

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 15 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day."—John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

ALLEGED CHECK FORGER SAID TO BE ESCAPED MAN

Police Declare Names of Omaha Doctors Were Used by Convict from Two Big Penitentiaries.

Bertillon measurements of an alleged check forger, using the names of Dr. L. A. Tyson and C. C. Huff, brought out the true identification of the man yesterday at Central police station as Louis A. Wheeler, alias L. A. Miller, escaped convict from the penitentiaries of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and San Quentin, Cal., according to the police.

Planned "Dream Castle." With the pretense of establishing a home in Omaha for his wife, who he said was in New Orleans, the man bought a house from Mr. Williams at 1548 South Twenty-fifth avenue, and tendered a check for $200 as first payment. The check was returned marked "No account."

Tells of Big Draft. Police have checks which show that Tyson forged the name, Dr. A. D. Nunn, in payment for two diamond rings at Loftis Brothers, Sixteenth and Farnam streets. The checks on Dr. Nunn amounted to $50 and $75 respectively. In explanation of the alleged forged checks, Tyson said he had deposited a foreign draft for $6,000 in the Omaha National bank. Investigation of the alleged deposit is being made.

Detectives Say They Found Burglary Kit in Room of Omahan

City detectives early yesterday say they found a complete burglary kit and hats, said to have been stolen from the Omaha Hat factory, Fourteenth and Douglas streets, Sunday night, in the rooms of J. C. Brock, 510 South Twenty-second street. Several revolvers were also found in the rooms, police say. Brock was arrested and held for investigation. With him, Robert Williams of Council Bluffs, Eva Lamb, 813 Fifteenth avenue, Council Bluffs, and Christine Dellmore, 1705 Avenue I, Council Bluffs, were also arrested and held for investigation.

Machine Guns, Ordered for Police Department, Arrive. Two Browning machine guns, ordered for the police department following the court house riots, have arrived and are in the office of the chief of police. Squads of policemen will be drilled in the use of the guns. A large stock of ammunition has also been received. An army officer from Fort Omaha explained the working of the guns to policemen.
