman's War Legion

Maj. Jeshette Spencer, formerly in charge of the Volunteers of America in Omaha, arrived Monday night from Chicago, where she is now stationed as head of the relief department, having recently returned from overseas.

Major Spencer expects to stay in Omaha during the remainder of the Red Cross drive, and will assist Miss Alice McCormack, who has been active as a motor corps driver. As a secretary of the Volunteers of America, she will attend the Y. M. C. A. international convention at Detroit, November 19 to 23, and will assist in forming a society for women war workers similar to the American Legion for men.

Man Accused by Girl Is Ordered Held for Grand Jury

John Karin, laborer, 4617 Farnam street, was ordered held for the grand jury by County Attorney Shotwell yesterday on a charge of attempted criminal assault. Karin was arrested Monday when he is said to have been held at bay at the point of a revolver by Violet Blackmore, 21 years old, 4617 Farnam street, until police arrived.

KATELMAN AND NEAL APPEAL IS GIVEN HEARING

Men Convicted On Testimony of Notorious Auto Thieves Befriended by Police Want New Trial.

Judge Ben Baker and Attorney A. S. Ritchie, representing Morris Katelman, Omaha business man, and Fletcher Neal, Peru, Neb., farmer, respectively, argued Monday before the supreme court at Lincoln an appeal from the Douglas county court, which last summer sentenced the two men to terms in the penitentiary for stealing automobiles.

Katelman and Neal were accused by the Omaha police of being the "higher-ups" in a gang of car thieves, which for months operated in and about this city, exasperating automobile owners and rendering the local police department ridiculous.

The men were convicted on the testimony of William McKenna and L. S. Jones, who declared they had delivered Szewczyk cars to Katelman and Neal pursuant to an alleged promise of Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein that they would not be punished for their own offenses.

Accused Police Chief.

McKenna and Jones are serving terms in the penitentiary, and Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein are said to be attempting to obtain pardons for the prisoners.

On the eve of their departure for the state prison, McKenna and Jones accused Chief Eberstein of violating his agreement with them. McKenna quoted the police chief as saying he could not carry out his agreement because he was "afraid of the Bee."

Contrary to law and in disregard of all rules and custom, McKenna and Jones were held prisoners at the city jail for months after they were bound over for the district court, when they should have been in the custody of the sheriff. The prisoners were not sent to the county jail until after they had testified against Katelman and Neal. McKenna was humored and indulged by Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein to the extent that he was allowed to go to and from the city jail at his own free will.

McKenna stole several automobiles in the city while he was enjoying the liberty granted him by the commissioner and chief of police, according to the chief's own statement.

Held Illegally In Jail.

Jones also was granted heretofore unheard of privileges, while he was held illegally a prisoner at the city jail. According to his own statement on the witness stand Jones was given large quantities of morphine four and five times a day at the Women's Detention home.

Jones was a confessed drug addict, and his vice was encouraged by Chief Eberstein all the time he was in the city jail, the prisoner asserted.

McKenna declared before he went to the penitentiary that he witnessed a transaction between Detective Jim Murphy and an automobile thief in which the detective accepted a bribe of $110 to allow the thief, who was wanted in Omaha, to escape.

McKenna asserted he was sent to a southern town in Nebraska to identify the man who was wanted to face a number of charges of stealing automobiles on the streets of Omaha. McKenna said he reported the matter to Chief Eberstein upon his return and he was told to keep quiet about it. The police chief went to Lincoln and attempted to prevail on McKenna to repudiate his charge against Detective Murphy. McKenna refused to comply with the request.

Murphy never was called on by his superiors in the department for an explanation, so far as is known.

WHO SAID DYSPEPSIA?

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After a Hearty Meal Makes You Feel at Ease—Avoid Gas, Belching, Sour Risings or Other Such Troubles From Indigestion.

Food prices are high, but if the stomach is weak with dyspepsia,

The burden is doubled. The point is to enjoy the meal without distress—not pay for food only to suffer. The best plan is to eat what you like best and follow with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. Thus you satisfy your appetite, taste and stomach, you get nourishment from what you may have thought was indigestible, without sour risings, belching of wind or logy, lazy feeling.

To thus be a free lance in eating palatable food, to make all the good things of the table your favorites is getting away from a sort of bondage that holds a host of men and women in the grasp of dyspepsia.

Get a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet from any druggist in the United States or Canada and have no fear of food, fried or otherwise.
