

PANDOLFO MUST BE CONVICTED, SAYS LANDIS

Refuses to Take Case From Jury and Says Conviction of Promoter Is Necessary.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The case of S. C. Pandolfo, promoter and president of the Pan Motor Car company of St. Cloud, Minn., and 12 other officials of the company charged with conspiracy to use the mails to defraud was given to the jury at 10:20 o'clock tonight.

Judge Landis refused motions by defense lawyers to instruct the jury to find defendants not guilty.

"It is only for the court to end the prosecution where there is no evidence at all against the defendant—not to put his own interpretation on evidence which admits of two interpretations," said the judge in the absence of the jurors.

He continued that in the case of S. C. Pandolfo the evidence not only made it possible, but necessary, to convict him, in his opinion. He discussed the case of the other 12 defendants, ending with the eight directors of the corporation who live in St. Cloud, Minn., the site of the Pan plant.

Contemptible Sales.

"I have a lot of sympathy for what you said about these eight men," he told Senator R. B. Brower. "I am not saying what I would do as a juror, but as a judge I cannot dismiss them now."

"One thing I must say I cannot understand—that is the professions of enduring confidence which these men have expressed in the author of all this."

"There is another thing I want to say and that is that the affirmative willingness of the corporation to take Liberty bonds for its stock is not nice. I'll go farther than to say it isn't nice. It is a contemptible way to sell stock."

Ben Epstein opened the argument for the prosecution by outlining Pandolfo's career in Texas and New Mexico. He held up his financial dealings and said they proved him to be dishonest. He said that bonds of the Pan company promotion of stock were given away for letters of recommendation.

To Jury Saturday.

Coming down to the resolution of September 7, 1917, by which the directors gave Pandolfo the spending of 25 per cent of the proceeds from stock sales under their supervision, the attorney charged that this was a premeditated subterfuge to aid trouble with the Minnesota State Securities commission. There was a session of court tonight in an effort to get the case to the jury tomorrow. Arguments on both sides are limited to six hours.

The general charge against the 13 defendants is that of using the mails to obtain money by false pretenses and of entering into a conspiracy to do this. The punishment is a maximum of five years imprisonment for the conspiracy and two years for every count of the indictment proven against the defendant. The judge may, however, make the sentence as light as he pleases. There are nine counts in the indictment against the Pan Motor officials.

Will Ship No Goods To Any Miner or to Mining Community

Chicago, Dec. 5.—John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, announced Friday that members of his organization had begun a boycott of clothing, food, fuel and other necessities against the striking coal miners.

He said members of the association are conducting the boycott against the strikers, who are responsible for the fuel famine which has paralyzed the business of the country.

Secretary Glenn received a letter from one of his members which read:

"I have held up every order that comes from a mining community and I will continue to hold up such orders so long as the strike is on and they are preventing coal from coming to us."

LABOR APPEAL WILL BE MADE BY MINERS IN IOWA

Competent Workmen Will Be Urged to Operate Mines To Relieve the Shortage.

Des Moines, Dec. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Iowa coal operators are planning on issuing an appeal Tuesday to competent labor to operate coal mines. This was apparent upon receipt by the operators of a reply from President J. C. Lewis of Iowa miners to the ultimatum of the operators. Lewis was appealed to and asked to request miners to return to work. Lewis said there was nothing he could do as the strike order had been withdrawn by Judge Anderson.

"Why don't you deal fairly with the public if you're solicitous of their interests?" Lewis asks. "The international union called the strike and they have withdrawn the strike order in compliance with Judge Anderson's mandate. As you know, I had nothing to do with ordering the strike and of course since the order has been withdrawn by the international union there is nothing further that I can do."

State Fuel Administrator Charles Webster issued a state-wide closing order today to save fuel. # KIPLING URGES REVERENCE FOR THE HERO DEAD

Asks Tourists Who Visit French and Flanders Fronts to Remember Deeds of Victorious Armies.

London, Dec. 5.—Rudyard Kipling, on behalf of the imperial war graves commission, has written an earnest appeal to those visiting, or intending to visit, the French and Flanders fronts to observe reverence for the dead. In part he writes:

"It should be remembered this is holy ground—consecrated in every part by the lives of men, and for that reason not to be run over with levity. It is inevitable that the handling of such multitudes of sightseers as are expected next year must be managed along ordinary tourist lines, so it rests with the individual tourist to have respect for the spirit that lies upon that land of desolation and to walk through it with reverence."

"It is said there is a tendency on the part of some visitors to forget this obligation. Nothing would be gained by giving specific instances of what, after all, is more in the nature of unthinking carelessness than intentional disrespect, but the imperial war graves commission has asked me to express our earnest hope that all who visit the battle areas will bear in mind that at every step they are in the presence of those dead through the merit of whose sacrifice they enjoy their present life and whatever measure of freedom is theirs today."

REPUBLICANS TO FORCE BUDGET ON ADMINISTRATION

Also Engaged in Plan to Cut Out 30,000 to 40,000 Clerks in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Republican leaders of the house today decided to ask department heads to help reduce the $5,000,000,000 estimates for next year's appropriations.

In effect, an effort will be made to create informally a budget, but leaders agreed that a big deficit by July 1921, the end of the next fiscal year, was certain, and Chairman Good, of the appropriations committee, other chairmen and the legislative steering committee estimated that it would be around $3,000,000,000. The deficit at the end of this fiscal year, next June, was estimated at $3,900,000,000.

Speaker Gillet, who presided, said that the $5,000,000,000 expenditures without any deficit resulting at the end of the fiscal year, will require between $8,000,000,000 and $9,000,000,000 of revenue.

As a first step toward economy, Chairman Good announced that efforts would be made to reduce the number of government clerks in Washington. Work on clerk hire bill was begun today, with some members favoring a legislative rider which would place all clerks
