MARKET PLAN OF GOVERNOR TO BE TRIED OUT SOON

Laws Governing Co-Operative Marketing Prepared for Distribution—Producers Offer Crops for Sale.

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Formation of co-operative associations throughout the state, as planned by Governor McKelvie last week, soon will be started. The governor is having printed some pamphlets containing the laws regarding the forming of associations of this kind which will be in the hands of George A. Williams, chief of the bureau of markets and marketing, for distribution. Speaking of the matter Mr. Williams said: "This movement is in the interest of all the people of the state, not only the farmer, but the consumer. The question of the distribution of foodstuffs is at the present time a vital one. The enormous spread between the price received by the producer and that paid by the consumer is a continual source of irritation and is a source of profit to a few individuals. It is the purpose of the bureau of markets and marketing to bring these two classes together and establish if possible a bond of mutual interest. The co-operative laws passed by the legislature in its last regular session make such a work possible and places in the hands of the people in large measure the solution of the problem. The food supplies are secured at reasonable prices by the consuming public is evidenced by the fact that already there have been offered to the bureau of markets and marketing many tons of beans, prunes and honey at prices that are attractive. The services of the bureau of markets and marketing are offered to the people of any town or community in the state and such services may be secured by application to the department.

Governor to Distribute His Address on Code Law

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Governor McKelvie has had printed 4000 copies of the address delivered by him at the conference of governors held in Salt Lake City a couple of months ago for distribution in the different states. This is in pursuance of a request made by the conference after listening to his discussion of the administrative code law, as it is expected to work out in Nebraska. He is printing the address in order to give a personal expense and copies will be sent to the different executives for distribution in libraries and other places where information is likely to be asked for. Besides containing the address, the book has a map showing the method of a person of the different departments and a comparison of the old system with the new.

National Guard Company For Beatrice Is Planned

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—At a meeting of business men and members of old Company C here, preliminary steps were taken for the reorganization of the old company. Col. H. J. Paul of Lincoln, adjutant general of the state, addressed the meeting and stated that as soon as recruits for a company of 100 men and three officers were secured, he would visit Beatrice and perfect the organization, which would then receive its equipment. Members of the old guard company began the work of getting recruits immediately.

Farmer and Wife Flee in Snowstorm as Home Burns

Louisville, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harper, living on a farm three miles east of this city, were forced to face a snowstorm in their night clothing and walk to the home of a neighbor when their home was destroyed by fire. They narrowly escaped with their lives and were unable to save anything. The loss is estimated at $2,500. The building was owned by Mrs. J. H. Thomas.

Secretary to Governor Married to Minden Girl

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—O. H. Zumwinkel, private secretary to Governor McKelvie, and Miss Essie M. Jones of Minden were married Thursday at the home of H. B. Anderson, uncle of the bride. Both are graduates of the State university. The bride was graduated from the domestic science department and for the past 15 months has been in charge of the domestic department of the schools of Juneau, Alaska. Mr. Zumwinkel is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and in 1915 was captain of the track team. He served as an aviator during the war. They will move into their new home at 925 South Fifteenth street, in Lincoln, January 1.

May Change Ruling for New National Guard Companies

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—There is an indication, according to a letter received by Governor McKelvie from Benedict Crowell, that the War department, while not willing to recede from its stand that companies of national guard shall be composed of 100 men at least, now contemplates the formation of companies in two platoons of from 40 to 60 men each where two towns are sufficiently close to each other so they can work together. Mr. Crowell admits that a large number of states have tried to prevail upon the War department to cut the minimum number of a company to 65 men, but he says that in case of war companies would be composed of 250 men and this would mean too many new recruits in a company.

Convention Will Meet Despite Fuel Shortage

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The coal situation will make no difference to the meeting of the constitutional convention next Tuesday. K. Alder of Ainsworth has written Secretary of State Amsbury to know if the session will be postponed because of the coal shortage. Mr. Amsbury has sent word to Mr. Alder that a constitutional convention has to meet on the appointed

"We Ain't Dead Yet"

By BESS FURMAN. Now Socrates, that wise old bard, was very philosophic. "If I must die, I will die hard," he said when on this topic. They handed him the hemlock juice, most poison of things wet. He drained the dregs, then punched his legs, and said, "I ain't dead yet!" The coal strike is an awful thing, it makes us shake and shiver, the dire disaster it may bring, with ice upon the river and frigid blizzards swirling round to freeze the tears that trickle, while frozen is the cold, cold ground, the air one vast icicle. The factories have ceased to go, the trains no longer travel, the wrangling factions tangled so they'll never more unravel. As sure as poison hemlock grows, from thin man to obese, we'll all be starved, as well as froze, a doubly sad demise. As well the shot gun as the rope who voice of the regret. But while there's life there's always hope, and we ain't dead yet!

