CLUBBING

Theatricals.
Billie Burke is starring in "Caesar's Wife" in New York City. It is presented by Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr.

Laurette Taylor of "Peg o' My Heart" fame, is playing in "One Night in Rome" at the Mayflower theater in Providence, R. I.

"The Rise of Silas Lapham" is being given at the Garrick theater in New York City with James K. Hackett in the title role.

Paris is interested in the possible production of one or more notable plays by Edmond Rostand. There is a "Don Juan" which is reported to be in two important acts, and which, presumably, is destined for the stage of the Porte Saint-Martin theater, where "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "Chantecler" were presented.

"Roland" according to representatives of the Rostand estate, is in the poet's finest vein. This tragedy is considered to be ready for presentation, but no prospective theater or producer is mentioned. No definite plans are announced as to what disposition will be made of the "Faust" which Rostand long had under consideration with a view to providing a Mephisto role for Bernhardt and a Faust role for Le Bargy.

Sir Harry Lauder is touring the Pacific northwest.

Booth Tarkington's new comedy, "Clarence," is running at the Hudson theater in New York.

St. Matthias Bazar.

The Ladies' guild of St. Matthias church will hold its annual bazar at the residence of Mrs. A. C. Kugel, 830 Forest avenue, Saturday, December 13, from 1 to 10:30 p. m. Aprons, fancy work, home cooking and refreshments will be for sale.

Chapter M. P. E. O.

Chapter M of the P. E. O. sisterhood will meet for luncheon Saturday with Mrs. C. C. Wilson, 2414 E. street. Miss Grace McLane will be assistant hostess.

War Work Council of Y. W. C. A. Continues Daily Lectures

Dr. Amelia Brandt.

Dr. Amelia Brandt of Omaha is one of the staff of four medical lecturers who are carrying on an educational program in Omaha this week under the War Work Council, Y. W. C. A. The schedule of Saturday meetings is as follows:

2:30 P. M.—Neighborhood meeting, 1623 Locust street, Mrs. Johnson; neighborhood meeting, 7915 North Thirtieth street, House of Hope; 3:15 p. m., P. E. O., 3820 South Twenty-sixth street, Mrs. Perry; 3:30 p. m., Camp Fire Girls, War Camp Community House.

Short Sleeve Returns.

Very cautiously the short sleeve is returning to use. It is appearing on afternoon and evening gowns, but so far has not made its debut as an adjunct to the tailored street costume; but this, they say, is soon to come. The version of the newest short sleeve is a narrow beel shape. It sets snugly in the armhole and falls to a depth reaching an inch or so above the elbow. This sleeve may be trimmed with braid, embroidery and for evening wear, with lace.

A modernized kimono sleeve, cut in one with the bodice, and a short, open-topped sleeve with a long dip or point hanging beneath the arm, have become popular for afternoon and evening gowns, and these, to be ultra smart, remain untripped.

A combination of satin and georgette crepe is used in a theater and restaurant gown, and for this the sleeve and bodice are developed in the satin, while the skirt uses the crepe in a half-dozen tiers of accordion pleated flounces. This original arrangement of opaque bodice and sheer skirt gives an excellent result, and it is one easily adapted to the coaching of evening and odd materials. Velvet and lace or taffeta and silk net might readily be used to make an excellent adaptation of this Paris novelty—but remember to leave the sleeves short and without trimming.

Visiting Nurse Association.

Miss Florence McCabe and Miss Charlotte Townsend will leave Sunday for Chicago where they have been called to attend a conference of public health nurses, central division Red Cross, December 15, 16 and 17.

Benson Story Hour.

Mrs. John Giles will meet with the children of Benson for their "story hour" in the rest room of the fire hall, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Christmas and fairy stories will be told.

Lawton Auxiliary.

The Gen. Henry W. Lawton auxiliary to U. S. W. V. met Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Sara Sullivan; senior vice president, Mrs. David Olsen; junior vice president, Mrs. Della Polley; chaplain, Mrs. Blanch Kohler; secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Birdsell; treasurer, Mrs. Rosa Belle Whisenand; historian, Mrs. Addie Travis; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Anna Miller; conductor, Mrs. M. J. Stett; assistant conductor, Mrs. Mamie Haney; guard, Mrs. Minnie Thompson.

English Women Who Want Votes Are Kind to Poor.

The duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, and whose intention to become a candidate for the first suitable vacancy in Parliament, was reported a few days ago, has since her election to the London city council last year concerned herself largely with the question of housing the poorer people. She is reputed to be remarkably popular among her constituents, who inhabit one of the dingiest neighborhoods of South London.

If she should be elected to Commons she may be expected to contribute to debates there, as she has already done in discussions by the county council.

The duchess is described in today's Mirror as "quite an orator, having the gift of knowledge, what to say, when and how to say it and also when to leave off."

Noodle Pudding Recipe.

One cup of flour, one egg, one-fourth teaspoon salt, three tablespoons water.

Sift the salt and flour. Beat the egg and add the water. Add the liquid to the flour and make a stiff dough. Roll out on a board and let dry. Cut into fine strips and cook in salted water until tender. Drain and mix with one apple chopped fine, one-half cup raisins, four tablespoons brown sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon and three tablespoons melted fat. Put in a well greased baking dish and bake in a moderate oven 25 minutes. Any kind of fruit may be added. A tart jelly or nuts or both may be used with the mixture if desired.

