

ASK AMERICA TO FINANCE AUSTRIA BY LARGE LOANS

Lloyd George Answers Questions Relative to European Situation in British House of Commons.

London, Nov. 27.—Premier Lloyd George again Thursday in the House of Commons answered a list of questions on all subjects, mostly, however, in connection with the European economic and military situation arising from the war.

One of the most important of the questions related to the condition of Austria, concerning which Commander Viscount Curzon, coalition unionist member for Battersea south, asked whether the supreme council in Paris was taking steps to deal with the situation.

The premier declared that the supreme council had reached the conclusion that only a comprehensive arrangement for a large international credit would adequately meet the situation and that it was essential for the success of such a proposal that the United States should contribute that part of the expenditure which would have to be incurred in dollars.

Urgent Representations.

"Urgent representations have, accordingly been made to the United States government in that sense," the premier added.

Questioned regarding whose duty it would be to summon the first meeting of the assembly and the first meeting of the council of the league of nations, in view of the fact of the American senate's refusal to ratify the treaty, Mr. Lloyd George said that Article 5 of the treaty stipulated that the president of the United States should summon the meeting. He added that he did not understand that this was in any way affected by the refusal of the senate to ratify the treaty.

Another inquiry, made by James M. Hogge, advanced radical and Scottish home rule member for Edinburgh, was whether Mr. Lloyd George gave any undertaking to President Wilson during the peace conference that Mr. Lloyd George would endeavor to settle the Irish question. This brought a direct negative reply.

Only Indirect Action.

Answering still another question, the premier said that the effect of the American senate's action with regard to the treaty provisions for plebiscite and other commissions in Germany would be only indirect. It would be necessary for the other powers to find a larger quota of representatives for these commissions.

The premier said that the Anglo-French-American treaty providing for the defense of France in case of wanton attack was contingent on ratification by the United States senate, but that American refusal to ratify the treaty would not necessarily affect the tripartite treaty, provided the United States ratified the tripartite pact separately.

Brotherhoods Conclude Meeting in Cleveland; No Strike Vote Taken

Cleveland, O., Nov. 27.—The meeting of 300 general chairmen of the four great railroad brotherhoods, which convened here last Monday to consider an offer from Director General of Railroad Hines of time and one-half for overtime in slow freight service, provided all arbitrary and special allowances were eliminated, ended late Thursday with the adoption of a resolution sending all four organizations including the four chiefs, to Washington to confer with Mr. Hines on the offer.

A telegram has been sent asking for a conference Tuesday, December 2. The convention accepted Mr. Hines' other offer, the proposed "held-away-from-home-terminal" rule, which means that pay of train and engine crews will automatically start at the expiration of 16 hours from the time of release, at away-from-home terminals.

No strike vote was taken or ordered during the conference, according to W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Homage Paid to Writers Who Fell in World War

Paris, Nov. 27.—Homage was paid to writers who fell in the war at the annual public meeting of the French Academy. Frederic Masson, perpetual secretary of the academy, read the list of prize men for the year, which included many who had fought, and some of whom were killed in the war.

Eugene Prieux, the dramatist, reading his report on the "Prize Vertue" eulogized those who died for France, declaring "the great laureate this year is the poet of the Marne, Champagne and Verdun."

"We have not yet done all," he added. "We must guarantee for the country a happy and prosperous life in the future. Each one of us must consider himself charged with debt. The only way to pay it is to see that the blood and tears shed in the war have not been without humanity."

Hookworm Fight Grows.

New York, Nov. 27.—Growth of the world-wide fight against the hookworm was announced in the annual report of the Rockefeller foundation, made public here.

In the far East and 12 states in the United States, the report says, were enlisted in co-operative work in the campaign last year.

PEOPLE TAXED INTO BOLSHEVISM, BORAH ASSERTS

Idaho Senator Calls on Congress To Turn Its Attention to Americans' Needs.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Calling on congress to turn its attention to the immediate needs of the American people, Senator Borah of Idaho, republican, one of the irreconcilables in the fight against the league of nations, outlined in a formal statement a program for the coming session.

Passage of a bill to declare peace, legislation to "bring order out of chaos in our transportation system," laws to enforce governmental economy and check extravagance, which he characterized as "incredible," a check on profiteering, return of American troops from Russia and a restoration of the peace-time powers of the government in distinction from the wartime powers being maintained were the principal measures Senator Borah advocated.

A declaration of peace, Senator Borah declared, was "desirable more for psychological reasons than anything else," adding that "the advocates of the league continue to harp upon the proposition that we technically are at war in order to disturb business and keep it restless and unsettled."

"One of the greatest and best railroad systems in the world has been wrecked through incompetency and politics," Senator Borah's statement charged, "and in his attack on governmental expenditures he declared 'the people are literally being taxed into bolshevism.'"

Referring to former Secretary McAdoo's recent statement regarding profits of coal operators, Senator Borah declared the profits were permitted under the orders of the administration "which Mr. McAdoo was a member of and that profiteering 'is just as rampant now as it was during the war in certain lines of industry.'"

"The most flagrant and unconscionable profiteering that the country has experienced," he said, "was that which was permitted or actually ordered by the government."

Legislation passed for carrying on the war, Senator Borah charged, "is being maintained and used for the purpose of repressing our own people," the great majority of whom the senate has permitted to be loyal to American institutions.

BEAUTY SECRETS!

Where she gets her good looks, her healthy skin, her pink cheeks, is known to every one, because it is apparent that it is not due to cosmetics, paint and powder. But the true womanly beauty comes from good health, and this good health is a woman's secret.

Health comes with good physical machinery and good spirits, an active digestion. Irish Club Observes Anniversary of the Death of Patriots

The Irish Self-Determination club commemorated last evening the anniversary of the martyrdom of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien, who, for serving the cause of human liberty, were executed by the British government in Manchester in 1867.
