HOG RECEIPTS FOR NOVEMBER SHOW DECREASE

Last Month's Supply Drops to Half of That for November, 1918—Cattle Higher.

As compared with a year ago the prominent feature of receipts of hogs during the month of November is the large decrease, the total supply last month at the local yards registering 136,000 head as compared with 267,499 head during November of 1918.

For the month just passed receipts of cattle are reported to be 218,500 head or 17,000 more than the same month a year ago and within a few thousand of the record breaking November run of 223,253 in 1917.

In sheep the receipts have been slightly heavier than a year ago, the month's total being 218,500 head as against 206,719 for November, 1918.

During the month of November, 1894, the year the stock yards opened, 12,330 cattle were received, with 1,360 head of hogs and 668 head of sheep and receipts have shown a steady gain every year until the present, November, 1903, is the big record-breaker for that month in the receipt of sheep, there being 360,283 head received, while November, 1910, closely follows with 355,649 head of sheep received.

South Side Stock Men Will Attend Meeting of Meat Producers

A large number of the local packing house and commission men have expressed an intention of attending the annual meeting of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association at Des Moines, December 11 and 12.

According to announcements received by local cattlemen, the association has been in existence for past 15 years and during that time has rendered beneficial service to live stock raisers in the way of securing reduced railroad rates and other concessions from the railroads.

An excellent program has been arranged which will include addresses by J. L. Harris of the United States Railroad Administration, Prof. John Erward, hog feeder expert of the Iowa Agricultural college; Prof. O. G. Lloyd of the same college, who will talk on land values; United States Senator John B. Kendrick of Wyoming and State Senator Charles Cessna of Iowa.

The evening of December 11 the annual banquet will be held when an interesting program will be given.

Serious Offense to Steal

An Overcoat On South Side

Edward Downs suffered the terrible loss of his overcoat Monday, Tuesday night, while crossing a Q street viaduct. Downs saw a man wearing the stolen overcoat.

Police answered an S. O. S. call from Downs and arrested Arthur Tunstall, with an overcoat identified by Downs as his property. In police court Wednesday Tunstall told Judge Fitzgerald he bought the overcoat from a man he did not know.

"Old stuff," said Judge Fitzgerald as he assessed a fine of $25 and costs after judging Tunstall guilty of larceny. "It ought to be a capital offense to steal an overcoat this kind of weather, with the coal shortage looming up so strong," observed the judge to Tunstall as he was taken to jail.

FAMILIES OF THE DEPORTED REDS TO GO WITH THEM

Immigration Commissioner Declares Berkman and Goldman Will Be Sent to Soviets in Russia.

New York, Dec. 3.—Families of anarchists are to be deported with them to soviet Russia, according to a telegram received today by Harry Weinberger, counsel for Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, from Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration.

"If you represent any alien ordered deported to Russia who has a family, file your application for family to accompany such alien and the same will be given consideration," the message said. "The government will deport them to soviet Russia at the earliest practicable date."

Caminiti's telegram, the attorney said, also made it clear the radicals would be delivered to red guards in Russia when deported, and not to the hostile white guards.

Weinberger's renewed request for a stay of the surrender of Berkman and Goldman till Monday was refused today by the Department of Labor and he said they would be surrendered at the time ordered.

Berkman was expected to arrive here today from Chicago with Miss Goldman following him. Weinberger said today he would institute habeas corpus proceedings in both cases immediately after they had been surrendered.

U. S. Captain, Given 25 Years, Released On Habeas Corpus

Leavenworth, Kan., Dec. 3.—David A. Henkes, former army captain, who was court-martialed early in the war and sentenced to serve 25 years in the disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth for alleged disloyalty, will be released tomorrow upon a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge John C. Pollock of the United States district court, it was learned today.

Judge Pollock's decision declares that the court-martial was illegally constituted, being made up entirely of retired army officers, and restored Henkes to his rank of captain in the regular army.

At the outbreak of the war Henkes, whose father was born in Germany, tendered his resignation, saying he could not make war upon blood relations. His resignation was refused and the court-martial followed.

Army Air Coast Patrol Put Into Effect Yesterday

Minneapolis, N. Y., Dec. 3.—The army air coast patrol went into service today when two DeHavilland machines each manned by a pilot and an observer, left here for Langley field, Virginia. They expected to make the trip of 325 miles in four hours and return over the same course tomorrow. The observers, who are instructed to watch for signs of ships in distress, will bring to Col. Archie Miller, commanding all army aviation fields on Long Island, a detailed report of all incoming and outgoing ships sighted during the flight.

Lt. E. H. Manzelman and Lucas V. Beau, both army fliers of long experience, are the pilots of the machines and they are carrying Master Electrician Henry Meyers and Orville W. Haynes as observers.

Nitrate Prices Raised

Valparaiso, Chile, Dec. 3.—Nitrate producers announce an advance in prices to 10 shillings, 6 pence per ton owing to the increase in wages recently granted, and to higher railroad rates. It is estimated that 500,000 tons will be sold and shipped this season.

Hay Speculators Profit By Snowfall, He Claims

"Hay speculators are reaping a rich harvest, caused by the present heavy snowfall," said H. H. Corner of Dorsey, who was a visitor at the stock yards Wednesday with a load of steers.

"A lot of cattle are being held at loading stations waiting for cars," said Corner, "and their owners are compelled to feed them until cars are secured. West of O'Neill head hay is selling at $18 and $20 a ton."

Moecherich, 1214 S. 17th street. The wedding was a quiet affair with but immediate relatives of the contracting couple present.

James Shaw of Oak Junction, Wyo., was a visitor at the stock yards Wednesday, making preparations for the shipment of several carloads of cattle to feeding pens in Texas. Shaw is president of the Wyoming Stockgrowers' association and a veteran cattle man, who has been doing business at the local yards for a long time.

PHILIP'S DEPARTMENT STORE. The Fastest Growing Store in Omaha. You win any day on Philip's weekly prices!

According to R. N. O'Dell, of Moorcroft, the Burlington railroad has been so busy the past few days handling cars from Wyoming mines on the Sheridan division, that the Burlington wants to stand still. He said an embargo was placed on the shipment of cattle from his division in October because he had nothing but coal would be handled. Cars were not taking much of the early week, and as a result prices were all the way from weak to a quarter lower.