Resinol
for that ugly skin trouble

Don't let that itching spot of eczema or similar skin trouble continue to annoy you. It is not only embarrassing—it will eventually affect your nerves. Resinol Ointment will usually relieve the burning and itching at once, and in most cases clear the trouble away in a short time. It is cooling and healing, and its gentle ingredients soothe while they heal.

RESINOL SHAVING STICK contains these same qualities, making it ideal for men with tender skins.

At all drug stores.

Interior Decorations

There are dozens of items in interior decorating and furnishings that belong irrevocably to big houses and spacious duplex apartments. Yet among them are many that might be copied in small houses and apartments, if one thought about them. These are suggestions which have occurred to one observant woman. They are rather interesting.

There is the bed on a raised dais. It has distinction, and you do not need to live in a large house in the city to copy it. The best results are obtained if your bedroom has an alcove or is extra long and quite narrow. Have a carpenter build a platform a foot high and larger all around than your bed. Set this in the alcove or at one end of the too long room. When the bed is on this it will need hangings draped from the center wall above the headboard and caught with bright enamel tacks, and it will need two huge floor cushions, one on either side of the bed on the platform.

The most successful of these raised bed decorations the writer saw in a semi-bungalow. The bed was ivory of a very good shape; the drapery was an old pair of dotted Swiss window curtains. The floor cushions were made out of a worn black velvet cape; they had trimmings of flowers made of odd bits of different colored ribbon and they were stuffed with shredded tissue paper.

In the offertory table so often seen in high ceilinged drawing rooms, can be reproduced consistently in a small room, only here it is an extra large kitchen table, unpainted and covered with cloth and hanging tacked on straight. If one is a good judge an exquisite old altar cloth may be picked up for a cover. The side and front covering extend to the floor, and in an apartment with limited room in it the space beneath this table may be a storehouse for many things, children's toys among them.

Radiators are better covered. If one cannot afford the lovely ivory and cane asbestos lined box that fits over a radiator and makes one believe it and its ugliness exist not, a smaller addition of the offertory table may be contrived with a board and an old velvet vestment picked up from an antique shop or with just a remnant of velvet or taffeta that will harmonize with the rest of the room.

One cannot afford cut flowers in one's rooms, perhaps. Yet, cut flowers have an air. Artistically made paper flowers—carnations, roses, morning glories—will last a few weeks before they must be renewed. Place good ones in your silver vases and you'll find them better than no flowers at all.

Hanging wall baskets of silver and of French glass are used. They, too, are replenished in big houses every day or two. But that is out of the question for the housewife whose purse is slender.

If you can pick up two such receptacles, one to hang at either side of your mantel, put a little clay bowl of dirt with vines growing in it to stretch a saloon salad such cold vegetables as green peas and cucumbers taste well and help make more. Lettuce too, can be cut up liberally through the fish, as most people do not eat lettuce when it is used as a garnish, even though they are fond of it.

Cold baked beans and hard boiled eggs are good both to eat and look upon.

Calf Brain Croquettes.

Cook the calf brain in salted boiling water for 15 minutes. Drain and remove outside membrane. Mash with a fork. Season with a teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, a tablespoon chopped onion. Add to this one cup of cooked rice. Mix well, shape, dip in bread crumbs and fry in deep fat until brown.

Mending China or Glass.

To mend china or glass, melt some powdered alum in an old spoon. Before it hardens rub this over the pieces to be united, press them together and set them aside to dry. They will not come apart, even if washed with hot water.

The Indian women of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, proclaimed by many judges to be the most beautiful women in the world, add to their picturesque attractiveness by wearing in the form of gold coins strung about the arms and neck.

The bouquets thrown to Mme. Patti on the occasion of one of her farewell appearances in Paris filled eight carriages.

Women's Club Active In Thrift Versus Extravagance

Thrift week will be celebrated in every woman's club in the United States January 17-24, 1920. Miss George Bacon, Worcester, Mass., director of the thrift department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has been authorized by the executive board of the federation to co-operate with the Young Men's Christian association in its great national drive during that period to teach the American people the necessity of thrift. Nearly $5,000,000 are spent for the movies every year; $3,000,000,000 for immorality; $2,000,000,000 for soft drinks; a like amount for tobacco and cigars; $200,000,000 for confectionery and $13,000,000,000 for chewing gum, while millions more are spent on cheap theaters, dance halls and other pernicious forms of amusement that pave the way for mental, moral and physical degeneration as well as financial loss. Club women say that the time has arrived when a campaign must be inaugurated for the protection of the moral life of the nation and the family pocket-book. Such wild expenditure as now characterizes the average wage-earner as well as the man and woman of moderate means calls for drastic action. Something must be done to arouse the people of every community to the need of conserving their incomes. Reckless expenditure of every kind is to be frowned upon. The study of family budgets is to receive consideration. Lessons in thrift are to be taught at women's clubs and through them disseminated throughout every community. Material will be sent to every federated club from which outlines of study may be prepared. Special speakers from university extension departments will be heard at all leading clubs during Thrift week with a view to starting a campaign of education that will continue throughout the year.

An appetizing combination salad is made by putting the following vegetables through the fine part of the meat grinder: Cabbage, celery, carrots, red and green peppers and cucumbers. Either mayonnaise or French dressing should be used to marinate it liberally. This makes a nice salad to serve with cold meat.
