Last night the teams went through the regular training on a slippery field. Plays will be directed from the backfield, is the belief of many of the followers. The Swoboda-Rob-ertson combination, which proved such a great point gainer in the past games, will not be used very much on account of the general shakeup of the team. Scrimmage practice will be the subject of tonight's practice. Coach Schmidt of the second squad put his men through signal practice last night in preparation for the game with the Lincolnites' second best men. Raymond Medlin, who has been playing a great game for the Reserves, has been transfered to the first team. Beerkle at the position of signal caller has been putting life into his men during the

The game between the reserve teams will be called at 1:30 at Rourke park Saturday, with the main event one hour later.

Creighton Hopes for Nebraska Game Dashed

The hopes of Creighton College foot ball followers were dashed when it was announced by Frank Judson, in a letter to City Commisioner Dan Butler that, Chancellor Avery declares such a game is impossible, the rules of the Missouri Valley conference prohibiting games after the season closes on Thanksgiving day.

Nebraska university is enforcing the rules of the Missouri Valley conference in all its games, even though the Huskers have withdrawn from the conference. This enforcement leads Nebraska fans to believe that the state university will again be a member of the Valley conference and does not wish to violate any of the rules laid down by the body.

It had been proposed to hold the foot ball game, the receipts to go to the Red Cross. The game probably would have enriched the Red Cross society several thousand dollars, had Chancellor Avery consented to allow the Huskers to meet Creighton after Thanksgiving.
