Spy Was Sane

Mata Hari.

The body of Mata Hari, the beautiful woman spy who was shot to death by a French firing squad during the war, was disinterred and dissected for purposes of scientific study at the College of Surgeons, according to a dispatch from Paris. The professors reported that her brain was absolutely normal in every respect. The story of the activities of Mata Hari in the European capitals during the world war reads like a novel. She eluded allied agents until her capture in Paris, where she was tried before a court-martial and sentenced to death.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Yesterday The fangs of Pain Clawed deep wounds Into my soul— From the infernal regions Came the grief Which killed belief In God and man, And Things. My friends On my fingers I counted— Their faithfulness Was but A "changing mirage Transient and untrue" Against all reason I longed for Love— When too well I knew The grief it bears. Adrift On the sea of impulses My heart! Was but fotsam From the tide of emotions— Dripping away from The Ship of Hope. But Today the world Is a merry-go-round— And the starter's whistle A signal from Future To "Go." There is an ether Filling the air Since early morn— When the dawn broke Shell pink— Draped with opal blues— And I became mother Of another child— A child of the brain— A new idea. The pain— The grief— The mood— Must come— The darkest hour Is before the dawn. So If from these moods And sad depressions A worthwhile fancy Finds the light Then I shall gladly Pay the price— The price of pain To mother the infant Of a great idea. —SELAH.

CLUBBING

NO school, plenty of snow, hills everywhere, whoopla! Sleas and skis may be seen these days in any part of our city. What boy would rather be in sunny California now than gliding over the smooth soft, white covering so gently laid over Nebraska's rich soil? Glorious winter! Exhilarating sport! What boy, did we say? What man, woman, or child, it should be. A middle-aged, dignified woman with her three children was seen coasting on Sunday. She was not the only rejuvenated grownup. One of Omaha's brainiest, best dressed men suddenly found himself at the scene of a snow romp the other day. He had no sled, no skis, and was wearing his "Sunday" clothes. All this was forgotten and for an hour he "slid," rolled, ran and tumbled around on a white hillside along with the other "kids" young and old. He proved that the poet knew what he was talking about when he said: "Men are only boys grown tall, Hearts don't change much after all."

The Omaha Walking club was out Sunday for its regular hike, and goodness only knows how many angels they made in the snow, or how many games of fox and geese were played. Omaha is fortunate with her hills—unless you happen to be a delivery boy—for in winter they afford natural toboggans all over the city and in summer their picturesque beauty inspires love for the "home town," and real conversation. To him who in the love of nature holds communion with her visible forms. What protection are we giving our happy children from street traffic? Boy Scouts are doing noble duty as sentries on some hills, but if the youth of Omaha needs more safeguarding for their healthy, natural, inspiring fun on our sloping streets, we should provide it without delay.

Winter was announced some months ago by Minnesota as candidate for election to presidency at the biennial meeting to be held in Des Moines, Ia., next June. Miss George A. Bacon of Massachusetts, at present first vice president and director of thrift in the general federation, is now presented by her state as candidate for this high office. Mrs. William S. Jennings of Florida, wife of former governor of that state, and herself a former president of the state federation of Florida, and at present a director to the general federation, is endorsed by her state for the first vice presidency. Mrs. B. B. Clark of Red Oak, Ia., is candidate for re-election as general federation treasurer.

Christmas Gifts. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: As I notice a good many readers seek advice from you, I am going to ask if you would kindly mention a few articles which would be suitable to give a lady friend as a Christmas gift. I might add that we are not engaged, but just very good friends. Thanking you in advance and hoping to see an answer to this in print at an early date, I am respectfully,

A READER OF THE BEE. Books, flowers and bonbons are always an unimpeachable choice. Personal jewelry is not appropriate as a gift under the circumstances you describe. Fancy vase, an ornamental clock, a framed picture, letter opener, Red Cross first aid case, manicure set in leather case, monogram toilet set as many pieces as you like, fancy handkerchiefs and many more articles I could name. But these will offer suggestions.

A Young Mother. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Do you know where one could obtain the address of a children's home in St. Louis, Mo.? Are there children's homes where one may leave a baby and pay for its care? I must work and cannot care for my 6-month-old baby girl. Do you think advertising one might find some one to care for her by the day? What are some of the names of the St. Louis newspapers? Thanking you in advance,

EIGHTEEN TODAY. St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Post-Dispatch and Republic are some of the daily papers. Write to the employment secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and she will tell you how to proceed.

Mrs. A. L. E.—An interesting form of entertainment at a "shower" is this: Supply your guests with sheets of cardboard the size of ordinary history note-book sheets, also paste, scissors and old magazines. Label each sheet of cardboard with some suggestion, such as "Our honeymoon," "Our home," "Ten years from now," "Our quarrels," "Old age," "Our outings," etc. Give each guest one of these sheets and ask him to carry out the idea in some way. They will clip up the magazines, paste and label the pictures. You will get a great deal of fun from the clever ideas developed. When they are completed, tie the sheets together with a ribbon and present them to the bride-to-be.

