Action is eloquence, and the eyes of the ignorant
More learned than the ears.—Shakespeare.

See, how she leans her cheek upon her hand!
Oh, that I were a hand!
That I might touch that cheek!

GIRLS! DRAW A
MOIST CLOTH
THROUGH HAIR
Let "Danderine" save your hair and double
its beauty

Oh, girl, such an abundance of thick, heavy, invigorated hair, a perfect mass of wavy, silky hair, gloriously fluffy, bright and so easy to manage.
Just moisten a cloth with a little "Danderine" and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this magically removes all dirt, excess oil and grease, but your hair is not left brittle, dry, stringy or faded, but charmingly soft, with glossy, golden gleams and tender lights. The youthful glints, tints and color are again in your hair.
"Danderine" is a tonic-beautifier. Besides doubling the beauty of the hair at once, it checks dandruff and stops falling hair. Get delightful Danderine for a few cents at any drug or toilet counter and use it as a dressing and invigorator as told on bottle.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Ready and cheaply prepared.
You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and really there is nothing better for coughs.
Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.
You can use this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Worried
And fretting
And frowning—
We go through life
With a scowl—
Working
And saving
And spending—
We aim off the target
A mile.
Each
In a frantic effort
To grasp the sheer wings
Of pleasure—
We spend our money
In vain pursuits—
Hoping on hope
To find reward—
Failing and falling
And trying again.
We tackle with force
The things which
Of course
Never succumb to strength—
We bicker and argue
The right and the wrong—
We bet—
Cheat—
Steal—
Scheme
And pay for the things
Which prove to be sham
After all.
The chase
Lasts a lifetime
With most of us fools—
Who seek
What we never can find—
Because we give everything else
Back a smile—
When only a smile
Will win
It takes little smiles
To buy kind thoughts—
It takes little smiles
To hold them.
A sincere smile—
Once in a while
Along life's hectic path—
Brightens the day
And gives the way
For the heart's treasures
We're seeking.

York College

By A. STUDENT

Earl Borer, of Red Cloud, Neb., a former member of the senior class, was visiting college friends last week.

Ernest Philson, academy '21, invited a number of friends last Monday to share with him a box from home.

Miss Eva Kerr, class of '21, the undergraduate field secretary for this district has returned from St. Paul, Minn., where she attended a national conference of undergraduate secretaries.

York college observed Armistice day with an appropriate program at 11 o'clock. Dr. John, the college pastor, led the devotions. Musical numbers were furnished by the Glee club and by Dean Amadon of the music department, who sang, "Ring Out, Sweet Bells of Peace." Roy Larson, class of '20, who was in the naval service during the war, read, "America for Me," by Van Dyke. Professor Verder of the expression department read several short lyrics pertaining to the war, and Professor Morgan of the ancient languages department gave a short address on "The Meaning of Victory." Members of the local post of American Legion who were present gave short talks. Mr. Wray Edwards spoke of his experiences in France preceding the signing of the armistice and Mr. McCormick spoke on the significance of the American Legion.

The Y. W. C. A. was a variation from the usual type of devotionals in the afternoon. The leader, Miss Ellen Kaliff, chose for her theme, "The Inspiration of Music," and appropriately selected one of the Psalms as the scripture lesson. Misses Gladys Perkins, Grace Ullsh, Celestia Johnson, Pearl Wildman and Lenore John then rendered musical numbers and Miss Maud Lefer gave a reading of all of which were much appreciated.

It was voted to challenge the girls of the business department to an attendance contest, and to hold the meetings alternately in the administration building and in the Commercial building down town.

It is the plan to give one-act plays not generally produced by professionals, as well as occasional big productions. Actors' services will be voluntary. "Amateur talent will thus be developed," in the opinion of Mrs. Sam Burns, who was made temporary chairman of the organization, "and also a taste for good drama." The movement should be a municipal one, say the group who attended Sunday's meeting, "and also self-supporting."

Sympathy.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Would like to have you publish these few lines in answer to the young man's letter of 20 years who wrote of "The Girl He Can't Forget." His letter appealed to me because he did not give a description of himself as being very good looking, popular, etc. My opinion is that those things should be left for others to decide. I am 19 years old, the limit of the age he mentioned in the postscript of a girl with whom he would want to correspond. I graduated last June. Am leaving my address with Miss Fairfax in case it is wanted for correspondence.

Olcott's Address.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I wish to write to Chauncey Olcott. Could you tell me his address? I am awfully anxious to know his address, so if you do not know it could you please direct me to some one that would know it? I remain, YOUR FRIEND,
Address him care the Brandeis theater.

Address Wanted.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: This is not to be a love letter, nor a girl anxious to join the stake. I have been searching for a Miss Virginia Love, who is acting with the Dodson's World's Fair series and have been unable to locate her. I am a girl who has very small means to work with, but should be very much obliged if you can help me or direct me to find her. Thanking you in advance, yours truly,
BETTY C.
