WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

The air bites shrewdly; it is very cold.
It is a nipping and an eager air.

Gives Christmas Ballet

Pleasant Holyoke

Optimism is the slogan of the energetic matrons who are doing the committee work for the Christmas ballet to be presented by Miss Pleasant Holyoke on the evening of December 18 at the Brandeis theater. The present shortage of coal has not lessened their enthusiasm and they hope that the theater will be available on the evening of the 18th; if not, the ballet will be produced at a later date. Mrs. Myron Learned has completed an appealing theme,

Camp Fire Girls

The regular monthly meeting of the Omaha Guardian association was held Thursday afternoon at the Rome hotel. The annual election of officers took place at this meeting and the following were elected: Chairman, Miss Bertha Vaughan; vice chairman, Mrs. Gladys Hoyt; secretary, Mrs. Mildred Hamilton, and treasurer, Miss Ruth Bracken. A very enthusiastic "sing" was held at the Community house on Saturday, when the girls practiced their Christmas carols. After the "sing" the girls listened to a short talk by Dr. Amanda Bray.

Campfire groups who have not turned in the red stockings for the children of devastated France are urged to do so at once.

The Minnehaha group, with Miss Mary Louise Guy acting as guardian, held a business meeting at the home of Eleanor Ritchie Wednesday afternoon.

The Wobigton group met at the home of their guardian, Mrs. August Paulson, Tuesday afternoon and checked up honors and turned in their Christmas stockings.

The Lexse group, with Miss Guy acting as guardian, met at the home of Mildred Flannigan and wrote hospital letters to their guardian, Miss Bernice Huxton, who is ill.

The Canwaste group (Road of the Loving Heart) held a meeting Monday at the home of their guardian, Mrs. C. R. Hamilton. Plans for a coasting party were made at this time. These girls are working for the Red Cross Christmas seals and have received many orders.

Miss Mabel Rasmussen's group, Wahuwasti, met Friday at the home of Lucile Brown to dress dolls and make scrap books for the Orphanage for Christmas.

The Toheha group, Miss Bertha Vaughan, guardian, met Friday at the guardian's home and made yarn balls for the Child's Saving institute

To Return Home

Emily Burke

One of Omaha's most attractive school girls who will return home for the holidays is Miss Emily Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burke. She is a junior at Vassar college. It is expected that Miss Burke will arrive December 20. Her brother, Edward Burke, jr. is now a sophomore at the Taft preparatory school at Watertown, Conn. It is probable that he will return with his sister. A number of informal affairs will be given in honor of this brother and sister.

The girls have also finished their baskets for Christmas. Miss Gladys Shamp's group, Assandawi, held a business meeting on Tuesday at the home of Helen Williams.

Mrs. R. B. Macdougall's group, Alahi, met with Hazel Kisor Friday and dressed dolls and made scrap books for the children in the hospitals.

The Ocowasin group with Mrs. L. N. Peoples, guardian, had a sewing bee at the home of Dorothy Williams. They are dressing dolls and making scrap books for the children for Christmas. This group filled a lovely basket for a needy family at Thanksgiving.

The Akita group (Seekers), Mrs. C. J. Hubbard, guardian, will hold a council fire Monday at the home of Mrs. C. R. Hamilton. Elizabeth Patton will receive honors.

The Raosu group, Miss Ruth Peterson, guardian, are planning to give a Christmas dinner to a needy family. Their last meeting was held at the home of Cornelia Gilbert, when two new girls were voted on.

Tea for Visitor.
Mrs. T. F. Kennedy will entertain at tea Sunday afternoon at her home in honor of her sister, Mrs. Flora Stanton Kalk of Washington, D. C., who is her guest. Chrysanthemums will be used as decorations throughout the rooms.

Informal Supper.
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nesbit entertained informally at a supper party Friday evening.

D. A. R. Musical.
Mrs. Charles T. Kountze will be hostess Tuesday, December 9, to the Omaha chapter, D. A. R., when a musical and social program will be given. State Regent, Mrs. Frank I. Ringer of Lincoln, will be an honor guest.

Mrs. Robert Forgan of New York City will arrive next week to remain over the holidays with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Congdon. Mr. Forgan will arrive in time for Christmas.
