

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Friendship, love, the philosopher's stone, have heard them pressed, all three Lovers have praised them too, and for them have sought, But alas, alas! I have found them not.
—Victor Hugo

I wish that friends were always true, And motives always pure; I wish the good were not so few, I wish the bad were fewer.
—G. Saxe

SOCIETY

CATHERINE MARGARET Maher, past 4 years old, only child of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Maher of Lincoln, has had her photograph autographed by General Pershing, Admiral Sims and Marshal Foch.

Major Maher, who was chief disbursing officer of the American expeditionary forces with headquarters in Paris in the latter part of the war, left one of Miss Catherine's pictures with the allied generalissimo with a request for his autograph.

Last week Mr. Maher received a long official envelope postmarked "Staff of Marshal Foch, Paris," which contained the photograph all signed, and a brief letter from Marshal Foch himself, in which he said he was delighted to place his autograph on the picture for an American officer who served his country particularly one who served in France.

Autographs of the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces and of the commander of the American fleet in European waters were also secured on other pictures of Miss Maher while her officer-father was in service overseas.

Little Catherine is well known in Omaha as Major Maher was stationed here for several months before going overseas. Mrs. Maher was popular in army circles while residing here.

For Bride-Elect.

Miss Erna Reed entertained at a box party at the Orpheum Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Margery Smith and her fiancé, Mr. George Van Dorn of Chicago. The guests included Misses Winifred and Esther Smith, Katherine Dufourcq of New York, Esther Wilhelm, Helen Walker and Lisbeth Brown of Batavia, Ill.; Messrs. Famous Women

Aames Nefertari.

Crown her with many crowns! Not only with the pharaoh or royal crown of upper and lower Egypt, no, only with the crown of motherhood and wifehood, but this woman, Aames Nefertari was the great ancestress of the new empire at Thebes in ancient Egypt, 1700 B. C. This dynasty, the eighteenth, was that of the Thothmes, mighty warriors and builders, and of the famous Hatshepsu-Pharaoh, woman-Pharaoh and discoverer. On the rock tablets of Massarah opposite Memphis on the Nile, and in the sepulchral chambers of the Theban

Necropolis, this great woman, Aames Nefertari, is remembered as "the beautiful consort of Aames," and as "the wife of the god Amon" (Amon-Ra). Here we have a distinct hint of the origin of the nursery and of the "Brides of Christ" idea. Aames Nefertari was high priestess of the tutelary god of Thebes (Amon-Ra). On her head she wore not only the crown of Egypt united, but the vulture head-dress signifying motherhood, for the "vulture" was the symbol of Mut, the second person in the Egyptian triad of gods at Thebes, Amon, Mut, Khonsu. A great woman, whose blood flowing down the eighteenth dynasty brought forth those giants of achievement which lesser men wonder at today.

For many years there have been no Tuesday brides in Madrid, as the Spaniards consider Tuesday an unlucky day for marriages.

"Music is the heritage of every human being"

A Starr Phonograph for Christmas

WHEN you buy a "Starr" you combine all the good points of other makes in one. Its human-like throat, made of silver grain spruce—without a particle of metal—reproduces the living voice or the original music in its original purity and sweetness.

- The tone control enables you to increase or decrease the volume of sound at will—keeping with your mood. The automatic stop prevents damage to record and needle. Other improvements add to its convenience and luxury.
- The "Starr" Phonograph plays all records. With it you have access to every piece of music—no matter where, or for what instrument produced. You can place it on the "Starr" and hear the original production in its natural beauty.
- The "Starr" Phonographs are sold exclusively by

114 EGGS A DAY NOW INSTEAD OF 25 A DAY

That Means About $105 Extra Income Per Month for Mrs. Ropp.

"I have 200 hens, including late pullets not old enough to lay, and had been getting 25 to 30 eggs a day. Then I tried Don Sung in the feed, and am now getting 107 to 114 eggs a day."—Mrs. Essie B. Ropp, R. R. 2, Little, Ind.

Mrs. Ropp got this increase of 7 dozen a day in the middle of winter. At 50 cents a dozen, 80 days a month, this makes $105 extra income a month. The Don Sung for her 200 hens cost her about $15.00 per month. You can see how well it paid her, and we'll guarantee it will pay you. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying. Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid, Burrell-Dugger Co., 878 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
