Burglar's Put in Busy Night of it on Saturday

terday morning.

Burglars spent an active night in Omaha Saturday, according to police reports yesterday. The Rialto drug store, Fifteenth and Douglas streets, reported that some one entered the store during the night and stole 175 grains of cocaine, an eighth of an ounce of morphine, $15 dollars in silver and $10 in pennies.

The Rialto Music Shop, in the same building as the drug store, reported that two Columbian phonographs were stolen. The Peoples Cleaners, 2416 Erskine street, was entered by "the clothes burglars" by breaking town the back door The following loot was taken: one khaki overcoat, one black fur overcoat, four blue serge sack coats and three pairs of pants. The clothes were valued at $300. Dr. John Mach, 3302 Woolworth street, told police someone attempted to gain entrance to his house by cutting out the panel of the door leading upstairs, but they were scared away. Nothing was missing at the doctor's home.
