

NEGROES SENT TO PHILADELPHIA TO ESCAPE MOB

Three Brothers Suspected of Murdering Policeman Removed to Avoid Being Lynched by Crowd.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 14.—Fearing enraged citizens might attempt to lynch three negroes charged with murdering one policeman and probably mortally wounding another in Wilmington, police last night rushed the prisoners to Philadelphia.

The negroes, Lemuel, James and John Price, brothers, are being held in central police station.

Wilmington is quiet today. Police have been instructed to prevent the assemblage of crowds. Rifles and a machine gun are at police headquarters.

The sale of firearms in the city has been stopped and negroes have been warned to keep off the streets.

The murdered policeman was Thomas L. Zebley. Harry C. Pierce, the wounded policeman, was shot three times and is not expected to live.

The shooting occurred when the two patrolmen went to the Price home to investigate the stealing last week of scores of guns from a gun store. The guns had been pawned in this city.

AT THE THEATERS

The Craziest "Nut" in Show Business—Al. K. Hall (Alcohol)—starts in on a week-long session of laugh-compelling antics at the Gayety theater this afternoon. He has ever been one of the best drawing cards in musical burlesque, and to judge from the advance sale for the week, he will top all existing records as a crowd assembler. Mr. Hall is surrounded by "The Sporting Widows" in an entertainment that's brand new throughout. Tomorrow's matinee starts at 3 o'clock.

Two more opportunities, matinee and evening, are given Orpheum patrons to see the elaborate dance revue presented by Bessie Clayton. Opening with the matinee tomorrow the bill is to have two stellar features, Carl Jora is one. Formerly Mr. Jora was a star of the Metropolitan Opera company in New York. Another headliner will be the comedian-playwright, George Kelly, in a one-act satire written by himself and called "The Flattering Word."

The engagement of William Courtenay and company in "Civilian Clothes" closes at the Boyd with a matinee and evening performance today. This is one of the pleasant comedies offered in a long while, and tells a story that is of interest to all.

Chauncey Olcott will terminate his engagement at the Brandeis with two performances today. After a week's stay in Kansas City, Mr. Olcott and his company start on a tour to the Pacific coast, including a fortnight's stay in San Francisco, beginning New Year's week.

The Three Red Peppers, singers, comedians and all around entertainers, appear at the Empress for the last time today. A feature of the bill is the xylophone act contributed by Ernest Jones who furnishes a most entertaining program.

"Oh Lady, Lady," the latest of the New York Princess theater musical comedy successes, will be the attraction at the Boyd theater for one week commencing Nov. 16, with the popular Wednesday matinee and usual matinee Saturday. The company includes Miss Pauline Barri, Miss Florence Auburn, Joseph McCallion, Billy Gaston, Miss Betty Blye, Eugene McGregor, Miss Madeline Grey, Walter Grey, Thomas C. Leary, Miss Marie Haun and others.

The attraction at the Brandeis on Thursday, Nov. 20, is "Twin Beds." It will be presented here by the same great cast and production that plays all the prominent cities.

"My Sunshine Lady," the new fairy tale operetta, is starting for the Brandeis for four days starting matinee Sunday, Nov. 23. A Wednesday matinee will be given.

To Initiate 100 Members.
Members of Beach camp, No. 1454, M. W. A., met last night in the Labor Temple, Sixteenth and Capitol avenues, and plans for the initiation of 100 new candidates December 5 were discussed. It is planned to have a degree class from Lincoln conduct the initiation ceremonies in a fitting manner.

Secret of the "Paterson" Divorce Finally Leaks Out

Papers Were Filed Under Name of "Peterson vs. Peterson"—Society Long Expected Move—Mrs. Paterson a Beauty—Ronald Makes No Defense.

Blanche E. Paterson was granted a divorce from Ronald L. Paterson by District Judge Wakeley last Tuesday. Mr. Paterson did not contest the divorce.

