

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Careless of censure, nor too fond of fame;
Still pleased to praise, yet not afraid to blame,
Averse alike to flattery or offend;
Not free from fault, nor yet too vain to mend.—Pope

Books cannot always please, however good,
Minds are not ever craving for their food.—Craibe.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. My morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

Keep this old family friend handy for instant use—a little penetrates without rubbing, leaving no skin stains, muck, or clogged pores. You ought to keep a bottle handy always. All druggists. Three sizes—35c., 70c., $1.40.

MOTHERHOOD EXPECTANT MOTHERS PREPARE IN ADVANCE

WOMEN who know the difficulties of motherhood demand that they shall be helped to go thru the strain, and in some cases the danger, of bearing children with complete safety, and with as much comfort as science can give them.

Progress in medical research has given the expectant mother comfort thru Mother's Friend, which spreads its influence over the nerves, cords and ligaments involved, rendering them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand. There is an absence of bearing-down pains, strain and general discomfort, more often than otherwise experienced when nature is unaided.

USED BY THREE GENERATIONS

The women who appreciate Mother's Friend the most, and who are loudest in their praise of it, are those who unfortunately did not use it with their first baby and who, thru its use with the second one, were able to fully realize the almost unbelievable relief it gave.

Heart Beats CLUBDOM

By A. K.

Love the author—
Because of his art—
For his brilliant characters
With bright repartee.
Worship at shrines
Illusive—invisible—
But leave the writer
In peace.
These characters are all
His children of Thought—
They sap his brilliance
Drain him of wit—
Until he is taciturn
Timid and shy—
One might misjudge him
As stupid.
You may picture his locks
As long, straight and dark,
Framing a narrow face
When he really is stout—
Too red and rosy—
With thin gray hair
And curly.

You hope to meet
One quite discrete
Whose serious mind
Gives philosophy—
Whose moralizing
And fine surmising
Uplifts the race—
In print.
But stop!
This author
Is almost frivolous.

There is one you seek
Who writes of warmth—
Fraternity and fairness.
But his life is filled
With self-conceit—
With selfishness and ego.

There's a woman you've pictured
As wistful and wise—
Whose muse
Is tunefully written—
Her prose full of tears
Is appealing and sad
And stirs you to dreams
Unwise—unreal.

You have fancied
This woman litterateur
With mysterious eyes—
And silken tresses—
A figure like Venus—
And features like
Helen of Troy.
Ah me! Be kind!
Seek not to meet them—
Remember
They're best loved
When they are unknown.
Leave them to dreams
To muses and themes—
These authors—your favorites—
Who dwell in the land
Of "Fantasy"
The beautiful realm
Of Thought.
And
Save your pink tea
For Beau Brummels.
