Iowa Bank Robbers Escape Through Posse of Citizens Roused by Double Explosions.

Shenandoah, Ia., Nov. 20 .- (Special Telegram.)-Yorktown, a small town near here, was thrown into an uproar of excitement at 3:30 this morning by a street battle between four bank robbers, the night marshal and various citizens who had been awakened by the noise of an explo-sion in the Yorktown Savings bank. Citizens piled out into the semi-darkness of the street to find it lighted up by the flashes of shots from the robbers who were slowly retreating toward an automobile while fighting off the marshall

Every Physician in Omaha Is Appointed Deputy Health Officer

Every physician in Omaha yesterday was appointed as deputy health of-ficer. There is no salary with these appointed as deputy health of-mood, for Omaha likes farce com-appointed as deputy health of-deputy dentials, but in the first of a series of bulletins issued by Dr. J. F. Ed-wards, health commissioner, appointments are made in the following manner:

"In the control of communicable diseases, all physicians are necessary assistants to the health commissioner. They report such cases, and in addition to their duty to the patient, they realize that it is their duty to help to prevent the further spread of the disease in the community. They are required by regulation to initiate isolation, and to give directions for disinfection." Physicians are requested to be on the lookout for cases of scarlet fever which is increasing. Thirty-five patients are now under scarlet fever quarantine.

Police in all the towns along the road to this city were also warned, and in the thought the car, helping in their wounded that the men might have arrived here before warning had been received, the Omaha department had to the bank, where it was found that 40 safety deposit boxes had been rifled, and $513 in cash taken.

PUNNY situations and clever lines in "Twin Beds" at the Brandeis theater last night

As presented last night, "Twin Beds" lost nothing that in past years has made it one of the most popular farcial productions of the American stage.

Lines were delivered with a punch that never failed to bring a laugh, and the company was well balanced. Josephine Saxe, in the role of Blanche Hawkins, is thoroughly charming. She imparts rare life to the character of the youthful wife who is the victim of a combination of laughable circumstances, and never fails to win a laugh in comedy situations.

If "Twin Beds" were a new production one would suspect that the author had written the part of Signora Monti just for Kathlyn Tracey, the seas of matrimony. He tried nora Monti just for Kathlyn Tracey, whose clever work delights the audi- to reform, but fate in the person of

Featured in the act are the famous De Pace brothers. whose mandolin and guitar instrumentation is worthy of commendation. Miss Dossena, the lyric soprano, sings with a finish and training that meets enthusiastic approval of the audience. An entertaining performance is that offered by the Puppets, who introduce a number of diminutive bodies with life size heads in a repertoire of songs, dances and specialties. The act is especially appealing to the young olks and children.

The greatest laughing festival Gayetyites have enjoyed in many weeks will be terminated with today's two performances after which At K. Hall (alcohol) and "The Sporting Widows" will make way for Corn Fed Gus Fay-that funny little Dutchman (not German) and "The Sight Seers," which attraction the Gayety is fortunate enough to have for its Thanksgiving week booking. Flo Davis and Johnnie Walker are prominent with the incoming show as is a big beauty chorus. Ladies' matine at 2:15 today and tomorrow.
