

Two prize winners of Petaluma, Miss. The miss is Helen Ludden and the pullet is The Duchess, one of the 4,000,000 White Leghorns which are the pride and glory of the Mississippi town.
(Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.)

You never can tell what they're going to do in Boston these days. Think of what the Puritan fathers would say if they saw these students of the gentle art of dairying taking a ride on the dairy!
(Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.)

THE OPENING OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON.
The Harvard University Varsity Football Team Smashing the Line of the Bates College Eleven in Harvard's First Regular Game of the Season.
(Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.)

EVEN THE BABY CARRIAGE WAS A MOVING VAN.
On October 1 the demand for moving vans was the greatest in the history of New York and it is estimated that 50,000 families moved, paying from $10 an hour for a van up. Many companies charged $20 an hour. This enterprising youngster took the baby carriage while his mother was not looking and found many jobs. He had to hire an assistant, the demand for his services became so great.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

HE MADE A HEN LAY 340 EGGS A YEAR.
Walter Hogan is to the poultry world what Luther Burbank is to horticulture. It was recently said of him by a Missouri professor that he meant $80,000,000 to the chicken industry. He recently educated a hen into laying 340 eggs a year. She was known as the Queen of the Golden West, and was the world's record hen.
(Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.)

Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, former president of the Chicago's Women's Club, who has been made Chairman of the Women's National Committee of the Democratic party.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NEWEST WRINKLE IN AUTOMOBILES.
It is called the "auto boat," but it won't float. The tonneau is modelled along the lines of a yacht and the life preserver hung over the side is the only kind now to be obtained inside the three-mile limit. It's contents are supposed to buoy up the tired voyagers.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

MODERN SUN WORSHIPERS IN ENGLAND.
A colony which rejoices in the name of Kosmon Dawn Faithists has revived at Plymouth, England, the worship of the sun which was practiced in ancient times. The disciples of the cult are vegetarians, teetotalers and abhorers of tobacco. The photograph shows the way they greet the rising sun. The worst part of this kind of worship is getting up so early.
(Underwood & Underwood.)