Elm Creek Man Ends Life, Cuts Throat With Razor

Kearney, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—J. B. Laughlin, 60 years old, of Elm Creek, committed suicide in the hayloft of his barn by slashing his throat with a razor. Mrs. Laughlin found him sometime afterwards. An inquest will not be held. No cause for the action other than failing health could be discovered. His son, Dr. Laughlin, has been summoned from Omaha, where he had gone on professional business.

Man Held on Murder Charge Seeks Change of Venue

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Orlando Langley, Cortland farmer, charged with the murder of Judge Chris Pfeiffer of Cortland last August, asked the district court for a change of venue to Jefferson county or a district tribunal in some other county on the ground that he cannot secure a fair trial here. It is contended that feeling is so strong against the farmer that an impartial jury cannot be obtained.

Jury Dismisses Wisner Man on Liquor Charge

West Point, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Paul Krachen of Wisner, a soft drink dealer, was found not guilty by a jury in county court on a charge of selling cider of a greater strength than the law allows. The testimony showed that the goods found in his place of business, contained one per cent alcohol.

Lay Cornerstone of New Cortland Church Sunday

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The cornerstone of the new $45,000 Pilgrims Congregational church at Cortland will be laid Sunday afternoon with appropriate exercises. Dr. Holmes, the pastor of the First Congregational church at Lincoln, and others will assist in the program.

Baby Girl, Born in Ford Car, Is Christened Henrietta

Pratt, Kan., Nov. 28.—A baby girl born here the other night was named Henrietta, because the stork brought her while her mother was riding in a Ford. The mother is Mrs. Paul Smith of Chicago, who was taken from a Rock Island train.

Land Values Increase.

Ashland, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Land values in this section are constantly increasing. Eli Keiser purchased an unimproved 40 acres adjoining the city on the north six years ago for $5,000. Three years ago he erected a modern home and has just sold the property to E. E. Martin for $25,000.

AMEND RATES ON SHIPMENTS BY MOTOR TRUCKS

Operators Object to Old Rule as Being Too Complicated to Be Practical.

Lincoln, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The state railway commission has issued a revised order covering transportation of freight by auto truck and expects to have printed sufficient orders so that they may be in the hands of all those interested. There has been a number of complaints since the former order went into effect, because of provisions for handling goods for short distances and because of its complexity. It followed about the same classification as the railroads and this was found to be too complicated, especially in regard to condition of shipments as to packing. The new order applies to all persons or corporations operating trucks east of a line running from the western border of Harlan county from the Kansas line to the Dakota line. Suburbs of Lincoln are not included in the order, being considered a part of the city. The schedule of rates is amended to read as follows: First class, 20 cents per cwt. plus 1/2 cents per mile for distances of from one mile to 150 miles; second class, 85 per cent of first class rates; third class, 70 per cent of first class rates; fourth class, 60 per cent of first class rates; all according to the distance shipments are carried from one to 150 miles, minimum charge 50 cents per shipment.

time, coal or no coal. In case the state should run out of coal, which it is not likely as it has a pretty good supply on hand, it might be necessary to take a recess while waiting for somebody to dig coal.

The Bee's Free Shoe Fund

Thanksgiving day was Thursday. Many gave thanks by helping others to a good dinner. Others sent contributions to The Bee's fund which provides shoes for little waifs who are in the grip of bitter poverty. Did you do a part of this? Your gift will be gratefully received and every penny of it will go to buy shoes for little children who, otherwise, could have no shoes this winter. Pandolfo Had Fine Stock Sale Scheme If License Denied

Chicago, Nov. 28.—John Barritt, secretary of the Pan Motor company, told some of the internal functioning of the company when he testified in the trial of 13 Pan officials charged with misuse of the mails. Mr. Barritt is a defendant. Concerning the transaction by which Pandolfo was to have purchased 100,000 shares of Pan stock for the par value of $5 a share instead of the selling value of $10, Mr. Barritt explained that this was done to protect the stockholders and the company itself. "Mr. Pandolfo was afraid that the enemies of the company would succeed in having the license to sell stock canceled in one or more states," he said, "and wanted it in his own name so that he could continue to sell it if this happened. He told me that he would continue to fulfill his part of the contract in disposing of this stock just as he did in selling any of the company stock. The directors, however, did not think the plan a good one and it was not followed."