Today We Go Even Further

Fifty years ago—before Sir Joseph Lister founded antiseptic surgery—surgical operations often were followed by gangrene and blood poisoning. Today such consequences are rare exceptions, and medical science has so extended the idea of sickness prevention that the great plagues of the past no longer ravage the world. Serums, vaccines, anti-toxins, sanitation—all stand guard before the citadel of health. Now science has developed an effective agent against that general condition that underlies 70% of all human disease—constipation. That effective agent is Nujol. Leading medical authorities agree that pills, salts, castor oil, etc., simply force and weaken the system. Nujol softens the food waste and encourages the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today. For valuable health hints—"Thirty Feet of Danger"—from Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, N. Y.

HOW A SICK DOCTOR REGAINED HIS HEALTH

Young doctor 27 years old was told by several eminent physicians that he could not live, but discovered a remarkable formula that restored his health.

In 1898 Dr. A. L. Reusing of Akron, Ohio, had just completed his course at medical college. He had paid his way through medical college by working nights as a telegrapher. Overwork and over-study had undermined his health, and he consulted many specialists, but they all pronounced him incurable and said that he could live only a few months. But Dr. Reusing determined that if he must die, he would find the cause, since none of the physicians could diagnose his disease positively. Knowing that without oxygen the body dies, he began a thorough investigation of the effect of oxygen on the blood. He studied Prof. Virchow's famous "Cell Theory," which proves that the body is only a collection of cells and that there are twelve cell-salts that nourish and maintain the cells of the body. Just as a flower droops and dies for lack of water, so the cells wither and die for lack of their natural cell-salts. He knew that the red blood cells carry the iron in the blood and that iron attracts oxygen just as a magnet attracts steel. He learned that by increasing the amount of iron in the blood, the iron attracted the oxygen from the air in the lungs into the blood exactly as the magnet attracts steel. He found that oxygen oxidizes or burns up the impurities, germs, and torn-down cells that are found in the blood. Through careful research he learned the cell-salts that nature requires to feed the cells and maintain health. This led to the discovery that the health of the body is governed entirely by the health of the blood and that if the blood is rich in oxygen, plasma and iron, and supplied with the natural cell-salts that nourish and maintain the health, vigor and vitality of the cells, the whole body glows with health, strength and energy.

Relentlessly Dr. Reusing made his scientific researches and investigations until his efforts were crowned with success. He discovered a formula which combines the natural cell-salts that feed and nourish the cell of the tissues, nerves, fluids, brain and bones of the body and rapidly increases the supply of oxygen, iron and plasma of the red blood cells, which revitalize and rebuild the entire body. This formula—discovered in a desperate effort to preserve his own life—proved so successful that he gradually restored his health and soon became strong and vigorous. Dr. Reusing is now 47 years old and his ruddy cheeks, bright eyes and vigorous health are irrefutable evidences of the strength-renewing, blood-purifying, health-building properties of his formula. For nearly 20 years Dr. Reusing has prescribed this formula for thousands of patients in his private practice with wonderful success. The medical profession has recognized its therapeutic value for the treatment of diseases. So many people have been benefited and restored to health by Dr. Reusing's formula and he is so thoroughly convinced of its therapeutic action by thousands of case records in his own practice, that he has decided to supply this formula, which he has named "REOLO," to the public through registered druggists, who are licensed distributors of the Dr. A. L. Reusing Laboratories, Akron, Ohio. Each package of "REOLO" contains 100 tasteless tablets, enough for two weeks' treatment. It is not expensive. It only costs $1.00 a package and is positively guaranteed to give beneficial results or your money will be returned. REOLO is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., 18th and Dodge, 24th and Farnam, 49th and Dodge, 16th and Harney, 19th and Farnam, who are the licensed distributors.

Careful Providers Are Using Troco

Not alone because it saves them 25 to 40 cents every pound. That would be negligible if Troco were not a real luxury—delicious, nutritious and satisfying. Troco is made from the two great food essentials of the Tropic and Temperate Zones. The dainty nut fat extracted from the white meat of fresh coconuts, is churned with pasteurized milk. Troco flavor is inimitable. Troco is churned and shipped every day, on ice, to insure its freshness and sweetness. If your dealer will order frequently and keep his stock in the ice box, your Troco will come to your table in all its original freshness and sweetness, just as it comes from the churn. If you have trouble in getting Troco in perfect condition, write direct to the Troco Nut Butter Company, Chicago. We are obliged to label Troco "oleomargarine" because of old laws, enacted before this nut-made food was invented. Law also denies us the right to color in churning. Do you consider such discrimination fair? Write your congressman about it. Send for Troco Recipe Book. The Troco Recipe Book, a practical little volume, prepared by Ida C. Bailey Allen, gladly sent free on request. Address Troco Nut Butter Co., 30 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and mention your dealer's name. For sale by all dealers.