Paterson is more or less prominent in Omaha society. Mrs. Paterson was noted for her beauty. They were married June 2, 1908. His wife was Blanche Waterman.

Desperate efforts were made to keep the divorce petition and the decree out of the newspapers and with some success. No paper had the story of the filing of the petition, October 6, 1919, and it was entered on the records as "Peterson against Peterson" and the files immediately withdrawn by Baldrige & Keller, attorneys for Mrs. Paterson.

Decree Kept Secret.
The decree was granted last Tuesday and kept secret until yesterday, when the news leaked out.

According to the decree, Mrs. Paterson will get $10,000 alimony, payable at the rate of $125 a month. She also was granted an interest in real estate worth $6,000, which Paterson owns. She alleges that he has an income of $400 a month.

Mrs. Paterson alleges in the petition that Paterson treated her with extreme cruelty. Her sister, Phyllis Paterson, and mother, Mrs. M. E. Waterman, testified that this cruelty included actual physical violence against Mrs. Paterson.

Mrs. Paterson is a very close friend of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige. Last spring she accompanied them on a trip to South America. The Patersons are said to have had much trouble throughout their married life.

Roughed It at Mine.

Three years ago Ronald Paterson became interested in a coal mine at Milner, Colo. His wife, hoping to get along amicably with him, accompanied him to the mine and for two years roughed it, cooking and cleaning up the miners' rooms.

In April, 1918, she found she could stand it no longer and returned to Omaha. She lived for a time at the Blackstone. But Ronald did not follow her.

Before they left Omaha for the coal mine camp, Mr. and Mrs. Paterson lived in the last two weeks. In this as in the other cases the telephone wires were cut before the men came to the door. Mrs. Brown discovered this when she tried to call the police before she opened the door. Those who have seen the picture they searched the house. They took no notice of any valuables. They were searching for liquor and nothing else. Finding nothing, they left in an automobile in which they came.

Fiume Blockade Lifted
Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—The Italian government has officially raised the blockade of Fiume, according to advices from that city received through Laibach, Austria.

Woman Terrorized as "High Jackers" Search Home During Night
Three young men, believed to be the "high jackers" who have been operating in Omaha during the last two weeks, visited the home of Mrs. Jesse Brown, 4215 North Twenty-sixth street, at 3:40 yesterday morning, awakened her, read what they said was a state search warrant to her and proceeded to search her home.

This is the twentieth case of "high jacking" reported to the police in the last two weeks.

FLASHES from FILMLAND

SEVERAL talented juvenile actors take part in "The Heart of Youth," a photo-picture starring Lila Lee, and which is to be shown for the last times at the Rialto today. It is essentially a screen romance of young folks and the countryside, and the action is spirited and entertaining throughout.

Sun—"Fair and Warmer," starring May Allison, and which will be shown for the last times today at the Sun theater, has been filling this house to capacity all week. This photo-play is the greatest "chaser" for the "blues" screened in Omaha for some time.

Strand—How would you like to return from the war to discover that your wife had just announced your death in South Africa? That is the experience that befalls Capt. Peter Rymill, in "The Misdemeanor," a picture featuring the popular star, Billie Burke, and which has its last showing at the Strand today.

Moon—A wild-eyed Spanish fanatic, who sees a locomotive for the first time, thinks it's a demon, lassoes the engine after a wild chase on horseback and is dragged to his death, is a thrilling and unusual scene in "The Gray Wolf's Ghost," a photo-picture starring H. F. Warner, and which will have its last showing at the Moon theater today.

Muse—Alice Brady, starring in "The Hollow of Her Hands," a drama of unusual interest is the attraction offered at the Muse today. Those who have seen the picture pronounce it one of the best in which Miss Brady has taken the stellar role, and one with so much human interest all will enjoy seeing it.

Empress—Local playgoers have their last opportunity to see "The Master Man," the Frank Keenan production, which will be shown at the Empress for the last times today. It deals with an unscrupulous attorney general, boss of the political machine, in his state and of the wrecking of his schemes through the influence of a woman.
