MAY CUT TREES TO KEEP THE OLD SOLDIERS WARM

State Board of Control May Abandon Motto of "Woodman, Spare That Tree."

Lincoln, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—The State Board of Control may be compelled to discard its motto of "Woodman, spare that tree," unless the coal situation is relieved, and begin a wood harvest upon some of the trees near the Soldiers' home at Milford.

Professionals Get $3,000 Worth Goods At Platte Center

Platte Center, Neb., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Early Monday morning the Bruckner general merchandise store was broken into by thieves. Silk dress goods, wool dress goods and men's suits to the amount of $3,000 were taken. The thieves gained entrance by breaking the plate glass in the front door. No clue to the robbers was found, but it is certain that the men were professionals, as they took only such merchandise as is very scarce and easily sold.

Mother Married in Old Church; Daughter in New

North Platte, Nov. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Miss Erma Huffman and Arthur May of Gothenburg will be married Thanksgiving evening in the new Lutheran church. The ceremony will be the first service held in the new church. Miss Huffman's mother was the first bride in the former church. Five hundred guests will attend. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Huffman and for a number of years has been starring in opera companies in the east. She is a talented musician and reader. Mr. May is a prominent business man of Gothenburg.

DIAMONDS

Buying diamonds is a matter of confidence. Most people cannot accurately determine for themselves the value of precious stones. It is important to know the store you buy from—what their guarantee means.

We have stood for and maintained quality for over twenty-nine years—this should be a strong argument why you ought to consult us for diamonds.

Kearney (Neb.) Out of Coal and None Coming

Kearney, Neb., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—With a heavy blizzard raging, Kearney had been informed that the Central Power Co. of this city has only enough coal to last till Monday under normal conditions, and that it is not eligible for a further supply. Only one light to a household is now the rule. Electricity has been shut off from all display windows. Many public meetings planned for Thanksgiving day were canceled.

Beatrice Woman Killed Accidentally by Son

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Mrs. Sherman Whitcomb was almost instantly killed at her home when a shotgun in the hands of her son, 16 years old, was accidentally discharged, the load striking her in the temple. The boy had just returned from a hunting trip.

Fremont Coal Situation Has Become Very Serious

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—With only two local yards having a supply of domestic coal on hand the fuel situation in Fremont is becoming serious. Deliveries are limited to half a ton. The supply of steam coal has been exhausted and several industrial plants will be forced to close within the next few days unless some relief is secured. The schools have only a small supply of fuel on hand.

Another meeting of the union will be held Friday of this week, when C. F. Gustafson, president of the state association of farmers, will give an address.

Ex-A. E. F. Boy's Thanksgiving

We are thankful, aren't we buddy, 'cause we're rid of army beans,
'Cause it's punkin' pie and turkey—(surely you know what that means)
Cause it's get up in the morning minus bugler, reveille—
Minus roll call, minus detail, minus Private Jones, K. P.
Cause it's get up when you want to minus bugler and his call,
'Cause we're rid of even "shave tails"—'cause we're simply rid of all—
'Police your buttons" at inspections—yes, we're thankful, you and me,
'Cause we'll have a turkey dinner, punkin pie—but no K. P.

We are rid of hard-boiled non-coms, hard-boiled shave-tails and M. P.s,
And we're rid of army doctors—mark 'em duty and C. S.,
Rid of drill fields, bayonet practice, rifle drill and gas alarms,
Rid of walk your post, and buddy, we are rid of "shoulder arms,"
We are rid of army pay rolls, clothing slips and mess kits, too,
Rid of belts and pistol holster, rid of packs and hob-nailed shoe;
Rid of gold fish and corned-willy, rid of everything to tell,
We've received our honorable discharge, we have done our hitch in hell.

We are thankful, aren't we buddy, 'cause we're rid of army beans,
But we'll not forget those comrades, (Only we know what that means)
Those who sacrificed for freedom, for liberty, their all—
Those who've answered, (may God bless 'em) that final bugle call.
May those comrades whom we've buried, who died martyrs brave and true,
For our country, (let's salute them) and the Flag Red, White and Blue;
May they find us all together up on yonder golden shore:
"All are present, no man absent; all, Sir, are accounted for."

—CAL. J. AISENBREY, Alpena, S. D.

Nobler Americanism, Plea of Secretary Lane

Washington, Nov. 27.—Secretary Lane at a Thanksgiving day service here spoke for a pledge to Americanism and counseled taking "the American way at each new turn of the road."

"We are in a time of depression, of reaction from exaltation of wartime," said Mr. Lane. "Now the smaller man who is inside each one of us has come to the fore, the egotistic, self-seeking side, while then and there we crown out the larger, nobler man who always walks with us, but is too seldom challenged to appear."
"This would be a true Thanksgiving day if it could be a day of pledge to the stronger, prouder things in us which we call our Americanism. As Edward Everett Hale used to pray, 'teach us to know that we are sons of the living God,' so I would pray also that we might know that we are sons of a living America."

Gifts Made from SILK

The gaily-colored bags, and particularly the silk pillows, big, round taffeta ones, in plain shades and oddly shaped Oriental ones in combinations of figured and plain silks, suggest a visit to our fabric section.

And even a gift of the material for a blouse or negligee or dress would be as delightful as it would be practical.

As a special for Friday, novelty silks in a fine variety of plaids and stripes are offered quite exceptionally for $1.98 a yard.

Trefousse Kid Gloves

Very fine French kid gloves in all the desirable shades for street wear, with heavy embroideries on the backs, fastened by two pearl clasps, $4.75 a pair.

Two-clasp, pique-sewn gloves in a full range of colors are $4.50 a pair.

And single clasp, pique-sewn gloves are to be had for $3.75.

Handbags You'll Admire

Silk velvet ones in brown, navy, taupe and black. Embroidered in bright, contrasting shades. Two shirred pockets hold a change purse and a mirror, $4.75 to $18.

Back strap purses of leather, with coin purse and mirror, are very practical and fashionable. Also hand-tooled leather bags in flat shapes.

FURS OF QUALITY

from Thompson-Belden's

Selected peltries, designed by the foremost furriers of America, into graceful coats and capes and separate pieces. A display more than ordinarily extensive and of a character that will appeal to the most discriminating. The new fur room, on the third floor, is in a position to offer every convenience—while the present collection of furs is capable of satisfying every desire.

The Way of a Woman With a Fan

Is a thing of deep importance, rivaled only by the way of a fan with an evening gown. For with the return to prominence of the formal evening gown, huge ostrich feather fans, mounted on sticks, of amber or tortoise shell, are used to strike a note of color contrast. They come in the newest, most fascinating colors and add to even the simplest gown a touch of picturesqueness.

$6.50 to $23

Hosiery That Is Inexpensive

A Large Satin Butterfly

WITH painted spots on his ruffled wings is perched on a stick wound with palest green ribbon and conceals a conveniently large powder puff, while another just like him conceals a mirror.

AND that isn't all—there are some graceful powder boxes of glass, veiled with sheer gold tissue and lace, with either several individual puffs or one large one, inside.

ESPECIALLY interesting are some new polychrome vases, slender and beautifully shaded, that are wired for lamp bases.

May we show you these new things?
