

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

And, oftentimes, excusing a fault,
Doth make the fault the worse by the excuse.

That is no true aim which the hand can hold;
He gives only the worthless gold
Who gives from a sense of duty.—Lowell.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Around a blazing fire
They sat—
Two souls
And the flames of Love.
They hovered near
Till the coals
Burned out
And left them
In the blackness.
Grief came sighing
To the tier of Love—
A desolate place.
Then from those gray
And warmthless ashes
Rose clear-eyed Friendship
In Love's lost place.
"Come," he said—
"Let's roam this world
Together—
We'll wander over
Hills and sands—
We'll learn from birds
And beasts
That only unwise
Mourn for Love—
When Love is gone."
The sunshine helped—
But when evening shadows
Cast long fingers
Over the sighing grass—
Their tips just touched
The solemn pair—
A chill—
A cool damp breeze
Swept past
Reminding them
Of the absent one.
Then
Back to the ashes
Of cremated Love—
Back where emotions
Once lit the flame
Of fierce desire—
A gap they found—
Too deep to cross.
Parting
They clasped the hand
Of Friendship.
A wan half-hearted smile
Told more than noisy words
E'er will—
For only Love
Could bridge that gap—

Republican Women.

A detailed plan of organization, which will provide for full participation of republican women in the future affairs of their party, was adopted by the republican national committee at an informal meeting held in Chicago Monday, November 10.

The plan adopted was recommended by the republican national woman's executive committee, of which Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois was chairman, appointed a year ago to work out a practical method by which women could take an active part with men in the management of the republican party.

In putting into effect this plan, the committee today created a woman's division of the republican national committee and elected Mrs. John G. South of Frankfort, Ky., chairman; Mrs. McCormick was first designated as head of the woman's division, but it was announced she would be unable to serve because of ill health.

Three vice-chairmen of the division were chosen as follows: Miss Mary Garrett Hay, New York; Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, Topeka, Kan., and Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, Olympia, Wash.

An executive committee of 10 members was named as follows: Miss Mary Garrett Hay, New York, chairman; Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Montana; Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, Kansas; Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, Washington; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, California; Mrs. Raymond Robins, Illinois; Mrs. John Glover South, Kentucky; Miss Maude Wetmore, Rhode Island; Miss Bina M. West, Michigan, and Mrs. C. A. Stevens, Minnesota.

There will be a representative of the woman's division in every state. In addition to this, there will be a national woman's council of 100 members chosen from the leaders of all lines of woman's activities, the personnel of which will be announced later.

Art Prize.
The art department of the Omaha Woman's club is planning to contribute a picture to be awarded as a prize in a contest between school children in Americanization work. Other prizes are being provided by individual club mothers, and departments.

Omaha Woman's Club.
Several departments of the Omaha Woman's club are actively engaged in Americanization work in the city. Teams of women have made a house-to-house canvass in Pacific, Train and Mason school districts where night schools for both men and women have been established. Circulars have been distributed in the business houses in these districts and conferences have been held with the leaders of the foreign-speaking people.

Mrs. W. H. Warwick, Mrs. C. B. Coon, Mrs. John Haarmann and Mrs. G. W. Munger, representing several club departments have given valuable assistance to Americanization work.

Party at City Mission.
The home economics department of the Omaha Woman's club will give a Thursday afternoon with the Mothers' club at the City Mission. The Mothers' club is composed of 40 women of Italian, Syrian and other nationalities. The ladies took their sewing, and a short program of music and readings were given under the direction of Mrs. F. A. Howard.

Useless—
Hopeless—
To fan dead ashes
Endeavoring to start a flame.
Pale Friendship
Is poor substitute
For glowing—flaming Love.

Girl's Coat Needed.
Dear Miss Fairfax: I am writing you as I am a widow woman with two children to support, my husband being dead, six years ago, and I have to work to support my two children, and as everything is so expensive I find it pretty hard to get along, and buy their clothes. I thought perhaps if you print my letter someone will read it who might have a coat, size 16 years, that they have no use for, as she is very much in need of one; also any dresses would come in handy. You know there is well-to-do people who don't wear their clothes out and if I can get a coat for my daughter it will certainly be appreciated and save me extra expense, as I don't receive very high salary for my work. Thanking you, I remain,
MRS. W. W.

We think anyone who is willing to wear another person's old garment is certainly entitled to receive it. We hope some one will ask us for your address for the purpose of sending you a good, warm coat, size 16; also some dresses that will be of service to you.