Paris Archbishop Scores Late Dances and Dresses

Paris, Nov. 28.—Cardinal Amette, archbishop of Paris, today issued a pastoral letter protesting against the immodest toilettes of women and indecent dancing, saying that Christian women and girls ought to abstain from such dressing and such amusements. The cardinal affirms that these dances are exotic by origin and by name. Presumably, he refers to certain American dances which have become the fashion in Paris in recent months.

Gas Company Manager Resigns to Take New Position December 1

Alban M. Sommar, office manager of the Omaha Gas Company, has tendered his resignation and will become vice president and chief accountant of the Dworak Auditing company, beginning December 1. Mr. Sommar has been manager of the gas company here for the past four years, coming to Omaha from Savannah, Ga., where he occupied the position of chief clerk of the gas company in that city.

World-Herald Head Fined for Violation Of State Labor Law

W. G. Crouse, vice president of the World-Herald Publishing Co., publishers of the World-Herald, was fined $25 and costs in central police court yesterday for violation of the state labor law. The complaint was made by Frank A. Kennedy, state labor commissioner, following an investigation of working conditions of the publishing company last May. The specific charge against the publishing company was violation of the state law in the employment of girls in the mailing room of the publishing company after 10 at night. According to the complaint filed by the state labor commissioner, six girls were found to be working from 10 each night until 4 the next morning. A complaint was made against Mr. Crouse last May and the case was continued several times in Central police court. Police Judge Fitzgerald levied the fine upon Mr. Crouse.

Colon Protests Action Of U. S. in Prohibition

Colon, Nov. 28.—Protests have been sent to President Porras by the Chamber of Commerce of Colon declaring that enforcement of prohibition in the canal zone to the letter of the law would interfere with the rights of the republic of Panama in respect to the transportation of liquor between Colon and parts of the republic not reached by the Panama railroad and not accessible except by passing over canal zone territory. There have been no cases of actual interference as yet, but dealers are apprehensive of trouble. The manufacture of caffeine from tea dust is increasing in Japan.

EXPERTS PRAISE SIXTH ANNUAL POULTRY EXHIBIT

Officials From Washington and Lincoln Declare Omaha Show Best Ever Held in the U. S.

The sixth annual poultry show in the Auditorium, which ends today, is not only the largest and most successful ever held here, but is one of the best ever held in the country, according to experts from Washington, D. C., and from the State College of Agriculture at Lincoln, Neb. Exhibits as a whole are of high class, and the prize-winning birds are unexcelled in any community, it is said. Although low temperatures have prevailed since the show opened Monday, members of the Omaha Poultry association express satisfaction at the size of the crowds which have attended, and are especially pleased at the interest which visitors have evinced. The rabbit show, which is being held at the Auditorium in conjunction with the poultry show, is also attracting many, and is said to be one of the most comprehensive displays of rabbits of all kinds ever assembled. Admission to the Auditorium is free. Both shows close tonight.

Boy Dies When Twig Pierces Brain Through His Nostril

Freeport, L. I., Nov. 28.—Pheron Seguire Miller, 11 years old, died here several days ago the victim of one of the most peculiar accidents in medical annals. The lad fell while at play and a twig pierced his brain through the nostril. He was taken to a Manhattan hospital, but died while undergoing an operation for spinal meningitis. The boy was the son of Harry F. Miller. He was playing with some companions near his home, when he fell upon a hydrangea bush, a broken stem penetrating the anterior lobe of the brain. Dr. William H. Runcie managed to extract the twig, but spinal meningitis resulted.

TURKS ASK PEACE TO PREVENT REDS' RULE IN COUNTRY

At Present Government Does Not Control Interior and Plans Are Laid to Float Loan.

Constantinople, Nov. 28.—(By The Associated Press.)—Appeals that early arrangements be made for negotiating a peace treaty, sent by the Sublime Porte to the peace conference in Paris, are said to have been inspired by the fear that Turkey may be plunged into anarchy with no responsible government left to treat with the allies. At the same time the grand vizier is urging country districts to hurry arrangements for elections so that a Parliament may meet here and be ready to discuss the terms of peace. At present the interior of the
