TRAIN BANDIT ELUDES POSSES IN "BAD LANDS"

Union Pacific Spends $15,000 in Fruitless Search for Carlisle-Scour Wide Areas.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 21.-Will-iam L. Carlisle, the train bandit for whom posses have been searching since Saturday, continues to outwit

Armed men covered wide areas of wild country in and around Medi-Casper, without success. No one ap-

Officials of the Union Pacific railroad announced they had spent $15,000 in the search and in addition hundreds of men volunteered service in the man hunt. In the meantime armed guards are maintained on all passenger trains, for railroad men are confident the bandit will make another robbery attempt, though possibly not until he has spent the $250 he obtained in his last robbery.

Baseless rumors have appeared from many places, including Denver and Pueblo, Colo., where the bandit is reported to have been seen. Little credence is placed in these and yet officials here admit there is nothing more definite than these rumore concerning the bandit's hid-

Governor Carey was asked to ofprosecuting attorney of the county which the robbery occurred would ask. The only reward now offered is one of $200 from the state prison at Rawlins where Carlisle was confined up to his escape last

A considerable sentiment has developed in favor of the bandit because of his daring and courteous treatment of women and children passengers and the possibility that friends might be aiding the fugitive was taken into consideration.

AT THE HEATERS

afternoon "Cornfed" Gus Fay, for whom burlesque lovers have a very tender spot in their hearts, opens a week's engagement at the Gayety. With him are Jas. E. Cooper's "Sightseers" on their annual tour of looking things over as regards the Columbia of the columbia over as regards the columbia ove said to be replete with novelties Davis, Fred Nolan and Kathryn ly when it has been reported that burial was in Holy Sepulchre cem-Ross are among the principals and the chorus numbers over 20. The the hills covered with horsemen. In Omaha and died Wednesday seat sale is immense, particularly for The horsemen weren't there unless night at her home, 2304 South the extensive production of hydro-Thanksgiving day. Tomorrow's they were the horsemen of heaven." Twelfth street. Thanksgiving day. matinee starts at 3:00.

Many sorts of contrivances were tried out by LeComte and Flesher in their enthusiastic determination to fittingly embellish and novelize with surprising innovations their splendid musical comedy find, "My Sunshine Lady," the latest addition to the group of modern stage successes based on revamped fairy tales.

Among the songs popularized in the play are "My Sunshine Lady," "A Song of Old Brittany," "Cupid's Sweets," "A Vampire Girl," "A Night at the Riviera," "Mere Man," "The Songs I Sang When I Was Twenty-one," "Anything to Make a Picture Now-a-Days," "Mystic, Magic Man," "Love Needs Opposition," "I Miss You Honey 'Deed I do" and "Dixie Land is Calling You." This play will be seen at the Brandeis for four days starting matinee tomorrow. Wednesday matinee will be given. matinee will be given.

It was because the company is waiting for an engagement to go into Chicago that John D. Williams was enabled to send to Boyd's theater next week Richard Bennett in "For the Defense." The play is the story of an entangling web of circumstantial evidence which grips an infrocent girl. Her fiance in a duel of wits finally clears her of the accusation of murder. There will be a special matinee on Thanks-

Final performances, matinee and evening, will be given today of the Orpheum bill headed by Carl Jorn, and George Kelly. The curtain this evening is to rise at 8 o'clock. Next week's show will have two stellar at-tractions and three featured acts. Julius Tannen will be one to head the bill and another will be the dancer, Alice Eis. Mrs. Gene Hughes will appear in the one-act comedy, "When He Came Back."
The vocal gifts of Sybil Vane, known as the Galli-Curci of vaude-ville, will be displayed. A clever company of minstrel men will present an offering called "Honey Boys

Matinee and evening performances today conclude the engagement of "Oh, Lady, Lady!" at Boyd's theater. No musical play of the season has approached this in point of dainty conceit, pretty girls, nelodious music, snappy dances or

The De Pace Opera company, appearing at the Empress for the last times today, has a combination of music and song arranged for a per-fect display of remarkable talents. An act that meets with general favor is offered by Keane and Walsh, whose talk is the brightest and wittiest comedy heard in this theater in some time.

