Triple Entente With France and Italy May Result From Conferences In London.

By L. R. MURDOCH.

The British government refuses to make any comment upon the treaty situation in America, fearing that any public official statements might jeopardize ratification of the pact, for the hope persists in many quarters that the United States may put its final O. K. on the treaty and league. The British government wishes to avoid everything that might appear like meddling in the affairs of the United States.

Cecil Harmsworth, under-secre-tary of state in the foreign office, went to Italy ostensibly on a mis-sion in connection with food relief. His return, however, was followed by the visit of the Italian foreign minister, who in the last few days has been having important star chamber conferences with Lord Curzon, the British foreign minister, and Harmsworth.
