Heavily Armed Guards Are Patrolling Streets

Bogalusa, La., Nov. 23.-Heavily rmed guards patrolled the streets Sunday to prevent violence following a pitched battle Saturday between union labor leaders and special policemen, in which three of the former were killed and several persons wounded.

The authorities announced that the fighting was the culmination of an attempt to protect Sol Dakus, a negro union organizer, who was ought by the police as a dangerous character. Two union men, it was charged, walked through the streets with the negro, both armed with shotguns. When the three reached Lumber company's plant, attempted to arrest the negro. A battle fol-lowed in which three of the negro's defenders were killed, two were wounded and a member of the posse was injured.

The three men killed were Lum E. Williams, president of the local Allied Trades council; J. P. Bou-chillon and Thomas Gaines, carpenters.

PARIS ICE CREAM KING IS CHICAGO NEWSPAPER MAN

'Jed" Kiley, Coining Money, Plans Chain of Parlors to Cover England.

Paris, Nov. 23.-The Fice cream king" of Paris is the latest title to he conferred upon Gerald (Jed) Kiley, erstwhile Chicago newspaper man, whose activities since 1917 have been devoted to transferring "a little bit of Chicago" to the Capital of the World.

Kiley's latest financial venture in Paris, which is proving to be as big a money-maker as was his "Chicago dance hall," which ceased to function after the gendarmes took an interest in it, is the Dixie Wholesale Ice Cream company.

To Prevent Violence Kiley's painstaking efforts, is rapidly becoming educated to "la glace," and placards advertising "La Glace and placards advertising "La Glace a la Kiley" are appearing in every bar and restaurant in Paris.

Will Invade England.

"It's a knockout," averred the versatile Mr. Kiley. "Can you imagine it? I've got the only wholesale ice cream company in France. And money! Say, I'm going to build my own bank soon.

Mr. Kiley was interviewed in his apartment at 88 rue des Dames shortly before he departed for London, where he went to complete arrangement with Selfridge & Co. to open a chain of American ice cream parlors in England.

The popular American dish was comparatively unknown in Europe, but Kiley plans to make the ice cream soda parlor a familiar sight on every street corner. Dance Hall Closed.

His venture in ice cream came
