

BRIEF BRIGHT BREEZY BITS OF NEWS

MRS. TOM THUMB, NOTED MIDGET, DEAD. Middleboro, Mass., Nov. 25.—Countess Primo Magri, known to the general public as Mrs. Tom Thumb, and one of the best-known Lilliputians in the world, died at her home here after a long illness. She was 77 years of age and had traveled around the world several times under the management of the late P. T. Barnum.

BOY AND GIRL KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS TRUCK. Chicago, Nov. 25.—A boy and a girl were killed and two other school children and a chauffeur were probably fatally injured when a motor truck was struck by a Baltimore & Ohio Chicago Terminal railway pay train at a street crossing.

"WATCH YOUR WAD," ADVICE TO BANDIT. Chicago, Nov. 25.—If "Bill" Carlisle, Wyoming train bandit, comes to Chicago with the proceeds of his robberies, Chief of Police Garrity said that he isn't sold down the river by our men. On the first day he is bound to get held up the first night. The chief's comment was occasioned by receipt of a telegram purporting to come from "Bill" at Des Moines, expressing the intention of visiting Chicago.

CANTON MAYOR REMOVED FROM OFFICE PERMANENTLY. Columbus, O., Nov. 25.—Mayor Charles E. Pooman of Canton, suspended for failure to preserve order during the steel strike in that city, was permanently removed from office by the governor following a formal hearing before the chief executive.

PARIS DANDIES START SARTORIAL REVOLUTION. Paris, Nov. 25.—A distinguished group of Parisian club men headed by the most famous of the "Buenos Aires" Andrew De Fouquieres, Alexander Duval, another well known "man about town," and Arthur Meyer, the aristocratic editor of the royalist paper Le Gaulois, have started a sartorial revolution by adopting the Nineteenth century top hat of black silk with tapering stove pipe crown and broad brim, set off by a huge silver buckle made famous by Le Surque, hero of the Lyon mail holdup. The correct costume that goes with this hat is a Prince Albert coat of blue or black velvet, with trousers to match and a fancy waistcoat.

CLOSE UP SHOP TO WAR ON MOSQUITOES. Anderson, Cal., Nov. 25.—Business houses and professional offices here were closed Monday, while the whole town joined in a war on mosquitoes. Male citizens of Anderson, summoned at 6:30 this morning by ringing of the fire alarm, spent the day in digging drainage ditches, setting traps and spraying with a profuse breeding place for mosquitoes.

LEG STENCILING TABOOD BY GIRLS IN COLD WEATHER. Wichita, Kan., Nov. 25.—The fad of stenciling the legs as a camouflage for silk stockings may work in California, but take it from the eight "Mack Sennett" girls who were here at the International Wheat show, they do not prove satisfactory in cold weather.

WHITE MEN GUILTY OF LYNCHING WHITE. Bayminette, Ala., Nov. 25.—Twelve white men, indicted last spring for lynching Frank Foukal, a white man, pleaded guilty by agreement in court and paid fines ranging from $100 to $300. Foukal was shot to death by a mob while in jail and two of the trial leaders were convicted and given long prison terms.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ISSUES THANKSGIVING MESSAGE. Baltimore, Nov. 25.—Cardinal Gibbons, primate of the American hierarchy of the catholic church, issued this Thanksgiving message. "We offer thanks to God this year because of the many blessings received from Him during the past 12 months, in particular for the cessation of the world war, and in our own country for the prosperity and peace we enjoy. We thank Him for the spirit of patriotism fanned into a warmer flame in the hearts of our people, and manifesting itself most recently in the resolve to curb effectually those destructive forces which strive to undermine or overthrow the just and wise provisions of our government."

WOULD SWEAT MACHINE AND EASE THE MAN. New York, Nov. 25.—Sweating the machine, not the man, is the economic principle, on which Lord Leverhulme, the great British manufacturer, justifies the six-hour day for workmen and the 12-hour day for machinery. This schedule his firm has determined to introduce in their factories in Great Britain, the United States and Canada and elsewhere, hoping thereby to profit their workmen as well as themselves.