The attraction at the Brandeis theater tonight is "Twin Beds." It is the laugh play of the century, a comedy for all taste, a tonic for old

Julian Mitchell, the wizard of ensemble numbers in musical comedy, has shown some of his mastery in law & Erlanger's production of

PLASHES From FILMLAND

EVERBODY likes to see a good two-fisted fight between men, especially if there be sufficient provocation. When there is mystery attached to the fight it satishes the brain as well as the brute instinct. In "The Open Door" the mystery drama starring Anna Lehr and Walter Miller at the Moon thea-ter for the last times today, two husky men are seen in a smashing hand-to-hand fight in a brokerage office. "The Open Door" is a pic-ture that will hold an audience spellbound and one you should see.

Strand-"The Vengeance of Dustrand.—"The Vengeance of Darand," starring Alice Joyce at the Strand, and which will be shown for the last times today, has some of the most gorgeous settings ever ences to this theater. It is a peppy picture, about past and propriety. cine Bow and in the vicinity of seen in a picture. Its happenings occur mid the social whirl—in great parently has the least idea where receptions, balls and dinners-withacters are drawn from among a class of beings who dwell at the very top of cultured, finished society. The climax of this picture is gigan-

> Muse-How would you like to get sled at the top of a hill and coast down it at a mile a minute and plow right through an enemy camp? Well, that is exactly what Tom Mix starring in "The Wilderness Trail," does, and if you want to see this picture don't wait any longer, as it has its last showing at the Muse to-day. It is a piece of work that makes one hold their breath till it is over Dangerous sport, we hear you/say. one hold their breath till it is over. Rialto theater today. It is a pictureand the star comes out alive and story that sweeps through the heart smiling. It gives a fine taste of the life of the great wild out-of-doors. will want to see.

fer a reward for the capture of the bandlt. He promised to do so if the prosecuting attorney of the county coupled with such names as Victor

Age of 71 After Brief Illness Herbert, Henry Blossom and Fred Jackson as composer and authors, explains the success of "The Velvet

Says Act of God May

Have Stoped Germans Coningsby Dawson, an English-American writer, spoke before the Omaha Society of Fine Arts yesterday afternoon on the great war and the future of the nations.

"In the fall of 1914 Germany could have been victorious but for what we like to believe was a supernatural blow struck by God for our cause," said Mr. Coningsby, who was a Canadian field artillery lieutenant. "The German army was lovers have a very tender spot sweeping toward the channel ports.

Neighborhood Houses LOTHROP — 24th and Lethrop — ANITA STEWART in "HUMAN DESIRES." and a Roland comedy. APOLLO—29th and Leavenworth— CREIGHTON HALE in the "BLACK GRAND-16th and Binney-CHARLES RAY in "HATFOOT-STRAW-

HAMILTON-40th and Hamilton-TOM MOORE in "JUST FOR TO-NIGHT," and a Harold Lloyd comedy.

DIAMOND—24th and Lake—BESSIE

LOVE in "HEART OF A GIRL," and 11th episode of the "MASKED

RIDERS" RIDERS."
COMFORT—24th and Vinton—ALICE
BRADY in "THE BETTER HALF,"
and a Big V comedy, entitled
"GIRLIES AND GRUFFERS."

picture about past and propriety. A handsome young lord who couldn't resist a silk ankle; a new to be shown for the last times today. Rialto-Merely a woman! What right had she to love, when by mar-rying the man of his choice she could was from Fort Worth, Tex. bring her selfish father ease and dent of Omaha for 15 years. She course of his talk. is survived by seven sons and three daughters. Edward, Charles, Al- school unless he has some knowlbert George, William, Fred and Earl, and Mrs. Addie Philipoteaux, Miss Amelia and Mrs. Constance Rausch. The only son living in Omaha is Albert, who is a member of the Omaha Fire department.

Seven Years for Youth

Who Forged to Get Car

Funeral services will be held from the Hoffman Funeral home, Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Burial will be Forest Lawn cemetery.

