Cured His RUPTURE

I was baddy ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation, Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 151-F Marcellus Avenue, Manasquan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

In Honor of Soldier Heroes TAKE ACTION TO CHOKE DOWN ON TREATY DEBATE

Two Petitions to Invoke Senate's Cloture Rule Prepared for Submission By Legislators.

Washington, Nov. 12.-Summary action to choke down debate on the his cousin, Elmer J. Neville, and repeace treaty was decided on by the treaty's friends in the senate today to meet developments regarded by many senators as the beginning of a filibuster against ratification.

Two petitions to invoke the senate's cloture rule which never heretofore has been used were prepared Headquarters of New for submission tomorrow should it become apparent that dilatory tactics have been adopted by the irreconcilable group opposed to the treaty. The first proposal was drawn by the democrats and the other was being formulated by the "mild" reservation group of republicans.

Under the rule, which could be made effective beginning Saturday by a two-thirds vote, no senator could speak more than one hour in all until a vote on ratification had Book is as good as the Mentho- been reached. Voice Strong Disapproval

Of Esch Railroad Measure Washington, Nov. 12.—Emphatic disapproval of the Esch railroad reorganization bill, now before the house, was expressed by the chie executives of the 13 principal rail-road employes' organizations in a statement which they declared that "so far as the labor provisions of the bill are concerned, they are more vicious, because more subtle. than the labor provisions of the Cummins bill." The railway workers' officials in their statement accused those who framed the Esch measure as being actuated with a desire, to "shackle labor." Request was made that the railways be held under federal control for an additional period of two years, the union chiefs declaring that "labor is willing to accept the sober judgement of the American voters as expressed at a general

Finds American Workers Not Bolshevists But Fair and Square Men

Chicago, Nov. 12.-After seven months of work as laborer in factories, railroad yards and other in-dustrial works, William Williams, director of personnel in a large steel company in Cleveland, found that 'American workers are not bolshevists; as a body they are fair and to do the right thing." He gave his conclusions at a meeting of the Chicago Association of Commerce.

He said he went out to learn why workmen were "sore on their em-ployers" and what was "on the work-ers' minds." He said he found that the employes were troubled about the high cost of living and believed that profiteers were taking advantage of them; that they worried constantly lest they lose their jobs, and that they were colossally ignorant of the purposes of the management of big companies, resulting in distrust, and that, shown a lack of confidence, the workers were suspicious of their employers. He declared the workman must be given to understand that he, is doing a man's part in the world's work and was entitled to respect and that it must be made possible for him to support his family, educate his children and enjoy some of the good things of life.

Omaha Boy, Home From Russian Front, Recalls Life at 50 Below Zero

Stanley L. Clark, 18 years old, son of J. J. Clark, 3415 Boyd street, is home from service with the American forces in Russia. The present cold spell means nothing to him, he says, since he learned to ex-perience 50 degrees below zero in He is the youngest of four brothers, all of whom have seen service in the regular army. His father is now in the government employ at the quartermaster depot, following 30 years' service in the army.

Young Stanley describes his experiences in Russia as unbeleivable telling of going without water for days because it was feared the bolshevists had poisoned the streams and wells, and of drinking from a river in which bodies of dead Russians were found upstream. From battling bolshevists and flies in a temperature that registered 101 in the shade, the Twenty-seventh Infantry, of which Clark was a musician, went to 50 degrees below zero 2,000 miles into the interior, near Harbarosk.
