An "Ominous Calm." The confusion was followed by what one of the outer congregation when the session finally ended, President Johnson was one of the first to leave and he was quickly followed by a majority of his sup-porters. The so-called "insurgents" remained for further consultation with their attorneys. They refused to make any general statement other than to say that the fight would be continued and that President Johnson had been served with summons and in three new legal actions. While no authoritative outline of these actions could be gained it was understood that they will involve matters referring to the legality of Johnson's long term contract, damages to the New York club and demand for legal fees in connection with a special investigation regarding in American league telegraph service contract.

During the meeting Connie Mack of the Philadelphia club moved that a resolution be adopted providing for a fine of $1,000 for any club which tampered with any player, the property of another club of the league. This proposition was tabled for a year. A Matter of Record.

The resolutions adopted by the outgoing board of directors referred generally to the Carl Mays case, the cause of the split in the league the cause of the split in the league ranks and the duties and actions of Huskers Crippled by Johnson as president. They were 12 in number, adopted that they might become a matter of record for future action in or out of court. In part they charge an invasion of the powers of the board of directors, wrongful use of umpires' information, ignoring of directors' resolutions; refusal to aid in the selection of a new chairman of the national commission; violation of the con-ditions of his employment by the two sterling players in Wednesday's league and declaring his contract of 1910, calling for a salary of $30,-000 per year for 20 years as president of the league, a violation of the constitution and ordering that Did Not Believe It Possible for Tanlac to Restore Mrs. Sheets.

"I couldn't begin to tell all the good Tanlac has done my wife if I stood here and talked for weeks," said Earle Sheets, a machinist, who lives at Delavan, Ill., while in Sutlif & Case's Drug Store in Peoria, Ill., recently. Continuing, he said:
"My wife's health has been so bad for the last seven years that it was almost impossible for her to do her housework. She had scarcely any appetite to speak of and when she did manage to eat a little something it would sour, gas would form, and she would bloat terribly and be in perfect misery. She was very pletely exhausted her. Her nerves were in awful bad condition and the least little noise out of the ordinary would upset her. She had an unsleep and would get up in the morning all tired out. She had been in this condition and suffered so long and had taken so many different medicines without getting any beneany better, and she would become awfully blue at times.

"She was in this condition when she started taking Tanlac and almost immediately her health began to improve. I was surely surprised that Tanlac began to help her so soon, and not only was I surprised, but the whole neighborhood out there at Delavan where we live, is talking about her wonderful recovery. She had taken only three bottles of Tanabout her wonderful recovery. lac before she was on the road to complete recovery. She took a few more, and today she is as well as she ever was in her life. She now has a fine appetite and everything she eats agrees with her perfectly. Her nerves are in perfect condition and she can sleep well all night long and always gets up in the morning feeling greatly refreshed.

The people in Delavan all say that a medicine that will do for a person in such bad condition as my wife was what Tanlac did for her should be told about and announced in public places for the benefit of everybody that needs help. As for myself, I am going to tell everybody I get a chance."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forrest and Meany Drug Company in gist in each city and town through-South Omaha and the leading drug-out the state of Nebraska.—Adv.