Funeral Services Are Held For Pioneer Omaha Woman

Johnnie Walker, Flo never has been explained until late-

Class of 390 Novices Initiated Into the Mystic Shrine Order

Three hundred and ninety novices were initiated into the mysteries of the Mystic Shrine last night at the Municipal auditorium. The class is the largest ever assembled in Oma-ha for admission to Tangier temple in district court. They were marha for admission to Tangier temple. The first section of the work was exemplified yesterday afternoon at the Masonic temple, and a banquet was given in the evening. The great dining hall was too small to accommodate the candidates and visitors, numbering more than 600, and the Hotel Fontenelle handled an overflow from the banquet room of hearly 300. The candidates were assembled at the temple after the dinner and marched to the auditorium where the second section of the work was carried out. Tinley L. Combs, illustrious potentate, assisted by his complete divan, had charge of the ceremo-

The fall ceremonial this year was many screen scenes you will enjoy in "The Gay Lord Quex," which is

The class was one of the most enthusiastic ever assembled. Sydney, Neb., alone, was represented by 50 candidates. One candidate

Central High Students Prof. Fred Morrow Fling, head of the department of history at the University of Nebraska, lectured to the students of Central High school Friday afternoon on the subject of

Dr. Fling attended all the meetings of the conference and acted as Age of 71 After Brief Illness the historian for the United States. He sailed for Versailles on the Mrs. Elsie Clinchard, 71 year old, died at her home, 2526 Cleveland did. The story of the arrival of the avenue, yesterday afternoon after country's executive in England, a brief illness. She had been a resi-

"No pupil has business in the high

Who Forged to Get Car

plea of guilty was made by Lloyd Reed, Omaha youth, arrested in Council Bluffs, who admitted forging a deposit slip showing that he had $403 in a Logan bank, and against which he drew a check for squist which he drew a check for $400 and gave it C. L. Kingsley, Council Bluffs, in payment for a used Ford car. He took the car to Omaha and traded it for a Scripps-Booth, paying $50 difference. He was given seven years in the Anamosa reformatory.

Should the Holy land be colonized on a large scale a Norwegian engineer proposes to utilize the difference in water levels between the Mediterranean and Dead seas for

Divorce Courts

Frieda M. Sutton alleges that her husband, Slayter Sutton, struck her and treated her cruelly in other tody of their child.

egations of nonsupport by Judge Troup in divorce court.

Wakeley in divorce court. Mrs. her in divorce court by Judge Smith was also given half-interest in their home and awarded the cusany Sunday afternoon for not more than two hours. Mrs. Bongiovanni Dollie Henos asked the district court to give her a divorce from Charles Henos on the ground of extreme cruelty and to restore her dered to pay $30 a month alimony.

Lydia Edwards was granted a di-worce from Richard Edwards on al-

Cattaro, Albania, Report

Harrison Smith was ordered to pay his wife, Stella Smith, $75 a month alimony in a decree of divorce granted Mrs. Smith by Judge

The three children of Lucia and Montenegrin volunteers left Brindisi vadê other sections of Paris where on Tuesday to occupy Cattaro, Although the committees went out of business and prices went back.

Committees Disappear Paris, Nov. 21.—The "normal price" committees, which came into Paris with a crash, have quietly passed out of existence. Farmers and produce dealers exe-cuted boycotts against districts where the committees had posted lists of "normal prices." Residents Rome, Nov. 21 .- Six hundred of these districts were forced to in-

1508-1510 Julius Orkin 1508-1510 Douglas St.

In This Low Priced DRESS SALE

Are Values We Believe Cannot Be Duplicated at these ridiculously low prices

At this price there are many very attractive models in Serges, Satins, Georgettes, Velveteens and Jerseys. All at enormous reduction.

$24.75

Dresses of Tricotine, Velveteen, Serge, Satin, Georgette and Jersey, in a wide range of smart styles, all at enormous reduction.

125 Dresses--Sacrificed

Dresses of serge, taffeta, satis: and Georgette combinations, in many styles, absolutely sacrificed for immediate clearance, $14.75

Silk Teddy Bears

Regular $5.00 to $7.50 Values, $3.95

Saturday we will offer a big lot of Women's Silk Teddy Bears in crepe de chine and satins, formerly priced at $5.00, $5.95, $6.75 and $7.50. Special for Saturday .....

Georgette Blouses

Regular $12.50 to $19.50 Values, $8.75

Saturday we will offer about 300 Georgette Crepe Blouses which we have taken from regular stock that were selling $12.50, $14.75, $17.50 and $19.50; special for Saturday .....

200 Coats, Marvelous Values Specially

the Great Reductions From Our Regular Stock

> Duvet de Laines--Wool Velours--Polo Cloths--

The variety of styles is large and varied, including smart plain coats and handsomely fur trimmed models, all marvelous values at this low price.

