"IN THE interest of American Business. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Washington, D. C., publishes, as its official organ, The Nation's Business. This is sold to business men, members of local Chambers of Commerce and others with the object of extending the influence of the National Chamber of Commerce and creating more of a National viewpoint for organized business.

Because of the character of the organization under whose direction this advertisement is inserted, the men chosen for the work must be of appearance, personality and ability above the average. The men desired are those interested in making a permanent connection with opportunity for advancement; who can furnish bond, when required; willing to travel when necessary, and who are experienced in meeting business men.

Especially interested in high-class, well groomed men of middle age. Specially sales-organizing experience helpful toward rapid advancement. The work is new, interesting and dignified. For a later appointment, address (by letter only) J. G. Woods, Hotel Fontenelle"

TO GIRLS AND MOTHERS OF GIRLS

To YOU and for you this story is written, especially is it meant for girls who are about to embark upon a business career.

Perhaps through necessity you have had to give up the idea of a higher education. Here is your opportunity—our school of instruction offers you a supplement course with remuneration.

This course is given by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's school which is maintained in Omaha and operated by a staff of efficient instructors.

The work itself is very fascinating and a full fledged long lines operator is the important link in weaving the speech of the nation.

You are cordially invited to visit our office where questions concerning this unusual opportunity will be answered in detail.
