Hoagland Flower Mission.

Would the world be just the same without flowers? Their beauty and fragrance breathe a message of hope and cheer. The Emma Hoagland Flower Mission realize the truth of this and they know that it is the sick who especially need the message. For 26 years this mission has lived and given happiness to others. It is just now incorporating with Mesdames W. W. Hoagland, J. E. Summers, C. B. Rustin and Miss Julia Knight, incorporators. Trus-tees are Mrs. W. W. Hoagland, Mrs. J. E. Summers, Misses Carita O'Brien, Mary English, Ruth Kinsler and Margaretha Grimmel. Mrs Hoagland is president of the association and Mrs. Summers, vic president; Miss Carol Howard, secre-tary and Miss Gladys Goodman, treasurer. The avowed object of the mission is "to provide means and methods and superintending distribution of flowers to the sick in hos-pitals and elsewhere. When the work first started, 425 bouquets would answer for all the hospital rooms in the city. Now St. Josephs hospital alone requires 500.

Community Service

Burton H. Twichell, in the servce of War Camp Community for mearly two years, has been assigned to Omaha as community song leader. He hopes to get in communication with song or social leaders of Omaha as soon as possible and, with them, work out a program best stitled to needs of the community. He has conducted a course of study in several places for the purpose of developing leaders. of plush, velvet, velour and other heavy coats have been cleaned, or dyed, by us this fall and made to look like new garments at a cost of only a few dollars.

Crushed plush or velvet, where the pile is not worn off, can be restored to its original condition. This can be done either in cleaning or dyeing, and in 99 cases out of 100 they come out in perfect condition.

Don't buy new until you have had your old ones cleaned or dyed. If you are not satisfied with the job you may have it for nothing-we guarantee satisfaction or no pay.

Out-of-town people can send by parcel post. We pay return charges on all orders. Ask any friend, merchant or banker in Omaha as to our ability and responsibility.
