

GIRL KILLS SELF, LEAVING NOTE TO STRAYING LOVER

Say Louella McIntire Was Estranged From Sweetheart Because of Another Woman.

Said to be estranged from her sweetheart because of another woman, Louella McIntire, 24 years old, committed suicide by gas asphyxiation in her room at 1918 Cass street, Sunday night. Her body was found at 8 yesterday morning by Ben Turpen and Chris Suager, roomers at the same place.

A jet of a small gas stove in the room was found open and the place filled with gas. The windows of the room were closed tightly. According to Police Sergeant Edstrom, the girl had been dead for four hours.

A farewell note inscribed on the back of a picture of the dead girl, told a story of the estrangement of her sweetheart. It read:

Note to Sweetheart.
"Ray, Write me soon. I don't care to see you but would like to get a letter, Ray. I don't love you any more and goodbye, if I never see you again. Love is staying with me. If you care to see me, come to 1918 Cass street."
"Louella McIntire."

Letters found in the girl's trunk indicated that she had come to Omaha from Meno, Okl.

Police say the girl became dependent through the unrequited love of her former sweetheart, known as "Ray."

Can't Locate Man.
Efforts to locate him through descriptions given out by acquaintances of Miss McIntire were in vain.

The "other woman" mentioned in the triangular love affair is Lena Lemzer, a former room-mate of the McIntire girl, police say. Officers were unable to locate the Lemzer girl.

At the request of other roomers at 1918 Cass street, Miss Eva Bennett, landlady of the place, interfered with the quarrels of the Lemzer and the McIntire girls over the man "Ray," according to police.

Says Girls Quarreled.
Mrs. Phil Sillert, a close acquaintance of the McIntire girl, says trouble arose between the Lemzer and the McIntire girls last week because "Ray left his sweetheart and went with the other."

Mrs. Toney Major, another acquaintance of the dead girl, said: "I heard loud talking in the McIntire girl's room last night between her and Miss Lemzer. They were arguing over 'Ray.' The McIntire girl accused Miss Lemzer of vamping her sweetheart. It was at a late hour that Miss Lemzer left the room."

Say She Was Married.
Police say the McIntire girl had been married to a man named Sallee in Wellington, Kan. Several letters found in the dead girl's room were addressed "Miss Louella McIntire." Others were addressed "Mrs. Louella Sallee McIntire."

Mrs. Bennett told police she has known the girl several weeks as "Miss McIntire."

Two days ago, following a quarrel between the McIntire and the Lemzer girl in their room on the first floor at 1918 Cass street, police say the landlady sought to reconcile them, and, having failed, asked the Lemzer girl to leave the place. Miss McIntire was given a room on the third floor.

The father of the dead girl visited with her two days ago, roomers at the place said. Police said the girl's family at Meno, Okla., of her death. The body was taken in charge by N. P. Swanson, undertaker, Seventeenth and Cuming street.

GIRLS! A MASS OF WAVY, GLEAMY BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Let "Danderine" save and glorify your hair

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the Danderine and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous, fluffy and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed. Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.
